Weak Women

frequently suffer great pain and misery during the change of life. It is at this time that the beneficial effect of taking Cardui is most appreciated, by those who find that it relieves their distress.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Lucinda C. Hill, of Freeland, O., writes: "Before I began to take Cardui, I suffered so badly I was afraid to lie down at night. After I began to take it I felt better in a week. Now my pains have gone. I can sleep like a girl of 16 and the change of life has nearly left me." Try Cardui.

Eat What

You want of the food you need

Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you.

This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you.

It would bankrupt us. The dollar bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Lesson XII.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 20, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, II Sam. v, 12—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.]

LESSON I.—Israel asks for a king (I Sam. viii, 10-22). Golden Text, Prov. viii, 15, "By Me kings reign and princes decree justice." The whole quarter has kept us face to face with Israel, for the most part in rebellion against God. In this first lesson they deliberately and persistently reject Him and demand to be given a king like other nations. When He came in the form of man, as their Messiah, they rejected Him, saying we have no king but Caesar, and thus they do still.

LESSON II.—Saul chosen king (I Sam. x, 17-27). Golden Text II Sam. xxiii, 3, "He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God." It seems an awful thing that men should turn from the only living and true God to put their trust in one of themselves, but they did worse than this and made a golden calf and said, "These be thy gods, O Israel." When they had to choose between the Son of God, their Messiah, and a murderer they chose the murderer, and they will yet choose the wickedest of men as their rulers.

LESSON III.—Samuel warns Saul and the people (I Sam. xii, 1-5, 13-25). Golden Text, I Sam. xii, 24, "Only fear the Lord and serve Him in truth with all your heart, for consider how great things He hath done for you." God having indulged them with a man after their own heart, a tall, fine looking man, a head and shoulders above other men, Samuel earnestly entreats them to fear and serve and obey the Lord, who has dealt so graciously with them, that He may still bless them, if possible, notwithstanding their great sin.

LESSON IV.—Saul rejected by the Lord (I Sam. xiii, 13-28). Golden Text, Josh. xxiv, 24, "The Lord our God will serve, and His voice will we obey." Saul did not continue as little in his own sight (verse 17) as before he became king, but had his own thoughts about things, did what he thought best and yet insisted that he had obeyed the Lord.

LESSON V.—David anointed at Bethlehem (I Sam. xvi, 1-13). Golden Text, I Sam. xvi, 7, "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart." It is our weakness to consider a fine appearance, something to fascinate the eye or the ear or the intellect, but God considers above all things the heart, for out of it are the issues of life—not the eldest nor the most attractive, but the youngest and to men the most unlikely.

LESSON VI.—David and Goliath (I Sam. xvii, 38-40). Golden Text, Ps. xi, 1, "In the Lord put I my trust." A magnificent illustration of the strength that is made perfect in weakness, of the Lord showing Himself strong on behalf of those whose hearts are whole toward Him! The great mass of flesh and armor, with all its strength and armor, falls before a stripling with a sling and stone. Pride and self confidence fall before confidence in God.

LESSON VII.—Saul tries to kill David (I Sam. xviii, 6-16). Golden Text, Ps. lxxxiv, 11, "The Lord God is a sun and shield." The flesh cannot tolerate the Spirit, for the flesh is controlled by an evil spirit of jealousy, hatred, pride, strife and such like. The same spirit that in Cain slew his brother Abel is in Saul seeking to kill David, and so it always has been, and will be. "The carnal mind is enmity against God."

LESSON VIII.—Friendship of David and Jonathan (I Sam. xviii, 30-42). Golden Text, Prov. xvii, 17, "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." Such love as these two had, the one for the other, is something heavenly, but what can we say of the love of God to sinners? Nothing was ever seen on earth like it. The love of God in Christ Jesus to us sinners is certainly the greatest topic in Scripture, the greatest thing truly.

LESSON IX.—David spares Saul's life (I Sam. xxvi, 17-25). Golden Text, Luke vi, 27, "Love your enemies; do good to them which hate you." There is neither murder nor hatred nor revenge in the heart of David. He would not lay a finger on his enemy to harm him even when he had him in his power. This was the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Him who said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." He truly committed himself to God.

