Spain now clearly admits that she has all the war she was looking for.

Ten Thousand people witnessed the hoisting of Old Glory over the city of santiago.

There is going to be a hot time in the old town when the American army bombards Havana.

The surrender of the city of Santiago to Shafter's army marks the beginning of the end of the war.

Uncle sam has given Germany to understand that he will have no trifling with his affairs at Manila.

Blanco predicts that the Cubans will aid Spain against the United States before the war is over, but what Blanco says does not go every time.

The Cristobal Colon, one of the finest of the warships of Cervera's fleet, is a complete loss. Naval engineers report that she cannot be raised.

An Appalachicola sponge boat was found on the 17th floating bottom side up off Tarpon springs, it is thought that the entire crew of 9 men were lost.

Submarine fleets are a good thing to have, but Spain has come to the conclusion that her's are not exactly the right kind with which to whip the United States.

That an American is termed a pig by a Spaniard is no sign he can be kept out of Santiago by a barbed-wire fence.--Chicago Journal.

A corporal who was with Col. Roosevelts troop at the fight at Santiago, says the Rough Riders were saved from axtermination by the breavery and heroism of the colored regiment.

Prof. Freeman Schley a cousin of admiral Schley, commander of the Flying Squadran committed suicide in Tampa this week, because he was refused a position in the navy by his cousin.

When Blanco heard of the destruction of Cervera's fleet, he attempted to commit suicide. That is the best thing we have heard of Blanco doing yet. We hope he will have better success next time he trys it.

Mans Life.

Man's life is full of crosses and temtation. An exchange says man comes in to this world without his will, and his trip between the two eternities is exceedingly rough. The rule of contrariness is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little the girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is called a poor man, but if he raises a small check he is a thief and fraud and is shunned like a Chinaman with the itch. If poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich he is dishonest; if he is in politics it's for pie; if he's out of politics you can't tell where to place him and he's no good to his country; if he does an act of charity it's for policy; if he won't give to charity he's stingy and lives only for himself; if he dies young there's a great future ahead of him; if he lives to a ripe old age he has missed his calling. He introduced to this world by a doctor and to the next by the same process. Verily, the road is rough, but men like to travel it.—Ex.

An exchange says Congressman Fleming has secured a ruling from the internal revenue department that is important to all banks and depositors. It is to the effect that a depositor, instead of checking out money and having to stamp the check, may give the bank a receipt for the amount received and not put a stamp on the receipt. A check is a negotiable paper, and must be stamped. The receipt to the bank is simply a private transaction between the bank and its customers, and need not be stamped.

"Dont forget the war stamp," says the Chicago Times-Herald. We will not. We went to the bank to draw out $2 the other day, and the darned bank would n't allow us to draw out our own money until the check was stamped and as we didn't have a cent we couldn't buy a stamp. This is a h—l of a country anyway.—Hardeman Free Press.

Congress has adjourned s in die, and Col. Nat Walker, clerk of the committee on Indian tribes will be home shortly. As the fish law has been tested from every quarter and found legal, Mr Walker will show his worth in the next legislature by getting it repealed or amended to suit the people of the Gulf counties.

Dr. Porter had no power to prevent the landing of the sick and wounded from Santiago de Cuba in Florida, but the president very considerately told him they would be carried to a more Northern climate.

The trial of the civil suits against Collins and his bondsmen ended last week in Tallahassee. The aggregate of the verdicts in favor of the state, was $88,902.

If it was not for the cool Gulf breeze the heat would de unbearable here now.

Col. R. Don McLead visited Sopchoppy Wednesday on business.
