PROHIBITION WILL PREVAIL

In Georgia Until the Law has Had a Fair Trial—So Decides the State Senate. Atlanta, Ga., July 3.—The senate went on record yesterday as determined to make no change in the prohibition law during the present session.

ATLANTA, GA., JULY 3.—THE SENATE

went on record yesterday as determined to make no change in the prohibition law during the present session. The vote was taken on a bill introduced by Senator Overstreet, of the seventeenth district, which provides that the possession of a Federal license, or tax certificate, authorizing the sale of liquors, shall constitute prima facie evidence of violation of the state prohibition law.

HE THEN MADE HIS MOTION TO TABLE

Senator Knight, chairman of the temperance committee, asked that the motion be ruled out of order, but the chair refused the request, and on the call of ayes and nays the bill was tabled by 22 to 17.

MURAT HALSTEAD

Across the Last Copy Sheet of one of America's Great Journalists, the Angel of Death Has Written "30." Cincinnati, Ohio, July 3.—Murat Halstead, one of the leaders in American journalism for over half a century and widely known as a magazine writer, died at his home here yesterday in his 79th year.

"UNCLE REMUS" IS VERY SICK

Atlanta, Ga., July 3.—Joel Chandler Harris, author, journalist and philanthropist, lies critically ill at his home on Peachtree street here, and hopes for his recovery are slight. Thousands of little folk in the South and the North will learn with saddened hearts of his illness, for it is this lovable, typical Southern gentleman who created "Uncle Remus" and his "Brer Rabbit" stories.

A CONTENTED WOMAN

is always found in the same house with Ballard's Show Liniment. It keeps every member of the family free from aches and pains, it heals cuts, burns and scalds and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago and all muscular soreness and stiffness. 25c., 50c., and $1 a bottle at the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

HOUSE AT A BARGAIN

If you want to buy a splendid, new residence at a bargain and on easy terms, see me at once. F. W. Ditto.

LAUNCHES BUILT TO ORDER

The public is cordially invited to inspect the "Merry Widow," the beautiful launch at Silver Springs that I built entirely from keel to awning. I am prepared to build launches of any style and any reasonable size and completely finish and equip them ready for the water at moderate prices and in the very best workmanship. If you want a beautiful model, a strong, safe and well built, and speedy boat, place your order with me. Frank Mathews. Ocala, May 18.

STARVED TO DEATH

is what truthfully could be said of many children who die. They have worms, poor little things—they don't know it, and you don't realize it. If your child is cross, fretful, pasty complexioned, loses weight, for no apparent reason, give it White's Cream Vermifuge, you will be surprised at the results and how quickly it picks up. Sold by Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

SOUTH LAKE WEIR

South Lake Weir, July 1.—The abundant rains of last Thursday and Friday were of great benefit to vegetation hereabouts, but like Oliver Twist, we are crying for more. A good delegation from the place attended services at Weirsdale last Sunday morning to participate in the temperance Sunday exercises, including a very interesting address by the pastor, Rev. E. S. McKinley.

BUSINESS, POLITICS AND BASEBALL

Make Up the American Trinity, Says the Japanese Ambassador—He is More than Half Right. Chicago, July 3.—Baron Takahira, Japanese ambassador to the United States, met his wife at the Union station here yesterday, for the first time in fourteen months. White waiting for the train to Washington he talked.

WEIGHED DOWN BY THE DIGNITY OF HIS OFFICIAL POSITION

It might have been supposed from their greeting that the ambassador and his wife had parted yesterday, when she stepped from the train after her nineteen days' journey from Japan. True, Baron Takahira showed signs of excitement when the train rolled in, but when he saw his wife and his little daughter Sie, he waited quietly for their approach.

A REVELATION

It is a revelation to people, the severe cases of lung trouble that have been cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. L. M. Ruggles, Reasner Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet. Sold by all dealers."

LYNNE

Lynne, July 1.—Some of the young people enjoyed a very nice picnic on the beautiful shores of Long Lake last Friday, and all had a very enjoyable time. Miss Moxie Fort has as her guest Miss Mary Rose of Fairfield, who will spend a week or two in the Lynne section.

MRS. CORA WILLIAMS OF MIAMI IS STILL WITH HER MOTHER

Mrs. Cora Williams of Miami is still with her mother, Mrs. B. I. Hill of Connor. We are having some nice weather along now, although some of the farmers are complaining of there being too much rain for the present. Fodder pulling is the order of the day.

WE ARE GLAD TO NOTE THAT THE NEW ROAD IS FINISHED and is a heap of good to the people. Mr. Chester Fort was a visitor to the Lynne section Sunday. We are glad to note that we are going to have a protracted meeting out at the Oklawaha church beginning on the fourth Sunday in August and ending on the fifth Sunday, and will end in a Sunday school convention. Rose Bud.
