

A Woman's Health

Is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar and delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drugs should be employed. The one medicine which fulfills all these requirements is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilarating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they beget a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable.

Only invigorating and nerve strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system. It has been carefully adapted to woman's needs by an experienced physician—a specialist in their diseases. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach, sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dress-makers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept any secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is of known composition and has a record of over forty years of cures and sells more largely to-day than ever before. Its makers withhold no secrets from their patients, believing open publicity to be the very best guaranty of merit.

Dr. Pierce invites all suffering women to consult him by letter free of charge. All letters of consultation are held as strictly private and sacredly confidential and all answers are returned in plain, sealed envelopes. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

BETTY'S TRIP ABROAD.

Betty's back from Europe. Such a gorgeous trip! Highly educational—even on the ship. What did Betty learn? Oh, my! Everything on earth. One ought to know—and have you seen the gown she got from Worth?

Paris? Just delightful! Betty "did" it. What she saw! Well, lots of things Betty wouldn't tell.

The Louvre, of course, the Eiffel and the Bois, and all of that. And, oh, the sweetest vision of a pink and purple hat!

A hat—one can't describe it—with the true Parisian flare.

And feathers—a something—falling sideways on the hair.

London? Simply charming! So historic, don't you know?

The tower and the palaces, the churches and the "row."

Betty saw them all, she thinks—they come to her in flashes.

And all of them—the men, I mean—wore funny waxed mustaches.

And high silk hats—but, oh, my dear, they're clever as can be.

And say the most delightful things across a cup of tea.

The voyage? Really perfect! A little rough perhaps. But when the ship was rolling or your chaperon took naps.

There were so many things to learn—of the tower and ropes and pulleys.

And such delightful men to tuck you in your steamer rugs.

Or if you felt the wobble of the boat a little, too—

Well, aren't ship doctors charming in those uniforms of blue?

Betty's back from Europe, frazzled to a thread!

Glad to get once more into a comfortable bed.

Her bills? Alas, what father said! But why his vain vexation?

Betty's had her trip abroad—and such an education!

A Too Familiar Ego.

Deacon Stebbins, though a good citizen, was noted for getting more work out of the men who labored on his farm than any other agriculturist in the country. Late to bed was considered ample reason for an early rising.

Timothy Flannery was engaged by the deacon, but stayed one week only. A neighbor hailed the departing helper and said:

"Hello, Tim. Did the deacon work you too hard?"

"No; the worruk was all right. It was seen' too much of meself that I couldn't stand."

"Seeing too much of yourself?"

"Yes, sor. Ivery night when I went up to bed I met meself coming down to breakfast."—Woman's Home Companion.

Getting Personal.

Pomp—"Pears to me dar's sumfin queer 'bout de set of dese pants of yours, Mose. Am dey ready made?"

Mose—"No, sah. I don't wear no 'hand me downs.' Dese trousers was made to measure!"

Pomp—"Sho! Yo' don't say! Who for?"

After the Honeymoon.

"Boohoo!" sobbed Cynthia under her blue sunbonnet. "I don't believe you love me any more."

"Waal, I do declare!" laughed Jason as he washed the milk pails. "What put that idea into your head, little gal?"

"Why, before our marriage you used to honey me up and say I was as sweet as sweet cider, and now you say I am sour."

"Oh, don't worry, pet. Even the sweetest of sweet cider turns to vinegar after a time."—Detroit Tribune.

The Expensive Part.

"Does it cost much to live in the city?" asked the old lady from the small village.

"Oh, no," replied her city nephew. "It doesn't cost any more to live in the city than it does in the country, but it costs three times as much to keep up appearances."—New York World.

It Was Great.

"Why are you laughing? I heard a moment ago that the home team had been defeated."

"Yes—but—haw, haw!—it was great! I was there. A foul ball—haw, haw!—struck the umpire over the heart and nearly killed him."—St. Louis Republic.

Lost Its Edge.

"Great guns, barber, that razor of yours is in a terrible condition!" exclaimed the victim in the chair.

"Yessah, Ah 'spect yo' all am right. Ah done wore dat razor to er ball 'sah' night, sah, an' Ah reckon de grin'stome am what it needs."—Chicago News.

The Feminine View of It.

"Nell, what is a panic?"

"It is something, my dear child, which gives your husband a good excuse whenever you ask him for money for new clothes, house fixings or a little outing."—Baltimore American.

A Timely Suggestion.

Sighed the elderly swain to the blooming maid, "I would die for you!"

"You would?" she replied. "One would never think it to look at that head!"—Denver News Times.

PICNIC AT SILVER SPRINGS

Geiger, Fort King and the regions round about indulged in an old time outing and picnic, and jolly good time at the unequalled Silver Springs on Wednesday last. Early in the day the inhabitants, big and small, old and young, of all denominations, in all kinds of vehicles laden to overflowing with the very best that mother earth can produce, calculated to make glad the heart of the most heartless of God's creatures.

The Geiger Sunday school showed up in full force, chaperoned by Sister Cappelman, Superintendent Parker and bountifully provided for with pure sparkling ice water by the main stay of the community, Deacon Geiger.

After full justice was done to a sumptuous spread, the young men and boys persisted in stirring up the deep blue waters from the very bottom by heading plunging from the high spring board to the enjoyment of all concerned.

A spin down the run on the "Merry Willdow" was a delightful feature of the occasion, commanded by Captain Dodson and piloted by Engineer Pearce, with first officer Long on the "bridge." The merry voices of the little ones put the mocking birds and bull frogs out of business for the time being. All returned happy and delighted with the charming little river. Among other good results of the day's enjoyment was a lovely, gentle shower from the giver of all good gifts, that commenced at night fall.

Prominent ladies present whose trained hands were responsible for such conditions we mention: Mrs. Cappelman, Parker, Wdaley, Griggs, Geiger, Dodson, Long and many others, young ladies and girls. Choice flowers that grow so luxuriantly in this favored section, in butterfly attire, prevailed everywhere.

Say to your readers, Mr. Editor, that the Roosevelt-Taft hard times panic, so much in evidence elsewhere, has not dared to show his ugly countenance in this God favored spot. To the contrary, pumpkin pie, with half a dozen companions, including cake, without end, spring chicken, galkor, sauces, salads, jellies—don't mention it—all refuse absolutely to surrender to drought, politics or financial panics. The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She salts it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. It is not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores or open eating ulcers in stomach, constipation or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver, or the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the relief of the above symptoms and conditions, as suggested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.
