

THE FOURTH OF JULY AT WOODMAR AND EASTLAKE

The commuters at the above places had a glorious 4th and everybody kept open house and entertained their friends.

The remains of Joel Chandler Harris were laid to rest in Westview cemetery, Atlanta, Sunday.

Mr. E. V. Hicks, of Oxford, with his sister, Mrs. M. M. Caruthers, came up this morning to do some shopping.

Mr. A. W. DeVasey, of Russellville, Ala., has been spending several weeks around Lake Weir and became so enamored of its calm waters, piscatorial and bathing sports and its supreme healthfulness that he has closed a deal for Charley Bronnon's place at Weirsdale consisting of two lots, a comfortable house and a very fine orange grove.

Mr. Asher Frank, the popular manager of the Boston Store, left Saturday night for Newport News, Va., where he will spend a short time and will go to New York City and buy new goods for the store.

There is a 'poussum' epidemic on Lake Weir. They have become so numerous and pestiferous after the chickens that a number of parties have been out after them and Saturday night a coon delegation laid six lo.

The Lake Weir accommodation car was full to overflowing this morning and the crew of the cab had to make a lounge for R. E. Yonge, Sr., who suffered severely from a sprained ankle.

Geo. E. Snow, the veteran nurseryman and successful orange grower of Eastlake, having finished his summer work on his fine groves, will take a much needed rest and go up to the old Bay State and spend several months among friends.

Ike Nichols, one of the pioneer residents of Belleview, was in town today. He said that Joe Whisenant's mule tried to be patriotic on the 4th and in jumping a ditch broke a blood vessel and bled to death, which is a great misfortune to Mr. Whisenant, who can ill afford to suffer the loss.

Not "How Much?"

but "how good" is the question that every one should ask in buying candy.

The old saying that "a man is judged by the candy he gives" holds good today as always.

WILLIE BROOKS

Inverness, July 5.—Willie Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brooks, died at his home here yesterday. Only two days ago little Willie was on the streets apparently well and happy.

He lived only a few minutes after their arrival. The body was laid to rest here yesterday in the family burying ground. Willie Brooks was about ten years of age. He attended the public school here last term and was a very bright and promising boy.

THE NINETEENTH GOVERNOR

Albert W. Gilchrist will be the nineteenth Governor Florida has had since its admission to the Union. One of these, William Marvin, was a "provisional" Governor, holding the office by appointment under the Federal government for one year, 1865-6. He called an election, and in November, 1865, David S. Walker (Republican) was chosen Governor, assuming office in January, 1866, holding it until 1868, when a new constitution was adopted, and under it Harrison Reed, a conservative Republican, was elected. He was succeeded in 1872 by Ossian B. Hart, who died after holding the office for two years. In 1874 Marcellus L. Sterns was elected, holding the office until 1877, when the "carpetbag" government was overthrown, and the dark days of "reconstruction" came to an end with the election of George F. Drew. This explains why Florida will have had nineteen Governors in sixty-four years, when Gilchrist takes his place next year, although the usual term of the Governor is four years. Florida as a territory had seven Governors, beginning with Gen. Andrew Jackson in 1821. One of these territorial Governors, Richard K. Call, served two terms, 1836-39 and 1841-44.—Times-Union.

Mrs. C. A. Clements, the most successful female merchant in Marion county, has disposed of her store and stock of general merchandise at Weir Park to Mr. C. J. Smith. Mrs. Clements' fair and square mode of business and universally low prices were known all around the lake and way into the interior and drew custom from all the country nearby. She began business a number of years ago in an unpretentious way and by strict attention to business and a square deal to all made a marked success of the same, winning the good will of all who came in contact with her. Mrs. Clements will spend a few months visiting her old home in Tennessee. Our best wishes for a safe journey and a pleasant time go with her.

Mr. Will Moore spent Sunday with his family at Stanton. They occupy the Frank Lytle cottage and are having a delightful time down by the limpid waters of the incomparable lake. Mr. Moore's mother and sister will go down this afternoon to spend some time with Mrs. Moore and the children.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT There were twenty cases in the mayor's court this morning, and the fines collected aggregated $105.50. Several persons were released yesterday and sent on their way and others were discharged this morning without fines. In the mayor's court Saturday morning $45 in fines was collected. Last year the fines the day after the fourth amounted to $77.50.
