THE FUNERAL SERVICES OF MISS EMILY TATHAM

The mortal remains of Miss Emily Tatham were interred yesterday afternoon in Greenwood cemetery. The body was taken from Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Schrieber's home on Oklawaha avenue to Grace Episcopal church, where Rector George Hendree Harrison read the touching and impressive ceremony of the church. The choir, the members of which were selected by Miss Tatham to sing for the annual meeting of the Band of Mercy, which was to have taken place Sunday afternoon in Grace Episcopal church, consisted of Messrs. W. L. Jewett, J. J. Gerig, George Pasteur, Mesdames Clarkson, Mote and Misses Gamsby and Esther Weathers. Miss Wartmann presided at the organ. The pall bearers were C. L. Bittinger, J. J. Gerig, Townley Porter, Horace Harrold, George H. Ford and Mr. Drake.

The church was filled with loving and sympathetic friends, who came to lay wreaths and bouquets of beautiful flowers on the bier, and the grave was literally banked with these loving tokens of esteem and respect for an admirable and exalted character of womanhood and so impressed the public with her loving kindness and generous disposition to the needy and destitute and none but expressions of regret were heard that she had been called from this life to the inheritance of immortality beyond, not that all knew it was only a matter of a short time for her to tarry at best with us, but because of her large usefulness here that her life could have been spared a few years more to carry on her noble work.

It is pleasing to know that her death was so peaceful and calm, at it is said she fell asleep in the afternoon never to wake again on earth.

Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber, who were absent at Staunton, Va., at the time of Miss Tatham's death, could not be reached, although four telegrams were sent after them, telling them of the sad news, and they knew nothing of Miss Tatham's death until Rev. G. H. Harrison met them at the S. A. L. depot Sunday morning and broke the sorrowful news to them. A truly good and noble woman has gone from us. The memory of her exalted Christian life is left as a legacy of peerless value.

The above program was splendidly carried out Sunday morning by the M. E. Sunday school children, in the M. E. church audience room, Dr. Izlar acting as master of ceremonies. The church was full to overflowing into the Sunday school annex. Among the audience were many of the Baptist school who had come up to greet their Methodist friends. The railing of the altar was entwined with magnolia leaves, while the pulpit space was decorated and adorned with plants, ferns and flowers. The Sunday school choir led by Dr. Blalock sang well. The body of the church presented a most animated and interesting scene with its well dressed audience in garments typical of June, surmounted by the bright and smiling faces of children and the pleased expression on the faces of parents and friends. It was a notable gathering and an inspirational meeting of the school in commemoration of the delightful features of children's day which with its annual recurrence brings more joy and happiness than any day of the year to young and old hearts, except the Christmas festival. At the close of the exercises Dr. Izlar thanked the audience for their presence and attention and hoped as many as could would be present with them every Sunday. A collection was then taken up, which was to promote and aid the establishment of new Sunday schools wherever needed and with announcements for the week the audience was dismissed. This notice being incomplete without giving the names of those on the committee whose untiring labors made children's day a success. They were Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. Blalock, Mrs. Hampton, Miss Jessielou Martin, T. M. Moore and Royal Cole.

I. O. O. F. MEMORIAL SERVICES

The services took place Sunday afternoon at Yonge's Hall and quite a number of Odd Fellows and friends assembled to commemorate the death of departed members in a well arranged and executed program. J. F. Thompson, noble grand, presided. The playing and singing by Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Blalock and Mrs. T. H. Johnson was a pleasing feature of the afternoon, while the eulogy of departed brothers by M. M. Little was a very interesting contribution to local Odd Fellowship history in Ocala. Those he mentioned were Captain Cleary, John Cordero and Prof. Colby, all well and favorably known to our older residents. Captain Cleary was one of the founders of the Presbyterian church in Ocala and one of its deacons. Justice Cordero for many years dispersed justice in this precinct and was a man who won all hearts by his generous impulses and correct sense of equity. Prof. Colby, as a photographer and musician, had few equals and his death was a distinct loss to Ocala. The recent deaths were those of C. A. Sanders and W. T. Cole, Dr. W. H. Dodge, pastor of the Presbyterian church, made a splendid address on the virtues of Odd Fellowship. Jake Brown acted as chaplain. After the ceremonies the flowers brought to the lodge room were taken to the cemetery and distributed on the graves of the departed. The Odd Fellows are to be commended for the admirable manner in which they carried out their program.

