

OCALA OCCURRENCES

Weeks Friday night.

Passion Play tomorrow night.

Rebekahs meet tomorrow night.

Woodmen meet Friday evening.

Judge Bell is in Dunnellon today.

The Edwin R. Weeks Co. will be at the armory Friday night.

Oysters in all styles served on three minutes' notice at the Elks Cafe.

Little Fannie Carlisle has been very ill for a week past.

Don't forget the Passion Play at the Berlin Theater tomorrow night.

Mrs. Sanders went down to Brooksville this afternoon to visit friends.

J. A. Murrell of McIntosh was at the Ocala House last night.

G. K. Williams, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is at the Ocala House.

Mrs. Mary Eagleton went down to Lake Weir Tuesday evening.

Little Miss Irene Tompkins is quite sick with the measles.

Mrs. Sallie Baker of Marianna, is in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Dement.

Mrs. Harry Cline, who has been absent several days visiting friends in Jacksonville, returned home this afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy, the mother of Mrs. A. Campbell, who spent the winter with her daughter has returned home, to Sorrento.

Mrs. J. H. Livingston, Jr.'s mother arrived yesterday afternoon from Gainesville, Ga., on a visit to her daughter.

Mr. P. W. Roberts, a successful merchant of Holder, was among the visitors in the city today. His son, W. M. Roberts, is now the freight agent at Leesburg for the A. C. L.

Mrs. John W. Dodge and children and sister, Miss Daniel, of Lynchburg, Va., and Miss Harris, of Richmond, Va., arrived this afternoon to visit the family of Rev. Dodge at the Presbyterian manse.

The members of Tulula Lodge, I. O. O. F., at their meeting last night, decided to keep their club rate open for another week. They have eighteen applications for membership and several more in prospect.

Those who failed to visit the Berlin Theater last night missed a bunch of good laughs. The "mother-in-law race" was the funniest ever. However, there are a fine lot of pictures on tonight, and it would be bad policy for you to miss seeing them.

Miss Lillie Frost, who has been to New York selecting dry goods for the H. B. Masters Co., returned home today and those interested in that line of goods can have their curiosity supplied by calling around and seeing her selections.

Mr. W. C. Blanchard, the veteran contractor, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks by the results of his accident at Inglis, is able to be out again. Mr. Blanchard's walk of several miles while suffering from such a painful injury was a plucky thing to do and one beyond the ability of many men.

A SURPRISE

There is a rumor afloat that a very quiet wedding took place this morning, the contracting parties being one of our most prominent young lawyers and an attractive visiting girl. The popular couple was met at the train by a bevy of friends who showered them with rice and old shoes.

THE WEEKS COMPANY

Every one who attended the entertainment at the Auditorium last season given by the Edwin R. Weeks Co. will tell you it was by far the best entertainment ever given by the lyceum in Montezuma. It is the star attraction of the many high-class companies controlled by the Alkalest entertainments to ever visit the South.

If you are a member of the Grouch Club, hear the Weeks people Monday night and you will be sure to resign. Ask some friend how they enjoyed the entertainment last season and you will be sure to attend. Entire change of program for this season.—Montezuma, (Ga.) Daily Paper.

This excellent company will be at the armory Friday night.

NOTICE

Beginning Sunday, March 15th, we will charge 10 cents for ice cream sodas, chocolate and fruit sundaes, milk shakes and egg drinks.

Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.
Hunter Drug Company.
T. W. Troxler.

FISH POND DYNAMITED

Some miscreant secretly dynamited the pretty little lake or pond just west of the Taylor residence in the eastern part of the city a few days ago and killed hundreds of the fish that were in its deep waters, and must have created an outlet for the water, for it suddenly fell several feet. Hundreds of bream, large and small, trout, turtles and one carp which weighed 16 pounds were killed. The fish had to be hauled off by the city's sanitary wagon.

U. D. C. MEETING

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. C. H. Mathews Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Prompt attendance requested.

NOTICE TO LYCEUM MEMBERS

Tickers are now on sale at the Ocala News Co. for the Edwin R. Weeks Company. This is one of the best attractions in the lyceum course.

