Mr. and Mrs. John H. L. Carney, at her pleasant home on Oklawaha avenue.

Mrs. Carney very cordially greted her guests at the door and showed them the way to the dressing rooms, where cloaks, hats, etc., were left.

On descending the stairs the guests were served fruit punch by Mrs. G. S. Scott and Mrs. Charles Rheinauer. They were then asked into the parlor, where Mr. and Mrs. Taylor received.

Tables for cards were arranged in the parlor and library. The tally cards were little white hearts tied with narrow white ribbon. The interesting game of whist was enjoyed for some time. Mr. Ben Rheinauer was ahead of the other gentlemen, both for points and games. No prizes were given.
