THE COUNTY FAIR MEETING

Quite a respectable number of our citizens gathered at Dr. Guerrant's hospital yesterday afternoon to discuss with Dr. Guerrant the movement of getting up a county fair for Marion some time in January, 1909. Mr. D. S. Williams, secretary of the old Marion County Fair Association, said it was the purpose of the old organization to cooperate with this new movement and to that end would have a meeting called to discuss the matter. Mr. Baxter Carn was made temporary chairman of the gathering and Mr. W. P. Edwards secretary. Mr. G. K. Robinson said in view of the fact that so many of the business men of the city were absent, there was plenty of time to form a working force and he suggested that the meeting adjourn until the night of October 6th in the courthouse, when a larger attendance and the members of the old Marion Fair Association would enable better results to be obtained. This motion carried. There was then some discussion of the appointment of a committee to interview the railroads to see if the fair association could not induce them to run local cheap excursions into Ocala during the fair. It was thought best to wait until the October meeting.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned and the members inspected Dr. Guerrant's new horse hospital. The building rests on a brick foundation, enclosed with corrugated iron, neatly painted on the inside. The hallway is made of cement and so inclined that it makes a perfect drainage. There are ten stalls, with a feed trough in each one. The upper half of the stall is enclosed with lattice work and the window is screened. There are also four double stalls or extra size for sick animals. Adjoining the double stalls on the west side of the building is a bathing stall and next to it an operating stall. The water trough for the animals hold exactly two gallons and after the animal has emptied same by a regulating spigot it is again filled and the flow of water is such that any saliva deposited in the trough is floated away and the vessel is always filled with clean water. Dr. Guerrant has a neat and well fitted up office and laboratory and in the latter he tests the quality of the milk furnished by our dairymen, showing the amount of fatty matter and also the percentage of cream. This operation is done on a machine holding a dozen glass vials, which when the machine is in motion take up the milk in the bowl and shows its qualities in the vials. The stable is built on a scientific principle and is hygienic in every particular and so screened when the doors are closed that not a fly or gnat can enter. It is certainly an acquisition to our city and should possess an interest to every man and woman owning cattle and live stock.

IN THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S COURT

U. S. Commissioner D. S. Williams was busy yesterday hearing evidence in a case in which Ling Williams and Dave White, two negro deputies of Citrus county, were the complainants. Their appointment to office and their conduct towards both white and black created great complaint, and they were accused of extorting money out of the victims. The defendants in the case were Geo. T. Boswell, M. D. Bell, C. O. Bohanum and W. C. Grogden. The witnesses were Attorneys J. M. Young, T. P. Lloyd, County Judge G. W. DeMuro, G. W. Schofield and John Sprong. J. M. Cheney, United States district attorney, of Orlando, was present to represent the United States while Attorneys E. A. Burford and E. W. Davis appeared for the defense. The negro deputies held they were denied the rights and privileges guaranteed them under the constitution. The witnesses testified that the sheriff promised in the primary that if he was nominated that he would withdraw their commissions, but this he failed to do. Their removal, especially on the part of the colored people of Citrus, was demanded because of the unfair methods they exercised towards those who they had authority over. A public meeting was held in Inverness demanding the removal of these deputies and if they were not removed more strenuous methods would be employed to vacate the office held by the negroes. The decision of Commissioner Williams freed the defendants. The trial created great interest in Inverness and Dunellon and quite a number of spectators were present from those towns to watch the case.

A LEGAL ANOMALY

Judge Adams Grants a Change of Venue in the Beech Hargis Case Against the Wishes of the Defendant

Jackson, Sept. 2.—Judge Adams has granted a change of venue in the case of Beech Hargis who killed his father a few weeks ago. The situation is a unique one, and the judge delivered his views as follows: "The evidence in this case," said Judge Adams, "presents the most unusual state of affairs I have ever known to exist. The commonwealth has proven that an overwhelming sentiment exists in the county against the defendant while the defendant introduced a number of witnesses to prove the same fact. The commonwealth insists on a change of venue, but the defendant is demanding a trial among the people whom the proof shows are clamoring for his conviction."

