

A Square-Deal

Is assured you when you buy one of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and attested under oath as being complete and correct. They are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native, medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. While potent to cure they are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into Dr. Pierce's leading medicines. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength. This agent possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable anti-septic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, "heartburn," foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

For all diseases of the mucous membranes, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific. Catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs is cured by it. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even in the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate hang-on, or chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to endeavor to palm off upon you some nostrum of unknown composition in place of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines which are of known composition. Most dealers recommend Doctor Pierce's medicines because they know what they are made of and that the ingredients employed are among the most valuable that a medicine for like purposes can be made of. The same is true of leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend them, since they know exactly what they contain and that their ingredients are the very best known to medical science for the cure of the several diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

With tricky dealers it is different.

Something else that pays them a little greater profit will be urged upon you as "just as good," or even better. You can hardly afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition and without any particular record of cures in place of Doctor Pierce's medicines which are of known composition and have a record of forty years of cures behind them. You know what you want and it is the dealer's business to supply that want. Insist upon it.

CHECKING A BUNDLE.

The Way the Tired Man Saved Himself Labor and Trouble.
One day a man went into a very big store. He had a heavy package with him.
Not in the sense you mean, smarties, but in the real sense.
He had to go two blocks farther down the street and didn't want to carry the package. So he decided that he would leave it in the check room.
He asked a floorwalker who looked like a United States senator, but who was a perfect gentleman, where the check room was. The floorwalker said: "There ailsies over downstairs and over on the Wabash side."
He went there, wherever that was, and found he had made a mistake.
He knew it was himself who had made the mistake, for as nice a man as a floorwalker with a Prince Albert on couldn't have made a mistake.
Finally after he had lugged his bundle thirty-two blocks hunting the check room, had found the check room and deposited his bundle he walked his two blocks to the other place and was through for the day.
Then he soliloquized:
"How should I ever have got through or stood the wear and tear of that long two blocks carrying that bundle? If it hadn't been for the check room system, what could I have done?"—Chicago News.

TIPS IN ENGLAND.

Lord Russell's Fee to the Headman Who Executed Him.
Mr. George Russell, discoursing on tips in the Manchester Guardian, after the manner of his "Collections and Recollections," treats the subject historically under its various names of fees, vales (or vells), honorarium (as Deiracl preferred to call it) and pouches.
Ancient usage has a peculiarly consecrating effect in the matter of tips and fees. Horace Walpole records the astonishment of George I. when told that he must give guineas to the servant of the ranger of his park for bringing him a brace of carp out of his own pond.
Apparently everybody in England is at some time or other justified in demanding a fee unless it be the monarch. When Tait became archbishop of Canterbury and met the queen he breathed a sigh of relief on at last encountering a person to whom he had not to pay something.
According to Bishop Burnet, a man used to have to give a tip in order to be decapitated. He tells the story of Lord Russell when under sentence of death for high treason asking what he ought to give the executioner. "I told him 10 guineas. He said, with a smile, it was a pretty thing to give a fee to have his head cut off."

For Number Two.
"George, dear, what kind of a woman would you marry if you married again?" asked the amiable wife.
"Well, if I married again"—began the brutal husband.
"Then you acknowledge that you would marry again?"
"I'm not saying one way or the other, but"—
"But you don't give me a definite answer, and that proves"—
"That doesn't prove anything, because"—
"It does too! So what kind of a woman would you marry if you married again?"
"I wouldn't marry again. I could not."
"Of course you have to say that."
"Of course I do, because I was about to say that if I married again it would be the kind of a woman who would not ask me what kind of a woman I would marry if I married again."—Judge.

Singing Pigeons.
The queer Chinese change pigeons into song birds by fastening whistles to their breasts. The wind of their flight then causes a weird and plaintive music that is seldom silenced in the pigeon haunted cities of Peking and Canton. The Belgians, great pigeon fliers, fasten whistles beneath the wings of valuable racing carriers, claiming that the shrill noise is a sure protection against hawks and other birds of prey. As a similar protection, reeds, emitting an odd wailing sound, are fixed to the tail feathers of the dispatch bearing pigeons of the German army.