LESSON X.—Saul and Jonathan slain in battle (I Sam. xxxi). Golden Text, Amos iv, 12, "Prepare to meet thy God." As David said when urged one day to kill him, "His time will come," and it did, but David was guiltless. God has a "thus far" for all His enemies, and beyond that they cannot go. There is a fullness of time of blessing upon His own and judgment for His adversaries. The sad part is to see such as Jonathan cut off. But for such "to die is gain."

LESSON XI.—David made king over Judah and Israel (II Sam. ii, 17, v. 1-5). Golden Text, II Sam. v, 10, "David went on and grew great, and the Lord God of Hosts was with him" happy consummation to the quarter's lessons, and as we consider if we are carried on to the great consummation when the Son of David shall sit on David's throne and shall reign in righteousness over all Israel and all nations, and there shall be neither adversary nor evil occurrent, and the nations shall learn war no more.

IT CAN'T BE BEAT

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at all drugstores, 50c.

C. E. FESTIVITIES

Pleasant happenings come even in the long quiet summer. Here are a few of them:

The Palatka News mentions an ice cream sale given by the Pomona Endeavorers. It was given in the town hall and was of course a success, as their society always seems to have.

We give credit to both Tampa Tribune and Ocala Star for this item. Just before Rev. W. H. Coleman departed from Tampa for his new Christian church work in Ocala, he, Mrs. Coleman and their little sons, Floyd and Carl, were tendered a surprise party by the Junior Endeavor society in the Christian church of Tampa. Mrs. Coleman has long served as superintendent and the children had made marked progress during her care over them. As a farewell gift she was presented with a beautiful china fruit dish and bread plate. The children had shared in this gift, as they did in a delicious lunch, which was enjoyed by twenty members, Mrs. Coleman and her friend, Mrs. R. D. McCarty. The account did not mention the pastor, but we suppose he did not miss his part in the refreshments.

We are indebted to the Metropolis, and our local reporters, Misses Maggie Gilmore and May Hawley, for news of two pleasant gatherings in August, taking place at Gilmore, which is a stirring Christian Endeavor community "by the St. Johns." Miss Sadie C. Cameron celebrated her fifteenth birthday by a party to which all the young people were invited. They accepted the invitation willingly and as a result there was a pleasant evening for both guests and hostesses. A milestone was also reached in the life of Master Alban Hawley and a genuine boy's party resulted. We wish these young entertainers many more opportunities for sharing their pleasures.

The Lake Region chronicles a social given by the Presbyterian society in Pustis which must have been more pleasant because it varied from the usual routine of such affairs. It was given out of town, at the home of Miss Mary McDonald on West Crooked Lake. The guests, who numbered over twenty, were conveyed by large teams, thus having a combined outing and their once-a-month Christian Endeavor social.

Mr. Jas. Lee, the new reporter for the First Christian church workers in Jacksonville, sends us a full account of their combined business meeting and social, held in August. We quote this much from Mr. Lee's letter: "The president, Mr. Faunce McCulley, gave a very nice talk outlining the work for the various committees, and reports were heard from most of them. A good many thought we would have better meetings in the fall, when most every one would be home again. Brothie Boone was out of the city so we did not have the pleasure of a talk from him. There were about twenty-five present and we had a very homelike gathering, talking on many subjects to better our society, and all were much pleased with the meeting. We then enjoyed a repast of lemonade and crackers arranged by the social committee, and had some nice recitals from various members and friends." It was the State Secretary's pleasure to attend the July social in Mr. Lee's church, and we can easily realize how pleasant the August event was.

The Gainesville Endeavorers have had several socials this summer and the Juniors had good fortune financially in adding business with pleasure in their planning.

State President Rev. Jas. F. and Mrs. Winnards, when it came their turn to entertain at the manse the Tampa Heights Presbyterian society, gave a "needle party," and the young people had a splendid time. President Winnard gives the following item from their social: "When about a dozen had arrived we gave each a card and pencil with which to secure the names of each present. Each next corner was also given a card. Before the evening was far spent they were meeting guests on the side-walk so as to be the first to get the autograph. It is needless to say there was no necessity of introductions." This is a novel, new idea for many of us and it is under no copyright.
