HAFID'S CAUSE IS HOLY

A Religious War Proclaimed in Morocco—Abd-el-Aziz to be Deposed and Infidels Excluded

Tangier, Morocco, January 11.—Mulai Hafid was on Jan. 4 proclaimed Sultan at Fez, one of the capitals of Morocco, and a holy war has been declared.

Abd-el-Aziz, the sultan of record, was formally deposed from the sultanate.

The followers of Mulai Hafid made use of the decision of Abd-el-Aziz to cooperate with France and Spain in the execution of the terms of the Algeciras act and the installation of an international police force in the coast towns of Morocco to arouse the fanaticism of the Southern Moors. Abd-el-Aziz was represented as having sold himself to the Christians, as having connived at the invasion of the sacred soil of Morocco by Europeans and as being ready to turn the country over to foreigners.

Mulai was proclaimed sultan on condition that he abolish taxation, make an alliance with the sultan of Turkey and suppress all relations with Europeans, except those "prescribed by rules and customs."

Fez is reported to be in an uproar. The foreign residents are armed and fearful lest outbreaks of pillage or a massacre occur.

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

SIXTEEN CHILDREN SLAIN

Life Trampled Out of the Little Ones in the Rush for Seats at an English Theater

Barnsley, Eng., Jan. 13.—Sixteen children were trampled to death and forty others injured in a mad rush for better seats at an entertainment here Saturday afternoon. Many children were packed in the galleries and in an effort to relieve the congestion ushers requested the children to come down stairs. Immediately there was a rush for the stairway and before order could be restored the children were fighting to reach the stairway and those in front were pushed over and fallen upon by those behind and so on until the staircase was lined with dead and dying.

MARY TERRELL'S MENDACITY

In Telling Lies About Florida, She Has Barry Beaten Many City Blocks

(Tampa Tribune, 12th.)

Who Miss Mary Church Terrell may be the Tribune is not informed. She seems, however, to be a disciple of Mrs. Lawyer, Special Agent Quackenbush and the infamous liar, Posner, some of whose malicious and detestable utterances in New York we have recently chronicled and commented upon. But this Miss Terrell, if she has received her lessons from this mistress and this pastmaster in malignant affrontry and mendacity, has disobeyed the Biblical injunction that warns a disciple not to attempt to transcend his teacher; for verily she has written words of such vile and horrid accusations against the South—the state of Florida in particular—that they make one choke with indignation and tremble with a rage that must remain impotent because she is a woman.

It was in the Nineteenth Century Magazine that Miss Terrell spat out her venom. And strange to say the article was in part copied and commented on in a friendly spirit in no less a publication than the Northwestern Christian Advocate. Would that we had space to reproduce the whole of the infamous production even as it appeared in this great organ of a Christian denomination. But read the following from Miss Terrell's virulent pen:

"In the same month of October came the startling announcement that one thousand white girls, who are rightful heiresses to valuable timber lands in the wilds of the Florida pine woods, wear men's clothing and work side by side with colored men, who are held in slavery as well as the girls. Stories of the treatment accorded these white girls of Florida, which reached the ears of the Washington officials, equal in cruelty some of the tales related in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' by Harriet Beecher Stowe. In the black depths of pine woods, living in huts never seen by civilized white men other than the bosses of the turpentine camps, girls are said to have grown old in servitude. These girls are said to be the daughters of crackers, who, like fathers in prehistoric times, little value the birth of a girl, and sell the best years of their daughters' lives to the turpentine or sulphur miners and to the lumber men for a mere song. To be discharged from one of these camps means death to an employee. Since they receive nothing for their services, their dismissal is no revenge for an angered foreman or boss. The slaves are too numerous to be beaten, and it is said to be a part of the system never to whip an employee, but invariably to shoot the doomed man or woman upon the slightest provocation, so that the others might be kept in constant subjection."
