DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach acidity and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition.
I have taken numerous other so-called 'pills' but without avail and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken in a year."

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD IS LOOMING UP

France and England are Angry Over the Action of Germany in Regard to Morocco

Paris, Sept. 4.—The action of Germany in breaking up the concert of the powers with regard to Morocco by notifying signatories of the Algeiras act that she considered the actual situation demanded the immediate recognition of Mulai Hafid, the usurping sultan of Morocco, has fallen like a bombshell in Paris, and a feeling approaching consternation is manifested in official circles.

The notification, which was made verbally, is not accompanied by any explanation of Germany's "brutal change of front" as it is termed here, and in government circles the action of Germany and the despatch to Fez of Dr. Vassel, the German consul at Tangiers, can no longer be tolerated.
Officials can see in Germany's action only a virtual proclamation of her intention to disregard the Algeiras act and seek a special position in Morocco for herself. The consequences from the international and French standpoints are expected to be deplorable.

After formal conference by ministers this afternoon and exchange of telegrams with Premier Clemenceau, the Associated Press was authorized to announce that France intends to pursue the policy already mapped out, and that the powers will be allowed to decide whether her course or that of Germany is preferable.

England Is Irritated

London, Sept. 4.—It is learned that the British government is holding aloof from Morocco, the new sultan of Morocco, for the present, but that it proposes to recognize him in due time. British officialdom is irritated by the course adopted by Germany, which it regards as an attempt to gain influence over and the good will of Mulai Hafid by stealing a march on the other powers. Consultations are now going on between Great Britain, France and Spain, and there is no doubt but that Great Britain and France will act together and probably insist that Mulai give promises to carry out the obligations of Morocco to the powers before they recognize him.

The gravity of the Moroccan situation lies in the fact that the contention over Morocco has brought Germany and France dangerously near a war. The position of Morocco, commanding one of the waterways of the Mediterranean, has excited European powers to keen rivalry in securing a preponderance of influence over that country. The present excitement in Paris is a renewal of the former Franco-German feeling over Morocco.

BULL FIGHTERS WERE BOOZY

And the Bull Had a Merry Time With Them Until He Was Shot

Lisbon, Sept. 4.—For permitting a ringful of drunken bullfighters to face an animal that killed two of their number outright, mortally wounded three others and less seriously injured a dozen, the authorities of the town of Rodar were all suspended from office and will no doubt be deprived of their posts permanently. The fight was arranged by the nobility of the country about Rodar and was preceded by a banquet, at which the amateurs drank so much that not one of them was sober on entering the ring.
The first bull released charged into the staggering group and hurled one man after another over the barrier among the shrieking spectators. A soldier finally shot the bull. No fault is found with bullfighting, but that drunken men should have been allowed to enter the ring is considered barbarous.

SELLING WHITE SLAVES

A Wholesale Traffic in Girls Going on in West Virginia

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 4.—The police of Huntington, Cabell county, have unearthed a wholesale white slave trade, and as a result several arrests have been made and many others are expected along the Ohio river.
Mrs. Combs, living on a houseboat, is said to be at the head of the organization that plied the river in search of girls.

The scheme was laid bare when the woman bartered Jennie Atkins, a pretty country girl, for $10, the lease extending six months. Mrs. Combs, according to testimony brought out at a hearing yesterday, has been sending women into the country districts for months, securing girls for disorderly places for small sums.
The boat she has occupied was luxuriously furnished, and in it she is said to have kept girls of various ages.
The police are acquainted with several people who have worked for her, and their arrest will be made at once.

SUIT AGAINST TOM LAWSON

By a Brooklyn Broker, who Says he Can Prove that "Friday the 13th"
Was Impossible

New York, Sept. 4.—An echo of frenzied finance and Thomas W. Lawson's venture into literature through the novel, "Friday the 13th," has been heard in the supreme court before Justice Blackmar in the attempt that is being made by Van Cleave Holmes, a broker living in Brooklyn, to collect from Lawson the $5,000 he is said to have offered anybody who would show him proof that the stock market manipulations by the hero of the book were not possible.

Holmes brought suit to recover the reward after he submitted, he says, the proof necessary to the publishers of the novel.

