BRYAN AT HIS BIRTHPLACE

Enthusiastic Reception to the Democratic Candidate by the People of Salem, Ill.

Salem, Ill., Aug. 28.—No crowd of equal size or enthusiasm ever before turned out in this city, the birthplace of William J. Bryan, as that yesterday when the Democratic candidate stopped over to greet his old friends and neighbors.

The whole population was on hand early to extend a hearty welcome when Mr. Bryan reached here in the morning. They were augmented later in the day by thousands who came in on special trains.

The principal event of the day was a speech by Mr. Bryan from a platform in the Court House grounds, in which he appealed to the Roosevelt Republicans to support the Democratic ticket, because they cannot hope for promised reforms from their party. Mr. Taft, he said, was not the heir to Republican reforms.

During the day Mr. Bryan divided most of his time with the Bryan and Jennings branches of his family. After lunch he rode out to the cemetery and placed flowers on the graves of his parents, and on his way back to the city inspected the new Bryan-Bennett library, presented by himself and the late Philo S. Bennett, of Connecticut. The building cost $2,500, of which Mr. Bryan contributed $2,000. He also donated the site, which is the spot on which was located the house in which he was born.

Thousands Shook His Hand
Several thousand citizens of Salem and visitors shook the candidate's hand. He held receptions at the Court House, hotel and railroad station, where the people fought their way to get near him.

While Mr. Bryan was talking, the crowd made up a purse of $300 and handed it to him as a campaign contribution. A check for $100 was also given by a man from Clinton county. Preceding Mr. Bryan's remarks, Theodore A. Bell, of California, chairman of the Kern notification committee, who accompanied Mr. Bryan, made a speech in which he compared the platform of the two leading parties. Mr. Bryan said in part:

"You know it would be very hard for me to make a political speech in Salem because a good many of my earlier acquaintances here are Republicans and I would not for the world hurt the feelings of any Republican friend.

Applied a Story
"But I was thinking today of a story that I thought might fill this case; especially would it fill the case with the Republicans who are friendly to Mr. Roosevelt. I got this story in Canada. An American official up there told it to me. He said that there was a man nominated for office, and he was very anxious to poll a big vote in his home town, or the town where he was born, and he went back there and made a speech, and they turned out, those of his own party and those of other parties, and he made a personal appeal to them. He told them that he was very anxious to have a large vote in the town of his birth, just as a compliment to him, and in the course of his speech he said: 'Many of you will not agree with me in party affiliations, but I believe you will vote for me just for old friendship's sake,' and he pointed to an old man named Smith.

"He said, 'Now, there is old Brother Smith. I know we do not believe in the same party, but I have known him from the time I was a boy and he has known me, and I believe that Brother Smith will vote for me just for old acquaintance's sake. Won't you, Brother Smith?'

"Now, Brother Smith was a very frank old man, and he blurted out 'I would vote for the devil first.'

"Well," responded the young man, 'as your friend is not running this year, cannot I expect your vote?'

"And so I feel as the friend of the Roosevelt Republicans is not running this year, I am going to get some of their votes.

Was a Stronger Ground
"But I might put it on a stronger ground than that. There are certain things that come naturally by descent and reforms come by descent. You cannot convey a reform by will. The President has tried to bequeath certain reforms to the Republican candidate, but I am the next of blood in the reform business and they come to me. In fact, I think I could make it stronger than that. If a man dies and leaves no children the property goes back to his parents, and so far as reforms are concerned the Republican party died without heirs, and the reforms go back to the one from whom the Republican party got the reforms.

"So I think I have a right to expect a good many Republican votes this year.

"Then, my friends, I am expecting large additions to the Democratic vote because the times are ripe for a change in administration. Mr. Taft was making a speech over in Virginia, and he forgot there was a country outside, and he was making a speech for the Republicans of Virginia, and he told those people that when a party stayed in power a good while it was apt to become corrupt, and it was a good thing to have a change. His remarks have a larger application than he made of them that day, and if a party in a state will get in a position where a change is necessary or even desirable, I want to say to you that when you apply it to a national party the reason for a change is still greater; for the further many get away from home, the more apt they are to forget the people at the home, and these Republicans in national offices have been serving far away from home and they have forgotten the struggling masses at home.

