Father Bottolacio and his two sisters returned yesterday from a month's pleasant outing. They took the Clyde Line and made a few days stay with their brother, who is a banker in New York City. They then took the boat for Albany, inspected the finest capitol building in the United States and proceeded to Plattsburg on Lake Champlain, near which town on the shores of this magnificent lake is Cliftonville, where the Catholic people of this country hold their summer schools and have a tract of 500 acres on which is located suitable buildings for intellectual study and the material comforts of the vast throngs that are continually in attendance during their sessions. Father Bottolacio was delighted with the daily program from 6:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., not an hour but was marked by the elucidation of some great fact in sacred history and the presentation of the latest discoveries in science, mechanics and social and political economy. The program is so varied that there is entertainment, recreation and food for thought for every mind and disposition. Leon Fishel, the junior member of the firm of M. Fishel & Son, will leave for New York Saturday to make his initial trip for his house. Leon knows how it is to act as an ambassador of trade and has been a very successful one, but now he appears in a new role and we are confident he will acquire himself with credit and make such judicious selections of merchandise and secure them at such prices and pick up such wonderful bargains that his trip will add to the prestige the house already possesses. Now comes our esteemed contemporary of the Banner and says "Feather Duster Hughes," governor of the great state of New York, is over-estimated and he objects to some very good democrats lauding the old hocus pocus and is free to say he don't like Hughes, all because he lauded Taft at the Youngstown meeting and disparaged our Peerless. What a pity so few men have not the discerning mind of our esteemed contemporary.

W. J. Crosby of Citra, who was in the city yesterday, speaking of his friend and neighbor, J. B. Borland, as a nominee for county commissioner on the republican ticket from the Citra district, said he did not imagine for a moment he would accept the nomination, as he, Mr. Borland, was one of Mr. Crosby's strongest supporters and had voted the democratic state ticket for years. Lee Priest of Anthony, who had his horse stolen ten days ago and advertised the loss in the Star, has recovered the horse at Newberry, returning from that place this morning. The party who stole the animal out of Mr. Priest's pasture has traded him off.

FIRE AT NEWBERRY

Some of the Leading Business Houses Destroyed Gainesville, Sept. 10.—Newberry was visited by a disastrous fire Monday and some of its best and most substantial business houses, were destroyed. The artificial stone building of Ruff & Goodson, and occupied by E. F. Vidal as a drug store, together with the remaining half of the building which was owned by Capt. C. A. Neal, and occupied as a general store by Neel & Burke, were a total loss. The Howell two-story brick structure adjoining caught from the flames and was badly damaged, although the heroic work of the citizens generally succeeded in saving the structure. The fire it is understood, started in the rear of the drugstore and when the alarm was given the building was enveloped in flames and all attention had to be diverted to the adjoining buildings. The total loss to all parties will aggregate fully $20,000, which is possibly partly covered by insurance, but this will not near compensate them for their losses.

MARION COUNTY TEACHERS

The following are the names of the white teachers who are taking the examinations: Misses Janie Ausley, Morrison; Gertrude McAdams, Due West, S. C.; Mary Forbes, Anthony; Minnie Lee Carlisle, Ocala; Jettie Boyles, Sparr; Beagie McCully, Berlin; Cora Pritchett, Levon; Bettie Haycraft, Ocala; Maud Pegram, Orange Springs; Abbie Stokes, Gaiter; Ellen Seckinger, Berlin; Bertha Snow, Pedro; Una Sheely, Anthony; Appie Reddick, Citra; Emily Halford, Sparr; Ella Lyles, Belleview; Dora Morrison, Gaiter; and Messrs. Herbert Spicer, Dunnell; Frank Culbreth, Martel; B. A. Hammond, Blitchton; Frank Luffman, Sparr. It will thus be seen there are seventeen females and only four males and their ages range from 17 to 30. This is a strong indicator that a great majority of our teachers do not enter the school room as a profession, but as a kind of an intermediary apprenticeship to some calling or profession. It is a pity it is thus for the calling is a noble one and one in which a live teacher can leave an impress for future good and development in the young.

FIGHTING AGAINST FIRE

A Night of Terror in Northeastern Minnesota Duluth, Minn., Sept. 10.—It was a night of terror on the range and one of deep anxiety in Duluth, but the conditions appear to have changed for the better. All yesterday afternoon and last night the fires threatened half a dozen of the larger towns of the range. More than 1,000 residents of Hibbing fought back the flames all night long, stamping out brush fires and wetting down the fields about town to keep the fires from spreading. This morning the reports are that the town is safe. Similar experiences are reported from a dozen other range towns, but so far as is known there has been no one destroyed. This morning what reports have been received from the busy fire-fighters are more optimistic. The wind is going down, and the fires appear to be gradually being controlled.

FORT MCCOY

Fort McCoy, Sept. 9.—Mr. Lloyd, the well man, has returned from Georgia and will begin the artesian well for the Rentz Lumber Co. at once. No effort has been made as yet to run down and catch the thief or thieves who broke open the store and postoffice of J. S. Grantham last Saturday night. They were very generous, though in their raid, as they left a satchel hanging near the money till with $35 in it. Oscar Ellis, a worthy colored man, had the misfortune to lose his dwelling and kitchen last Sunday night by fire. They were awakened in time to save all their household gods. Mr. Lohrig has his portable saw mill about ready to commence cutting the timber for the big Rentz mill. He has set it up near the site for the big mill. Rev. D. A. Martin of Oxford preached at Mill Creek last Sunday to a crowded house. The public school here will open next Monday under the supervision of Mr. E. A. Hammoms of Blitchton. Miss Stella Martin left last Saturday for Grahamville, where she will teach for the coming term. Messrs. Bartow & McLeod have cut wages on their turpentine farm at Dexter and their hands are considerably stirred up. Mr. Stafford, the machinist, has been on the sick list for several days, but we are glad to note that he was able to be at the shop yesterday. Sugar cane and sweet potatoes are looking fine and bid fair to make a good yield. Not much excitement in this neck of woods over the coming election. Nice, gentle showers are falling every day to the joy of the truck growers.

A pleasant visitor to this place for the past few days was the able editor, Miss S. D. Fanning, of the Florida Baptist Witness, published at Arcadia. Dainty refreshments were served to about thirty guests. Miss Mabel Williams has for her guest Miss Essie Simmons of Alachua. She is quite a charming young woman and has received much attention while here. The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. G. G. Jackson Tuesday afternoon. IMMENSE ENDOWMENT FOR WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY

Will of Late William F. Vilas Gives Thirty Millions to that Institution Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—By the will of William F. Vilas, former United States senator and member of Cleveland's cabinet, an eventual endowment of $20,000,000 is provided for the University of Wisconsin. The will, filed for probate, provides that the estate, now valued at $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, be placed in the hands of four trustees during the life time of Mrs. Vilas. She is to receive the entire net income, and upon her death the whole property to be turned over to the university, subject only to a charge of $30,000 a year for his daughter, Mrs. L. M. Hanks, and some minor charges. After the property is turned over to the university only half of the net income is to be expended until the principal with interest reaches $20,000,000. Then the entire income is to be used by the university, as provided by the will. The will provides that a building be erected to be known as the Henry Vilas Theater, to be a general meeting place, with reading rooms, lecture halls, baths and accessories. It is also provided that a large number of scholarships be established, and that as soon as an accumulation of the fund may permit there be established ten professorships, each to have a salary of not less than $8,000, nor more than $10,000 a year.