When the case was called Lawson's attorney said that his client never received any communication from Mr.
Holmes showing that he had complied with the terms of the offer. For this reason a bill of particulars is asked for. Holmes' lawyer said that all the requirements of the offer of reward were complied with and he wants the money. Justice Blackmar told both sides to submit their papers and affirmations.

SOUTH FLORIDA CATTLE THIEVES

Three Men Arrested in Tampa for Driving Off and Selling Stock

Kissimmee, Sept. 4.—Sheriff Prevatt has arrested Everett Brass, Lewis H.
Parker and Paschal Stewart, who are charged with stealing twenty-nine head of cattle belonging to G. W. Hopkins, Capt. Platte, Henry Savage and other parties. The cattle were driven from the pasture of Mr. Hopkins on the St. Johns river, through the country, crossing the Kissimmee river, near Gardner and were sold to a party living near Lakeland. Sheriff Prevatt, hearing of the facts, took the train and located the men at Tampa.

L. H. Parker is one of the principals in the famous cow-cutting case, which excited a great deal of attention throughout the Southern states.
The Southeastern Stock Growers' Association were the prosecutors. The parties were found guilty at the time, but owing to circumstances, received only light fines.

COLOR LINE DRAWN BY SPANISH WAR VETERANS

Boston, Sept. 4.—The drawing of the color line in the organization of the United States war veterans was the most conspicuous feature of the fifth annual convention proceedings yesterday. This action was brought about through a resolution declaring the Charles M. Thomas Camp of Washington, D. C., "unattached." Commander-in-chief Hale left his chair at the convention tonight to defend the resolution, and he was vigorously opposed by members of the colored camp from the floor.

The commander-in-chief explained that it was the policy of the national body to have all colored camps unattached, until such time as the colored camps could have a department for themselves. He acknowledged that the charter for the particular camp, placed the camp on the same footing as the white camps in the department in the District of Columbia, but explained the charter had been granted by mistake. The resolution was finally adopted.

Outside of the convention proceedings the big event of the day was the parade of 5,000 of the veterans.

THE REMEDY THAT DOES

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs.
E. R. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa.
"It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing. My other treatments relieved only temporarily.
New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at all drug stores. Fifty cents and $1.00.

DEATH OF AN AERONAUT

Waterville, Me., Sept. 4.—In full view of 25,000 horrified spectators, assembled on the Central Maine Fair grounds here yesterday, Charles Oliver Jones of Hammondspoint, N. Y., aeronaut, fell a distance of 500 feet to his death. Among the witnesses of the frightful plunge and Mrs. Jones and child, and they were almost the first to reach the side of the dying man.
Jones died in an hour and a half after the accident.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by all dealers.

ATE HIS CROW WITH APPETITE

Senator Foraker Shook Hands With Taft and Acknowledged Him as His Party Leader

Toledo, O., Sept. 4.—For an hour or more yesterday the grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, with its attendant throngs, served merely as the background—the scenery—of a dramatic incident as has enlivened a political campaign in some years, namely, the public meeting of William H. Taft, and his erstwhile rival, Senator Joseph Benson Foraker.

The republican leader and his political antagonist of the pre-convention canvass met in the official reviewing stand, shook hands, smiled and exchanged greetings, while from thousands of throats came cheer after cheer, as the significance of the incident dawned upon the beholder.

After a most glowing indorsement of Judge Taft by Bishop Samuel Fallowers of the Reformed Episcopal church, Chicago, Senator Foraker was introduced and was received with decided cordiality. He began by scoring the press to the extent of saying that there came near being a tragedy in his absence from the meeting during the first ten minutes of its duration because the newspaper correspondents were preparing dispatches announcing the confirmation of the "feud and had feeling that is existing between Judge Taft and myself." He continued:
"Under the circumstances I hope I may be pardoned if I say here in the presence—the first time I have had opportunity to say it—that there has never been, so far as I know, the slightest ill-feeling of any kind between Judge Taft and myself." (Cheers and applause.) "And if there had been you could not lose me that way. If there is anything I have a right to claim above another, is it that I am a republican three hundred and sixty-five days in the year. I have my preference sometimes as to who should receive the honors of the party and everybody generally finds out what they are. But I am one of those old-fashioned republicans who settles every such question at a convention.
When the Chicago convention nominated Judge Taft to be the republican candidate for the presidency this year that instant he became my leader. (Applause.) He has been my leader ever since and he will be my leader until the polls close on the night of the election."