Shall the People Rule
"In our platform we declared that the overshadowing issue was 'Shall the people rule?' Mr. Taft says that they do rule. That is a question about which there is a difference of opinion. All who think they do rule to—

A PERILOUS POSITION

A Passenger Train with 250 People on Board Spanning a Chasm Over a Raging River

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 28.—The partial resumption of the telegraph lines throughout the flood devastated country, brings additional news of heavy property loss and the narrow escape of 250 passengers on a northbound train from Florida. The perception of the engineer prevented the train from plunging through a bridge over the Congaree river. The engineer sent the train creeping over the bridge, when a span under the express car gave way. The train was stopped within ten feet, the car spanning the chasm. The passengers were taken from the bridge on hard cars. It is estimated that the loss so far is fully $1,000,000.

WILLIAM F. VILAS

Ex-Cabinet Officer and Prominent Democrat, is Dead

Madison, Wis., August 28.—William F. Vilas, former postmaster general and secretary of the interior during Cleveland's administration, died here yesterday. His death was not unexpected, he having been in feeble health for a long while.

William F. Vilas was one of the foremost democratic leaders of the country in the '80s. Born in Vermont in 1840, he was taken to Wisconsin by his parents when a boy and his career was wholly identified with that state. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1860. In 1862 he raised a company and went to the front in the civil war. He came out of the conflict with the rank of lieutenant colonel of the twenty-third Wisconsin regiment. After returning home Mr. Vilas took a prominent part in democratic politics in Wisconsin.

On March 7th, 1885, Mr. Vilas became postmaster general, an office he held until January, 1888, when he became secretary of the interior. He served in that capacity until March 8, 1888, when he returned to Wisconsin to resume the practice of law and to enter actively into the Wisconsin political arena.

In the Wisconsin campaign of 1890 Mr. Vilas spoke daily on the stump, touring the whole of the state. The result of the election enabled the democrats to choose for the first time in thirty-five years a United States senator. Such a hold had Mr. Vilas upon the affections of his party that in the caucus he received every one of the 85 votes upon the first ballot. Upon the expiration of his term in the senate in 1897 he retired to his home in Wisconsin, and since then had taken little part in public affairs, his inactivity being due chiefly to the poor state of his health.

SIGNS FOR THE SOUTH

Senator Tillman Mourns the Scarcity of Cornbread in Europe

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, who is making his first European tour, likes London very much though he sighs in vain for the delicacies of the tables of "down South," according to an interview he gave recently in London.

"If you will only tell me," said the senator, "where I can get some real cornmeal in this town, you will make me your debtor for life."

"Well, sir," he continued, "I've had a hard time to get something to eat over here. You know, I'm used to my life to our Southern cooking just naturally craves for something that has corn in it. I don't eat beef, and I have had the hardest time trying to explain what I mean by breakfast bacon, but as for cornbread and hominy, why, sir, I haven't been able to find a trace of them anywhere, so I just thought if I could only find somebody to tell me where I could get some cornmeal I would take it to my stopping place and show the cook how to make a nice yellow pone of cornbread or an ashcake. Brompton road, did you say? I am certainly much obliged."

MRS. HOWARD SUICIDED

She Led the Mob in the Springfield Riots

Springfield, Ill., August 28.—Excitement seized Springfield last night after the sensational suicide of Mrs. Kate Howard, leader of the mob in the recent rioting. Mrs. Howard fell dead on the steps of the jail after having taken a dose of poison at her home before her fifth arrest. She was out on bail under indictment for leading the mob. She went to the jail authorities to answer to the fifth charge under the indictment. She had threatened to kill herself previously.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate glands and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 71 years old." Sold by all dealers.

GREAT SUFFERING IN AUGUSTA

City is Flooded and Hundreds of People are Cut Off from Food, Light and Warmth

Atlanta, Ga., August 28.—From Harrisonville, two miles outside of Augusta, the Associated Press communication with a correspondent there secured the first authentic information out of Augusta since the flood destroyed all wire communication. The city is under water from four to eight feet, from Fifteenth street to the eastern boundary.

A torrent through the streets is running twenty miles an hour. Lights, power and police protection are practically abandoned.

