HOWELL-NURNEY

A Wedding in Suffolk Va., in Which Ocala People are Interested

We clip the following from the Daily Landmark, of Norfolk, Va.:

Suffolk, Feb. 5.—In the presence of a large and fashionable audience in the Suffolk Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock, Miss Jessie Campbell Nurney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Nurney, became the bride of Mr. Claude Flynn Howell, a young lumber manufacturer of Holly Ridge, N. C. The entire auditorium of the pretty church was elaborately decorated, palms, arches and cut flowers with yards of wild smilax being used with a most artistic effect. The beauty of the scene was enhanced by the numbers of white tapers which lighted the interior.

The music was rendered by Mr. William Wall Whiddit, of Norfolk.

The strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, were the signal for the entrance of the bridal party. Messrs. John P. Lee and Alfred T. Riddick entered first and took their places under an arch of palms.

Miss Therese Nurney, gowned in white messaline silk and filet lace and Miss Elizabeth M Busby, of Portsmouth Va., wearing a gown of white messaline silk and lace, were bridesmaids. Both are cousins of the bride. They entered with Mr. A. Hinton Hargrave and Mr. Cliff Jones.

The first maid of honor, Miss Mildred Nurney, in a gown of white messaline silk over taffeta, entered with Mr. John Harrison Mitchell, of Norfolk.

Miss Daisy Nurney, the second maid of honor gowned in white embroidered mull over taffeta, preceded the bride.

The matrons of honor, Mrs. Jack Camp, of Ocala, Florida, wearing a princess gown of navy white Pears' de Paris silk, with filet lace, and Mrs. E. Roland Hart, in a lace robe over cream taffeta entered with Mr. Harry Nurney and Mr. M. A. Cross.

All the ladies carried white carnations and maiden-hair ferns and wore wreaths of lillies of the valley.

The bride, who is a young woman of much personal beauty, entered with her father, who gave her away. She wore a bridal robe of Duchess lace over taffeta, her tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower of bride's-roses and lillies of the valley. Her only ornament was a necklace the gift of the groom.

She was met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Harvey Holland. The ceremony was read by Rev. Richard Lee Walton, pastor of the church.

During the ceremony Jensen's bridal song was played softly. The bridal party left the church to Mendelssohn's wedding march, and repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was tendered the bridal party and members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell left for a northern tour on the 8:45 Norfolk and Western train.

The brides' going-away gown was a black cloth tailored suit. They will be at home in "The Carolina," Wilmington, N. C. after February 20.

The out of town guests were Mrs. T. A. Smythe, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. J. H. Mitchell, Norfolk, Va.; Miss Elizabeth Busby, of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Jack Camp and son, of Ocala Florida.

The love and esteem in which this popular young couple are held was evinced by the array of costly and beautiful wedding gifts.

Mrs. Howell as a guest of the Camps made several visits to Ocala, where she made many friends. She is a most charming young lady and the Star hopes that happiness will ever be hers.

THE PHILISTINE

Elbert Hubbard, the "Philistine," will lecture in Jacksonville Feb. 26.

Prof. J. H. Brinson, of Rollins College, is a candidate for county superintendent of public instruction of Marion county. This is Prof. Brinson's old home and while we know nothing of his position, we can frankly state, no better man could be found for the position. He is a man of clean record, a man of intelligence, having been on the faculty of some of Florida's best institutions, should know his duties and perform them in a manner that no other could possibly attain.—Orlando Reporter-Star.