"It is proven by one witness at least that efforts have been made to influence men to qualify as jurors and hang the defendant. No evidence is offered by the defendant to destroy this charge. While there are many just as good men in this county as can be found anywhere, the evidence goes to show that most, if not practically all, of them would not be competent jurors. Under these conditions I don't believe the case ought to be tried in this county, and the change of venue will be granted."

REAL ESTATE AND INVESTMENTS Rooms 27 and 28, Holder Block Ocala, Florida

The man who waits for a proven, producing proposition before investing will always pay every cent the stock is worth. It's the man who takes a chance on the ground floor that really gets the cream. Always investigate and act with due caution but you will lose out entirely and every time if you wait for a "cinch." Equal parts of nerve and common sense will be found a very palatable dose and a combination hard to beat.

If you want to buy a home in Ocala, I can offer you one of the very few places on the market on Oklawaha avenue.

Frontage is 96 feet and the lot runs back 480 feet. House is one story containing five rooms, kitchen and bathroom; city water, gas, electric light and modern plumbing; stable and servant's house in yard. Price, $2,300, half cash and balance spread over three years.

If you want to build a store building to rent I have a lot on Fort King avenue between the Pittman building and the new building just erected by Guerrant & Carmichael. Frontage is 43 feet by 110 feet deep. The building now on it is old but rents for enough to pay interest on the investment. Price is $850.

OAKRIDGE lots on the Shady Grove hard road and within the city limits can be bought for $75 to $90; 100 feet front by 125 feet deep; 10¢ cash and $1 per week. Free deed in case of death. No taxes to pay until 1909. Map and prices on application.

WOODMAR. This property is on the most beautiful lake in Florida, on a bluff which rises from 25 feet to 75 feet above the level of the lake. The A. C. L. railroad runs between the edge of the lake and the bluff. Four years ago when I platted this property and offered to sell lots I was laughed at by many and the word "fool" more than once dropped in connection with this property. Try and buy back for me the lots I have already sold and come and see me. I have raised the prices once and will raise again until another Mr. Flagler sees the beauties of the place and then he can have it if he will pay the price. The streets are all planted to shade trees and water works installed—good water too. But a lot now. You can buy on terms but you can't buy them at a discount. Map and prices on application.

LARGER AMOUNTS OF LUMBER

Cut and Used Last Year than in Any Previous Twelve Months in History

Washington, Sept. 2.—Figures of the lumber cut in 1907, compiled by the bureau of the census and the forest service, showed the largest total ever reported in the United States, exceeding by over 7 per cent the cut reported for 1906, until then the record year. This does not necessarily show a larger actual cut than in 1906, for the returns obtained last year were more complete than ever before. The figures themselves disclose some interesting facts.

In 1907, 28,850 mills made returns, and their production was over 40,000,000,000 feet of lumber. This is believed to include 95 per cent of the actual cut. In 1906, 22,338 mills reported about 37,500,000,000 feet. Since, according to these figures, nearly 29 per cent more mills reported last year than the year before, while the increase in production was only a little over 7 per cent, it might be thought that the amount actually manufactured must have been greater than in the earlier year. This, however, would be a too hasty inference, for it is almost wholly among mills of small individual output that the gain in the number of establishments reporting has been made.

AN OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK

Chairman Mack Very Hopeful Over Democratic Prospects in the East

New York, Sept. 2.—The political conditions in the East were discussed at length yesterday at the conference of National Chairman Mack and members of the national committee and heads of various bureaus of the New York headquarters of the democratic national committee.

Chairman Mack said he had received reports from all the state along the Atlantic seaboard that he was more than satisfied with the progress of the campaign, and that the East could be relied upon to help swell the electoral votes for Bryan. Consideration was also given to various plans for an effective campaign, and Chairman Mack urged upon the national committee to do all they could to aid in the organization of precinct democratic clubs.