Dr. H. C. Groves came up from his Tampa drugstore last night to spend a few days in the city. He expects to return to Tampa Friday or Saturday, and is thinking seriously of selling his home in this city, as most of his time must be spent in Tampa, looking after the drugstore he is interested in there.

Mr. E. K. Nelson, of Tampa, secretary and treasurer of the Blount Real Estate Co., was in town yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company.

S. H. Gaitskill, of McIntosh came down Tuesday afternoon to line up on the political fence.

A FINE PLAY;

BE SURE TO SEE IT

The Corinne Runkel Company will present this evening one of the best plays of the kind ever seen in Ocala, "The True Kentuckian." This has pleased large audiences wherever the company has played it, and Ocala theater goers will miss something fine if they fail to see it.

Owing probably to the excitement that has been going on in town the last few days, the audience which witnessed the play, "The Tiger" last night was rather slim, but it is the unanimous testimony of those who went that the play was good and the actors first rate. This is the last night of this excellent company in the city, and the people should give them a good house.

A LOVELY PORCH PARTY

Tuesday afternoon from four to six Miss Bessye Porter was the hostess at a delightful porch party, which she gave in honor of Miss Florence Bisbee, one of the most attractive society girls of Jacksonville. The spacious veranda of the Hood home was converted into a bower of woodland, the entire porch being screened in by dogwood blossoms and yellow jessamine. Hammered brass jardiniere holding large palms were used to good effect. Under a canopy of green and yellow jessamine delightful grapefruit punch was served. The punch table was covered in bowls of yellow and purple pansies and a bunch of purple pansies being frozen in the iced punch. Four tables for the game of progressive logomachy were placed around the veranda, each table holding a cut glass bowl of parma violets.

At the conclusion of the games it was found that Miss Pauline Sullivan was the winner of the prize, a dainty hand-made linen shirtwaist holder. To the guest of honor was presented a beautiful white lace fan.

In the living room which was bright in bowls of violets and pansies, nut cream, almonds, cake and coffee were served. The cream was in yellow jessamine ramkins. Each guest was given a bunch of pansies as a souvenir of this spring party. Miss Porter received her guests in a dainty lingerie dress embroidered in blue and looked extremely chic and pretty. The honoree, Miss Bisbee, looked lovely in a blue liberty satin with black picture hat.

The scores were kept on light yellow ribbon counters and as each person progressed they were given a small bell as a counter. Mrs. W. A. Collier charmingly aided her sister in entertaining.

Miss Porter's guests were: Misses Gray and Askew, of Savannah, Bullock, Miller, Sullivan, Hatchell, Hendon, Mathews, Standley, Williams, Mann and Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Seligman and Mrs. Davis of Jacksonville.

Mr. Geo. K. Robinson has purchased the splendid lot on Oklawaha avenue between the residences of Mrs. J. K. Austin and Mr. T. B. Snyder.

Miss Eloise Smoak, whose fresh young voice so delighted the audience at the trades extravaganza, will aid in the singing at the presentation of the Passion Play at the Berlin theater the three evenings after this.

Miss Caro Liddon left yesterday for Gainesville, where she went to be bridesmaid to Miss Redding, of Gainesville, Ga., who was married at high noon today to Mr. Daughtry of Jacksonville. The wedding was quite an event in Gainesville society, being one of the largest church weddings of the season.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Pawnee Cochran, of Citra, had the misfortune to lose their house and contents by fire. The loss was total, the house not being insured.

RHEINAUER & COMPANY

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT

Ex-Policeman Homer Dean Fined $100
Messrs. McIver and Tucker
Discharged

The auditorium at the mayor's court was packed this morning until standing room was at a premium. There were several minor cases disposed of; R. T. Russ, drunk, fined $5; John White, disorderly conduct, discharged; Israel Watson, disorderly conduct, $25 and costs; Mr. Pursen, fighting, $5 and costs; J. Graham, disorderly, $25 and costs; Marie Williams, disorderly conduct, $15 and costs. All of the above parties were colored.