What He Was Looking For.
"I do wish, Edward," said the lady of his choice, "that you wouldn't stare at other women so much. It's very rude and is certainly no compliment to me."
"On the contrary, my dear," replied the resourceful benedict, "I was looking to see if I could find a prettier face than yours, and I confess I really cannot."—New York Press.

Eating Before Sleep.
"Is it safe to eat before going to sleep?" asks Sibyl.
"Oh, yes, much safer than eating afterward, we should say! It is so hard to see what you are eating when you are asleep, you know."—Pathfinder.

An Enthusiast.
Towne—Oh, yes, he's quite an enthusiast. He goes in for things in real earnest. Browne—Yes, if some one were to send him on a wild goose chase he'd speak of himself afterward as a sportsman.—Philadelphia Press.

Fairies of the Deep.
Mother Pike (to Little Piker)—What fairy story do you want me to tell you today? Little Piker—Either Little Red Herring Hood or Octo-Puss in Boots.—Kansas City Star.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Better Than Three Doctors
"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—Mrs. B. J. Johnston, Linton, Miss. For sale by all druggists.

MOZLEY LEMON ELIXIR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Cures Constipation and Kindred Evils
Letter From Louisiana.
Simms, La., May 22, '07.
My wife suffered for seven years with Liver Complaint, Indigestion and Constipation. I have paid up to date one thousand dollars to doctors for services but she never received any benefit. I always bought my medicine from Jordan Bros., of Alexandria, La. I spoke to Mr. Jordan one day about my wife's complaint, and he recommended Mozley's Lemon Elixir for her. I took a bottle home with me and since that time, about three months ago, I have kept it in the house and from the first day my wife took it, her bowels have acted regular, her health has improved and she can do her house work without the pains she formerly suffered. I was in Alexandria, yesterday, May 21, and told Dr. F. N. Brian, one of the best physicians in Alexandria, what my wife had been taking, and he gave it the highest praise. Mr. Jordan also told me his wife was using Lemon Elixir with great benefit. Yours respectfully,

F. E. & C. U. OF A.

Local No. 155 of Sparr met in regular session Aug. 1st, at 2 o'clock p. m. In the absence of the president and vice president, Bro. Harter took the chair.
Quite a few of our members answered roll.
After the regular routine our Bill the Goat was rubbed down and let loose, the floor greased, the fires lighted, and the conductor took down his club. The signal was given and Louis Hall was made over. He has been born again. After the meeting was over Bro. Hall was heard to say, "I didn't mind that goat much"—though he slipped his hand into his pistol pocket and smiled a sickly smile—and as for the greased floor, I rather liked that, for I believed it was real grease, and then when they set me on that chair with the bottom out and set the lamp under it, my cup of joy filled up. But say, if I am ever so lucky as to get to wield that club—"and the glitter of his eyes told the rest."
I have before me the letter of Bro. Isaac Perry of June 23d, and did think that I would devote some time to it, also to another letter in the Star of a more recent date, but my time is limited and I will have to content by saying, Brother you are all O. K.; come again. I am sorry we have not got more like you and Bro. Higgins of Electra, a brother who is not only an honor but a necessity to the brotherhood. Boys, get acquainted with these two brothers; they will do you good.
Since writing the above the call meeting of the county organization has become a thing of the past, and while I would like to say something about it, yet this is the business of the county scribe and I am sure he will do it justice. However, by a mistake of the chair, I was requested to thank the brothers and friends, and most especially the ladies, for the handsome way in which they received us, and last but not least, the bounteous feast set before us. Brethren and friends of Griner, we thank you and trust that the time may come in the near future when we may have you with us, that we may return your kindness.
Respectfully and fraternally yours,
Karl L. Harter,