National Committeeman Greene, of Rhode Island, and Judge Fitzsimmons of Providence, R. I., chairman of the state central committee, informed Chairman Mack at the conference that they had every reason to believe that Rhode Island this year would cast its electoral votes for the democratic ticket.

A MISSING SHIP

Grave Fears Entertained for the Safety of the Acon

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 1.—Grave fears are entertained for the safety of the British steamer Acon, which cleared from this port for Sydney, via Apia and Auckland, on July 6th, and has not yet arrived there.

The steamer Lord Setton, of the same line, arrived at Auckland Sunday, and reports no sign of the Acon. The reinsurance of the vessel is quoted at 50 per cent, but it is believed in shipping circles that the ship has not been lost, but has sustained an injury that has detained her.

HAD AMERICANS ON BOARD

On board the Acon are ten passengers, shipping as members of the crew, among them the wife of Lieutenant Riddle, United States navy, and Chaplain and Mrs. Patrick, bound for the naval station at Pago.

These passengers were taken in violation of the law, according to the collector of the port here. The route over which the Acon sailed is a lone one and vessels traveling over it seldom pass any other ships.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER

BY MONS. GENE DE PONTAC.

If any one event may be said accurately to forecast and decide fashions for the ensuing months, it is the Paris Grand Prix, and now that this decisive occasion has come and gone, modes for the fall may be said to be authoritatively indicated, at least. While the Directorate influence is still in evidence, it is still a modified form that shuns the extreme and the Empire or Princess style—which means almost anything so that the gown be in one piece, with long clinging lines and shortened waist-line—is in the ascendant. This means that the modish fall costume will be formed of the one-piece gown with an accompanying long coat.

The soft satin-finished silks are still the favorite and many satin coats are seen with crepe-de-Chine gowns. Crepe-de-Chine will be one of the most popular of materials, for nothing drapes and clings more beautifully and nothing shows off to such effect the elaborate embroideries which are still a notable feature of all gowns beyond those of the strictly tailored variety.

The new velvets are following the silks in their lightness and suppleness, and the velvet coat matching the cloth or silk Empire gown, is sure to be the favorite mode for the Fall and Winter.

There is a strong revival of the soft, clinging cashmeres, both for scarves and for frocks, and it bids fair to be one of the Fall's most popular fabrics. Bordure effects are seen in the new satins, the fancy broadcloths have woven satins or chevron stripes, and beautiful soft blendings are shown in the plaid and check suitings.

Gray is as popular as ever, but a noteworthy feature is a distinct preference for black; which throughout the Summer, with its rich color, has been somewhat in vogue. All black, however, is rare, seen only in Paris there is much use of old on soft black—dull rich-looking gold, not that with a bright, brassy finish. Very smart restaurant gowns are made of black mousseline trimmed with a bit of gold embroidery, and a pretty new idea is worked out by narrow bands of colored ribbons placed under the transparent yoke, under the collar and under the wrists of the long sleeves.

A combination of silk soucha with silver or gold on ecru fillet is a new and effective trimming. Silver adorns many evening gowns, and no more delightful wear for a Summer night could be devised than white tulle flecked with silver. Silver is also used about the transparent neck and sleeves of high day-time frocks, and silver and gold tissue, gold cord and gold lace are much used on the latest hats.

Blue serge has always taken first place for the summer outing suit, but for autumn the mixed woollens in leaf and russet browns and stone grays, often combined with touches of soder green, are smart and serviceable. These suits are tailored strictly with an eye to comfort—skirts moderately short, coats loose and double-breasted with capacious pockets. Soft brown leather coats are also much worn, not only for motoring but for general rough service.

The smartest women in Paris are almost universally using the white Panama for motoring and all kinds of outdoor sporting life—golf, tennis or yachting. The Panama is light and is not easily injured by crushing, or by rain or dust. The trimmings are usually pongee, linen or velvety. A little later will come the soft felt hats, which are already shown in the shops, in the same shapes as the Panamas, and in soft shades of gray, tan and moleskin. Jauntily trimmed with silk scarves, wings or quills, they are equally suitable for early Fall street wear.
