

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD

and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder—

So does France
So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious.

To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder,

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

and be very sure you get Royal.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.

ON ONLY ONE COMMITTEE

But that is the Busiest, and Congressman Sparkman has Plenty to Do

In its issue of Monday the Washington Herald says:

"Fifteen counties comprise the First District of Columbia, which has a population of nearly 200,000. Hon Stephen M. Sparkman represents the district in the house of representatives. It is evident he does not have to worry much over his campaign. In the election for the Sixtieth Congress, there were cast only 7,179 votes, and Mr.
Sparkman had 6,112 of those. And so it has been going ever since the Fifty-fourth Congress. Representative Sparkman was raised on a farm. That did not deter him from seeking public preference. Educated in the common schools of Florida, he later read law under Governor H. L. Mitchell, and was admitted to practice in 1872. It was not long before the public eye was focused on the rising lawyer. He was elected state's attorney from the sixth judicial circuit, holding down the job for nine years. He was a member of the democratic congressional executive committee for four years, serving as chairman for two years. From 1892 to 1896 he was chairman of the democratic state executive committee.

"Representative Sparkman is a member of but one committee of the house, that of rivers and harbors.
Members of Congress from every district wherein flows a small stream have numerous bills for improvements to these streams. So the committee on rivers and harbors is usually busy considering these demands, and the committeemen have plenty to do."

MORE FIGHTING IN MINDANAO

here. It is supposed the soldiers overtook the Moros and engaged them. No

DISEASE HAS FREAKS

(Kansas City Journal.)

No medical man needs to be told that even disease has its freaks, and that recovery has occasionally been brought about by means inexplicably trivial. One of the most remarkable of these unaccountable eccentricities of disease took place at Halver, in Westphalia. The case was that of a boy who, as the result of a very heavy fall backward on his head while skating, had for a year and a half been deaf and dumb. One morning his brother went to awake him, and finding him sleeping heavily tapped him lightly on the forehead. To his amazement the deaf and dumb boy awoke with a loud cry. Both speech and hearing had been restored.

DANCING ON GOLD DUST

(Pearson's Weekly.)

The great dancing expert, My Fancy, who is doing the Moss & Stoll tour, has danced on gold dust, and it came about in this manner: "When starring with Charles Godfrey's company in Western Australia," she told me, "no sand was procurable for my dance, so the people in the place said they would get me some gold dust, and accordingly they brought quite a quantity of the precious stuff along and I found that it answered the purpose very well. I reckon that was about the queerest use gold has ever been put to. Of course, it was mixed with quartz, but when I put it in water I could see the gold grains shining ever so prettily."

A WOMAN TELLS HOW TO RE- LIEVE RHEUMATIC PAINS

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman.
Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs.
Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by all druggists.

In Regard to Engagements and Marriages Will Go Into Force Easter Sunday

Rome, April 16.—In order to make them binding, Catholic sweethearts must make their engagements in writing after next Sunday.

Catholic marriages by Protestant clergymen or magistrates will be invalid. Such marriages have always been punishable by the church, but it has considered them binding. They are not even that under the new Catholic law.

The revised betrothal and marriage rules will be read from every Catholic pulpit in the world at Easter and will become effective at noon.

Elaborate provision is made for the registration of marriages and severe ecclesiastical penalties are provided for priests who violate any of the rules.
