Lesson II.—Third Quarter, For July 12, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, I Sam. x. 17-27. Memory Verse, 24—Golden Text, II Sam. xxiii. 3—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.]

Mizpeh, first mentioned in Gen. xxxi, 49, is at least suggestive of God's watchful care, as we learn from that incident. The name is used seven times in I Sam. vii, where we see not only His watchful care, but also the great deliverance which He wrought for them as they humbled themselves before Him. In the lesson today the people are gathered that the king whom they had asked for and whom God had agreed to give them might be publicly chosen by the people themselves, evidently by lot, selecting thus the tribe and then the family and then the man (verses 20, 21). See also the same plan in Josh. vii, 16-18. God approved of this way and guided His people by it (Lev. xvi, 8; Num. xvi, 55, 56; Prov. xvi, 33). While the people seemed to be deciding the matter it was really the Lord's decision and choice (verse 24).

Turning to the special lesson verses, we notice that Samuel, having gathered the people, reminded them how the Lord God had brought them out of Egypt and delivered them from all their oppressors and that they were that day rejecting God, who Himself had saved them out of all their adversities and tribulations (verses 18, 19). They were redeemed that they might glorify their God and magnify His name before other nations and show to them how great a God they had, even the only living and true God, in order that others might learn to know and trust Him too. But now they turn from their high calling and descend to the level of the nations before whom they were called to honor Jehovah. How sad and sinful and heartbreaking to Jehovah it all was! Hear Him after He had borne long years with them as He calls heaven and earth to witness, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me" (Isa. i, 2, 3). To us He says, "Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption" (Eph. iv, 30-32), for we are here for Him that the world may believe on Him and know Him. When we live to please or magnify self, then we are saying that we prefer to be like other people, to be conformed to this present world, and thus we reject Him.

When Saul had been elected that day he could not be found, for with a seeming meekness or humility he had hidden himself. They inquire of the Lord, for this was Samuel's way and David's way and should be our way always, according to Prov. iii, 5, 6. The Lord revealed his hiding place, and they ran and fetched him, and as he stood among them, head and shoulders above them all, no goddier person in all Israel, the people shouted, "God save the king!" and Samuel said, "See ye him whom the Lord hath chosen" (verses 22-24 and chapter ix, 2). When any person or thing cannot be found, it is well to remember "He that is perfect in knowledge is with thee" (Job xxxvi, 4), and consulting Him with all humility, if we have His anointing on our ears, we may hear His voice revealing the place of the lost person or thing. Many a time have I and others seen it proved, but we must be in His will and seek to magnify Him.

Samuel, having told the people the manner of the kingdom and written it in a book and laid it up before the Lord, sent all to their homes. Saul also going to his home. God raised up a band of friends who went with him, but there were some who despised him, and to these he was as though he had been deaf (verse 27, margin). See also Ps. xxxviii, 13, and let us so act when the occasion arises. Returning to the story in chapter ix of the way God provided and pointed out Saul to Samuel, we learn how in all the most ordinary events of daily life God is working out His purposes. On Saul's side of the story we simply see some lost asses and Saul and one of his father's servants out seeking them. After a long and unsuccessful search Saul urges that they return lest his father should be anxious for them instead of the asses. The servant suggested that as they were near a city where lived a man of God whose every word came to pass (verse 6) they should consult him before returning home, to which Saul consented. On Samuel's side we read that the Lord had said to him, "Tomorrow about this time I will send thee a man" (verse 16), and Samuel had accordingly made all preparation to welcome him. Now see the consummation, the arrival of the weary travelers, the welcome, the surprise party, the night at Samuel's home, the setting forth next morning of Saul and his servant, Samuel's startling communication to Saul, the anointing, the incidents which would happen as Saul went on his way and the saying which some of us are finding so restful and helpful in chapter x, 7, "Do as occasion serve thee, for God is with thee." Let us believe that in the commonplace of life, with all their discouragements, God is leading us on to a kingdom. Let us trust Him for anointed ears that He may whisper in our ears (ix, 15) and that He may not need to knock us down before He can make us hear. As to being chosen by Him take comfort from John xv, 16; Eph. i, 4.

AN INSANE ASSASSIN

Clifford Tourant, who Fatally Wounded his Wife, Raves in His Cell in the Milton Jail

Milton, July 11.—Mrs. Clifford Tourant died Wednesday at the home of Charles Simpson, near Bagdad, as the result of gunshot wounds inflicted by her husband Thursday of last week. Death came as the result of receiving three shots in the back while the woman was attempting to leave her home in order that she might make a short business trip to Pensacola. The body of Mrs. Tourant was immediately shipped to Pensacola, her girlhood home, for burial.

So far, it has been impossible to gain a coherent statement from the husband as to the exact manner in which the shooting occurred, as he still raves in a disconnected manner in the county jail here, where he is incarcerated. At times he insists that he has not shot his wife, and that he does not know anything of the occurrence. Occasionally he shouts that he still loves his wife. The death of Mrs. Tourant will complicate matters still more, and her husband will now, according to process of law, be formally charged with murder.

The relatives of Tourant have engaged counsel to represent him at the preliminary hearing, the date of which has not yet been announced. It is probable that some move will be made before the trial in the circuit court in Pensacola toward appointing a commission to examine into the sanity of the prisoner.

RHEUMATIC FOLKS

Are You Sure Your Kidneys Are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on the doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and men all danger from uric acid is ended.

Benj. Rush, living at 220 W. Union St., Gainesville, Ga., says: "I had suffered from kidney trouble, and sciatic rheumatism for years. At times I was in such a miserable condition that I could not get out of bed. The kidney action was very irregular and at times the secretions were too profuse while again scanty. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies, but did not find any relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They went at once to the seat of my trouble and I steadily grew better. I am almost entirely free from rheumatism and the action of the kidney secretions is normal. I attribute this great change in my condition solely to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."