The cases were then taken up against Mr. McIver, Mr. Walter Tucker and Officer Dean. Mr. McIver's case was heard first. He made a statement after pleading not guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct or fighting. Mr. McIver said Dean made the assault on him entirely uncalled for or unprovoked; that he had his right hand on his gun when he cursed and struck him, McIver, and that at the second blow he drew the gun and held it to his, McIver's, face. About this time some one, Mr. Chas. W. Smith he thought, attracted Dean's attention and as Dean turned a little Mr. McIver grabbed him around the arms and pinned him arms at his side, with the arms loose below the elbows. Dean, in this position flourished the gun, or it wobbled all around, and Mr. Smith then took the gun away from Dean. Dean was released and in the tussel Mr. McIver fell or was partially thrown forward and Dean then jumped on him and drove his thumbs into his face; that up to that time Dean had done him no bodily injury. Mr. McIver said if they had let him alone after getting the gun away from Dean he could have brought the officer down to the lock-up without assistance and without injury to himself.

Several other witnesses were examined, M. M. Little, Victor Martinot, Marshal Cleveland and A. E. Owen, all of whom practically gave the same evidence that Mr. McIver did.

Mr. Tucker was sworn and pleaded not guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct or fighting, and stated that he was standing several feet away, leaning against the post when Mr. Smith asked Dean repeatedly for the gun. That he did not interfere until after the gun had been secured, when Mr. McIver fell forward on his face and Dean leaped upon him, striking and gouging him in the face, when he pulled Dean off and probably did it in a rather rough manner as times were strenuous and action had to be taken at once.

Dean was asked to take the stand and be sworn, but declined, upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. Raymond Bullock, to make any defense, so was not sworn.

Mayor Nash then announced the following decisions: Mr. McIver be discharged, Mr. Tucker be discharged and that Mr. Dean be fined $100 or sixty days imprisonment. Great applause broke out in the audience, and court was adjourned.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

There will be a special meeting of the city council at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning for the purpose of taking up the matter of the police department of the city. A full attendance is urged.

Dan G. Pleasant, assistant secretary and agency director of the Florida Life Insurance Co., Jacksonville, was in town today to talk over insurance matters with the district agent of the company, Mr. Robert Stripling.

PASSION PLAY

WILL BE PRODUCED

This week at the Berlin Theater, the Passion Play, or life of Christ, will be given for three days; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 12th, 13th and 14th. These pictures will be shown here just as the play is given by the Peasants, all in the Oriental colors. There are four reels of film, and each film will be illustrated with a sacred song by Mr. Al Spitzer, of New York, and Miss Eloise Smoak of this city. The entire play will be shown each day. Special matinee in the afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. Program in the evening begins at 7 o'clock. Prices of admission will be 15 and 25 cents.

THE LAST PAYMENT

Dr. S. H. Blitch, receiver for the defunct T. W. Smith Co., mailed today the last dividend checks, which represented a very small amount. The total payments on the indebtedness was very small, and but for the doctor's vigilance in collecting would have been ever smaller.

Mrs. H. L. Anderson entertained a number of her friends most pleasantly at the Arms House yesterday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Anderson left this afternoon for Jacksonville to see her sister, Mrs. Strunk, who has been quite ill. Mrs. Strunk will return with Miss Anderson, to see if the change will not be beneficial.

Will Marlow, the popular salesman at the Teapot Grocery, has made a very artistic display of soap in the window of that store. It is Andrew Jergens' make.

Mrs. George Eugene Bryson, of Anthony, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frances Howse on Oklawaha avenue.

Mr. Robert Taylor of the Atlantic Coast Line has returned from a trip to South Florida.

Mr. John T. Lewis, who came up today from Moss Bluff, will leave tomorrow evening for the Manatee section to inspect state convicts at the various camps through that section.

Miss Bisbee, the attractive young lady from Jacksonville, who has been the guest of Mrs. O. T. Green and made many friends while, returned home today.

D. W. Tompkins disposed of a very fine horse yesterday to Mr. O. P. Williams, the turpentine operator at Berlin.

Hy Morrison and daughter, of the Stanton section, were in town today shopping.