BOWMAN WAS REPRIMANDED

Herbert Bowman, a young of fifteen years, was arrested at Oxford last Thursday and taken before Judge Locke, of the United States court, in Jacksonville. He was implicated in the theft of $15 from the Crystal River postoffice several months ago.

It seems that Postmaster Miller went to dinner, locked the postoffice, but left his store open. During his absence several boys entered the postoffice window and stole the money. The boys implicated were Herbert Bowman, Willie Black and Walter Barnes. When Herbert Bowman was accused of the theft he denied it, but said the other boys had taken it and asked him to keep the money, which he did.

At the hearing Saturday, Judge Locke gave Bowman a severe reprimand and placed him in the care of his grandfather at Oxford.

THE GRINDING OF LENSES FOR SPECTACLES

Is a delicate operation. It requires skilled workmen at high salaries to grind lenses by prescription. The smallest deviation from the proper curvature makes a big difference in the lens. The measurements are made with very sensitive instruments and my lenses are ground for me by workmen of the highest skill and scientific training. DR. D. M. BONEY, Eyesight Specialist, Ocala, Florida.

Office Hours: 8 to 12 a. m. and 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. Optical Office and Laboratory, Rooms 2 and 4, Gary Block.

Mr. Rufus Perry, of Pedro, was in town today. He reports that the cantaloupe crop in his section is reaching its finish, but the melons have been greatly benefited by the late rains and prices received are good. He will ship this and next week five cars, running in size from 3 5 to 40 pounds apiece.

The Oak Grove picnic and barbecue will be held at the Oak Grove picnic grove on June 24th. Everybody invited. The place is two miles northwest of Wildwood. Rufus Perry will see that the meats are done to a T. As this is a favorite picnic ground for the people of Sumter county a big crowd can be looked for, probably 1500 persons. The editor of the Star returns thanks for an invitation to be present.

NOTICE

A NEW MEDICAL MANIFESTO

Addressed to the Physicians of the World

A committee of the International Association of Physicians organized last August at Stockholm has just prepared and issued the following appeal, which it is desired to give as wide a circulation as possible, as signatures and endorsements of the same are to be gathered throughout the world. It is entitled "An Appeal by the Physicians of all Lands to all Rulers, Governments, Legislatures, all Educators, Teachers and Ministers, and all who have a sincere interest in the welfare of our race and coming generation." It then proceeds:

"We, who belong to the medical profession and have by study and experience been especially enabled to recognize the true nature and the effects of alcoholic beverages, hereby declare that we are thoroughly convinced that these beverages are altogether unnecessary and in every way injurious, so that we believe the evils arising from the indulgence in intoxicating drinks can and should be eliminated and avoided. Above all, the youth should be taught by precept and example and protected by legal enactments, so that they will abstain from alcoholic liquors. We declare that it is our conviction that this course must be pursued to insure the future sobriety of the race, which is the foundation of its prosperity, welfare and progress."