Hundreds were caught in the downtown office buildings, and on the streets, when the river broke through the canal. All who could sought the second stories and higher places, many clinging to trees. The warning of the weather bureau was heeded, but there was not sufficient time for business houses to remove their goods to places of safety.

All means of transportation, boats, etc., are charging exorbitant prices. In the lowlands the people heeded the warning and gathered bedding and other articles they could carry. Women with children in arms and men driving live stock sought safety on the hills. There is much suffering among the poorer class. The water at 3 o'clock this morning had fallen five inches, and has receded an inch an hour since midnight.

There were two fires in the cotton and sugar warehouses. The loss, by fire and flood, is estimated at a half million. The railroads are demoralized in this section of Georgia and in Carolina. Augusta is expected to be normal tonight, or tomorrow, providing there are no further rains or floods like yesterday, which are not anticipated.

Three deaths are reported and others expected, as a number of boats capsized in the torrent.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known, to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FLEET WILL BE WELCOME

In the Harbors of Japan—Great Preparations Being Made for Their Reception

Tokio, Japan, August 28.—A mass meeting of business men, both native and foreign, was held yesterday to raise funds and complete plans for the reception of the American fleet in Japanese waters in October. Admiral Viscount Ito, chief of the naval general staff, is a member of the reception committee. The commercial interests of Tokyo will co-operate with those of Yokohama in the entertainment of the fleet at the latter city. It is estimated that $500,000 will be needed to defray expenses, and a considerable portion of this sum has already been subscribed.

SHIPS LEFT SYDNEY

And Its Hospitable People, and Are on the Way to Melbourne

Sydney, Aug. 28.—The fleet of American battleships sailed from this port yesterday, bound for Melbourne. The sky was cloudless, the sun was warm and only a moderate sea was running.

At 8 o'clock the flagship Connecticut weighed anchor and led the warships in single line out past the sloping shores of the harbor, which were crowded with thousands who had gathered to bid the fleet farewell. The Connecticut cleared the heads at 8:40 and the last battleship some twenty minutes later. Then followed the Glacier, the Panther and the Ajax. A mile outside they turned to the south and at a speed of ten knots soon disappeared.

Sydney has given of her best to make the stay of the Americans in this port a memorable one. For six days the officers and men were feted and entertained in every conceivable manner, and not one untoward incident occurred to mar this notable event in Sydney's history.

EARLE AND HIS AFFINITY

Seem to Quarrel Just Like Some Less Ethereal People

Middleton, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Ferdinand P. Earle, the artist of affinity fame, was arrested at his home near Monroe yesterday, charged with assault in the second degree, alleged to have been committed on his wife on or about Aug. 16, twelve days after the birth of their child. The complaint was Mrs. Inez Earle, an aunt of Mrs. Earle. It is not known on what the assault charge is based. Earle pleaded guilty to the charge and was held to await the action of the grand jury. Preferring to be locked up rather than give bail, Earle was conveyed to the county jail at Goshen. In the court Earle appeared to be very much affected, tears streaming down his cheeks during the proceedings.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam. H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by all druggists.

MAY CALL OUT TROOPS

Martial Law is Threatened in Atlantic City

Seargent, N. J., Aug. 28.—Martial law for Atlantic City is threatened by Governor Fort in a proclamation issued yesterday. The governor declares that unless the excise law is obeyed and all saloons and cafes kept closed Sundays, he will call an extraordinary session of the legislature, and may send state troops to enforce compliance with the law.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fail

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

AN IMMENSE DEFENSE FUND

New York, Aug. 28.—The World says: A fund of $1,000,000 is being raised among the rank and file of United States army officers, according to a report, to be applied to the defense of Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., and Thornton Jenkins Hains. Within the last three days officers of various forts have called upon Gen. Peter Hains, father of the prisoners, and assured him that the army men are deeply in sympathy with his sons and are eager to aid in getting them out of their predicament. The gigantic fund was started last week and already, according to the report, considerably more than $100,000 has been pledged. It is doubtful if anything approaching $1,000,000 will be required for the defense, but the army men have set that as the sum to be raised.

A GRAND FAMILY MEDICINE

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Fifty cents.
