

Not "How Much?"
but "how good?" is the question that every one should ask in buying candy.

The old saying that "a man is judged by the candy he gives" holds good today same as always. Buy the best—don't take the "just as good" kind.

LAST NIGHT'S WEDDING

The pretty little home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dozier, on South Weonona street, was the scene last night of a wedding in which Mr. George A. Nash was united to Miss Catherine Anderson, Rev. G. H. Nash, father of the groom, officiating.

The ceremony, which was both touching and solemn, was a very quiet one, only those present being the groom's father, the bride's sisters and brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strunk and two children of Miami, and the Dozier family, who have been lifelong friends of the bride, also Captain T. O. Stewart.

The bride wore a handsome white crepe de chene over taffeta dress with diamond brooch and carrying a lovely bouquet of bridal roses. Her going-away gown was of Copenhagen blue, with hat, veil, gloves, shoes and parasol to match. The groom wore the conventional black. Catherine, the sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Strunk, was ring bearer and performed her part most admirably.

The parlor and entire home was most beautifully decorated with festoons of ivy, ferns and cut flowers. The color scheme, pink, green and white, was carried out artistically in the decorations. After heartfelt congratulations and wishes were extended by those who love this interesting couple, delicious refreshments were served by the two attractive little girls, Lauragene and Florence Dozier.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash left on the S. A. L. 2 a. m. train, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Strunk as far as Jacksonville, en route to Baltimore, New York, Washington and other places of interest. At Jacksonville they were met by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dozier, who took them to their home, where an elegant wedding breakfast was awaiting the bridal party.

IT MAY NOT BE GENERALLY KNOWN, BUT the intelligence has leaked out that Dr. C. W. Lindner, one of Ocala's popular physicians, recently took to himself the missing rib in the person of Miss Sallie Townsend of Martin, the esteemed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Townsend of that place. The marriage was celebrated so quietly that, although it happened over a month ago, the happy event has just become known. The Star extends its sincere congratulations.

THE Ocala COLONY AT HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.
Hendersonville, N. C., Sept. 12.—As September is one of the most beautiful months of the year, a great many Floridians have taken advantage of this, and come to Hendersonville. Hendersonville is one of the prettiest little towns in the state, consisting of many beautiful summer homes, which are surrounded by lawns and flower gardens. Most of the streets are paved and on each side are large trees, which afford most refreshing shade. The young people are having a gay time, there being many attractions such as bowling, skating, moving picture shows, etc. A jolly party consisting of Mrs. R. R. Carroll and little daughter, Merris, Mrs. D. A. Clark and child, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Johnson, Miss Clark Johnson, Mrs. H. Clarkson, Misses Ellen and Lillian and Master Robert Clarkson, from Ocala, and Misses Lois, Elizabeth and Annie Edwards, and Mr. William Edwards, of Lawley, Fla., left about 2 o'clock on the "dummy" for Laurel Park, the most delightful park around Hendersonville. There are many trees of rhododendron and laurel are so numerous that they almost form a perfect archway over the paths, and it is near impossible for the sun to shine through the network of branches; in fact, this place is beyond description. One of the most ideal features of the park is Crystal Springs. Here is where the party stopped and had lunch, which had been so carefully prepared by the ladies.

There is a lake and several beautiful springs there, also. About dark the party returned home, tired and worn out from their afternoon's outing, but happy and contented.

On the morning following the same crowd went up in the tower of the courthouse and from there they gazed upon the following mountains, viz: Pisgah, Long John, Stone, Bald, Wal-low, Jump-off, Tryon, Sugar Loaf, Hebron, Glassy and Butt. The mountains seemed unusually serene and peaceful on this beautiful morning.

Again in the afternoon the same Ocala people went out to Mt. Foreb. This indeed is a beautiful spot, being thousands six hundred feet in height. On the very top there is erected a tower, which was built many years ago by an old mountaineer who was born in 1802 and died in 1898—a remarkable old age. After paying 25c. up to the top, and from there they beheld a most magnificent sight. Every now and then a cloud could be seen wafting its way below the mountains. This indeed was a grand sight. Just as the sun was sinking below one of the highest mountains the party proceeded homeward.

Although the Ocala colony has had many pleasant outings, they are anticipating another "big time" tomorrow, when they go to see the sights at Biltmore. "Ocalaites."