Signed first by Dr. Holltscher, Pirk-enhammer, Germany; Dr. Ridge, Enfield, England; Dr. Stein, Budapest, Hungary; Dr. Vogt, Christiania, Norway; Dr. Laitinen, Helsingfors, Finland; Dr. Orlík, Frederiksvaerk, Denmark.—Union Signal.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT COLUMBUS, OHIO

Columbus, Ohio, June 7.—The sentiment that there is no longer sectional hatred in America was reiterated with emphasis yesterday at the annual memorial service held at the Confederate cemetery at Camp Chase, where 2,260 soldiers who wore the gray are buried. The speaker on the part of the Confederacy was Rev. Edward O. Guerrant of Wilmore, Ky., who was captain in the First Brigade, Kentucky Cavalry, under Gen. John H. Morgan, the famous raider, who was captured with some of his men and confined for a time in the Ohio penitentiary, whence he escaped. Rev. Guerrant said that forty-three years ago it would have taken all of Gen. R. E. Lee's army to have brought him here, but on this occasion his only escort was his daughter, "a little rebel girl." Rev. Guerrant said that he had seen many things that once he never expected to see, and one of them was a Confederate captain speaking in the capital city of Ohio.

Judge David F. Pugh spoke for the G. A. R., and other civil war veteran associations. Al G. Field, minstrel, also delivered an address. Members of the Grand Army and of the United Confederate Veterans made up a large portion of the gathering.

VENONA WON THE RACE

Hamilton, Bermuda, June 8.—With her starboard rail under water and driving under three lower sails in a twenty-knot breeze, the Venona, owned by George E. Bliss, of Boston, and carrying the flag of the Eastern Yacht Club, crossed the finish line at 3:34 yesterday afternoon, winning in class C in the race from Marblehead to Hamilton, the start of which was made shortly after 11 a. m. last Wednesday. When the Venona crossed no other contestant was in sight. The elapsed time was 99 hours 32 minutes 15 seconds, and the corrected time 98 hours 12 minutes and 15 seconds.

BIRMINGHAM IS READY FOR THE OLD SOLDIERS

Birmingham, Ala., June 8.—Birmingham is a mass of bunting and flags in honor of the Confederate veterans whose annual re-union will begin here tomorrow and continue through Thursday. The general committee has prepared for 30,000 visitors, and it is believed fully this number will be on hand. The extra trains began to come in today, and incoming trains had extra coaches crowded to the doors. Among the first to arrive was Gen. Taylor, head of Forest's cavalry corps.

The street and building decorations are far the most brilliant ever seen in Birmingham. Twentieth street has been made an esplanade of bunting and flags, and all of the big skyscrapers are decorated from top to bottom, presenting a unique and picturesque score. Capital park, which is near the center of the city, will be made a general rendezvous for renewing acquaintances. Immense grandstands have been erected along the park, from which officers will review the floral parade Thursday. At the state fair grounds a temporary hotel has been erected, at which 2,000 veterans will be cared for absolutely free.

Already many of the scores of sponsors and maids have arrived and the social features of the re-union will be notable.

Naturally the re-union will be the occasion for numerous smaller reunions. The largest will be that of the Sons of Veterans, which will continue for three days. Other affairs will be the meeting of the Southern Memorial Association, the Confederate choir, the doctors of the Confederacy, the Confederate Naval Veterans, the New York veterans, the Jeff Davis Memorial Association, the Wheeler corps and the Alabama veterans.

STARLING COMMITTED SUICIDE

Body of the Missing Daytona Man Found, Decomposed, in the Woods

Daytona, June 8.—Saturday morning Thomas Wetherell, Jr., discovered what remained of the body of R. R. Starling in a dense corpse of woods at Holly Hill. The flesh was in an advanced stage of decomposition, and little remained of the skeleton. It was identified by means of a watch and a pocketbook, the latter containing $12.30, found on the body.

Henry T. Titus, ex-officio coroner, viewed the body and came to the conclusion that it was a case of suicide.

R. R. Starling disappeared from his home May 9 and persistent search failed to reveal his whereabouts. When he left home he carried with him a bottle of arsenic and told one or two persons that he was going to poison a cat.

Previous to leaving home Starling had drawn on his sons' bank account for $250, which money he gave to a woman in town. The money was later recovered, but it is presumed that worry over his act caused him to take his own life.