TEXAN DEMOCRATS IN TROUBLE

Republicans Have Nominated a Strong Man and May Win on the Local Option Issue

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 4.—Sweeping into the homestretch under whip and spur the democratic donkey and the republican elephant are contesting for the victory in the greatest political race that Texas has witnessed in years. For the first time the elephant sees a chance of victory and is making the race of his life. Handicapped by a prohibition plank and confused by the discord of his trainers, the donkey is finding the track a heavy one. If he wins, it will not be in a walk, as in former years. For the first time the long-eared animal is confronted with the necessity of running a real race.

The adoption by the democratic convention of a plank providing for the submission of the state-wide prohibition issue to a vote of the people gave the republicans their opportunity.
Heretofore the Texas republican party could almost be counted on the fingers and toes of any normal human being.
The democratic split over Senator Bailey's retention in the senate overnight. Now that the republican party has gone on record as opposed to prohibition, and has nominated Colonel John W. Simpson, of Dallas, a Confederate veteran, as its candidate for governor, the organization has assumed respectable proportions. All the "wets" of the state have flocked to the republican standard, as a haven of refuge from the "dry" regime of the democracy.

The democrats believe they have a trump card, however, in their platform indorsement of a guaranty of bank deposits law, such as has been successfully tried in Oklahoma. The republican state platform opposes this measure, which is highly popular among the rank and file of Texans.
Any doubt as to the success of the democratic party in the state election does not extend to the national ticket.
While there is some enthusiasm for Taft in the larger cities, especially among business men, it is likely that Bailey's majority will be fully as large as in former years. The few party leaders who opposed the nomination of the Nebraskan are now back in the fold. Interest in the national election is overshadowed by state issues, with the bitter fight for and against prohibition the greatest issue of all.

FRENCH HEAVILY FINED

Castro's Court Has Imputed Judge Lands in Soaking It to a Heartless Corporation

New York, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Caracas, Venezuela, says after more than three years legal procedure the civil court of first instance, at Caracas, has delivered a judgment in the sensational case of the French Cable Company. The company is held liable and guilty of complicity in the Matos revolution in 1903, and fined $5-000,000.

The trial has been even more startling than that against the New York and Bermudes Asphalt Company, because it has reached far beyond the high officials of the cable company in Paris. The evidence mentions in an alleged compromising way even such names as M. Delcasse, minister of foreign affairs of France at the time of the revolution. It is Venezuela's claim that the French government itself sent support to Matos.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for several years, and find them just exactly right," says Mr. A. A.
Felton, of Harrisville, N. Y. New Life Pills relieve without the least discomfort. Best remedy for constipation, biliousness and malaria. Twenty-five cents at all drugstores.

DIED FROM HYDROPHOBIA

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 2.—Gertrude Homeler, the ninety-year-old daughter of Gustav Homeler, a well known printer, died in agony today from hydrophobia, this being the second case in this city in sixty years. The girl was bitten by a stray dog on July 31 last.

Her parents had the wound cauterized, and thought no more about it until she developed symptoms of rabies forty-eight hours before her death. To make matters worse for the parents, the girl bit the elder sister, Martha, just before the rabies developed. Martha has been hurried to the Pasteur Institute in Philadelphia.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most standard medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by all druggists.

PACIFIC FLEET AT HONOLULU

Honolulu, Sept. 4.—The Pacific fleet arrived in the harbor and dropped anchor shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday.
Firing of torpedoes, boat destroyers by cruisers of the fleet was proven more or less of a success in the case of the Preble and Perry which did not part their lines during the voyage from San Francisco. The Whipple was obliged to slacken speed because of a chafing line. Lines to the four remaining torpedoes parted once or twice in each instance.

IT CAN'T BE BEAT

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it.
For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions.
Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at all drugstores, 50c.
