

EVENING STAR

C. L. BITTINGER & CO. C. L. Bittinger and R. R. Carroll Proprietors and Publishers. C. L. BITTINGER, Editor and General Manager. R. R. CARROLL, City Editor and Business Manager

We had the pleasure this morning of meeting Mr. Wm. Martin, of Warrington, Va., who is now visiting his niece, Mrs. W. M. McDonald, of Oak Mr. Martin has the distinction of being one of the jurors in the John Brown case at Harper's Ferry, nearly fifty years ago, and what is more remarkable is that he is today the sole survivor of any one who was connected, officially with that celebrated case and which undoubtedly precipitated the civil war. Mr. Martin bears his years lightly and is a pleasant spoken gentleman, whose kindly smile and warm handclasp is a pleasure to meet. Mr. Arnold, manager of the McDowell Crane Company, was in town with Mr. Martin.

J. W. White, one of the ablest and most successful editors, of the state and who is making the Fraternal Record, of Jacksonville, an indispensable periodical to every up-to-date fraternal man, has enlarged his superior publication to sixty-four pages and every page running over with good things. The Star is ever pleased to see evidences of progress, prosperity and usefulness in the path of Brother White, one of the most genial of men, whole-souled, companionable, hearty, always full of new thoughts and ideas and giving them for the benefit of the public. The September issue of the Fraternal Record contains a fine cut of Hon. Henry W. Long, past grand master F. & A. M., of Florida and one of Marion's most distinguished citizens. The Fraternal Record should be in the home of every member of a fraternal order in the state.

Mr. Robert Rogers of Lynne, came in yesterday to meet his mother, Mrs. F. F. Rogers, who spent the summer at Battle Creek, Mich., and we are pleased to say her health is greatly improved and she now feels as if she never knew an ache or pain. Her son, Edward, who went with her and was almost helpless for a year, is about to regain his health under the treatment he is receiving there.

Capt. Buck Williams is again back in charge of his Homosassa ranch and came in with a big bear story. In which Dr. Weaver, of Blind Island, on the Gulf, was the hero. A bear was bothering his hogs and depleting his stock, so he built a pen in the hammock and put a hog in it. Tracks of the bear soon appeared, but he shunned the trap. The pig was let out and bruin got the hog. Then another hog was imprisoned and two traps set. The hog was kept in the pen long enough to arouse the desire in bruin for pork chops and so eager did he become that he forgot his enemy the traps, and he was caught and held captive. That bruin would not be tormented with the other trap, he dug a hole with his free paw and buried the other trap. But bruin's doom was sealed. He was slain and his fat fried out filled a ten-gallon measure.

Frank Turner, the successful farmer and stockman at Bradley pond, was in town yesterday and said he had just added to his farm 440 acres of land which now gives him a plantation of 1,200 acres. Frank is also agitating his gray matter over a patent that will put him on easy street.

Hon. Ion L. Farris, candidate for speaker of the lower house of the Florida legislature, who has been in Tampa in the interest of said candidacy, passed through Ocala yesterday on his way to Jacksonville, his home. As Ion is a Marion county boy his success is wished for by his old friends here.

It is pleasing to know that Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow's little daughter, Annie Blair, who was operated on for appendicitis in Baltimore, is much improved and will return home next week. Mrs. Woodrow will proceed to Blair Villa at Woodrow to spend the fall months.

THE OCTOBER AMERICAN MAGAZINE The October American Magazine is full of "meaty" matter. Professor Thomas, of Chicago University, begins his series of articles on women. In his first article, which is entitled "The Adventitious Character of Women," he discusses woman as an ornament, woman as man's equal, man the master, the woman the infatuated man, the adventures, the morals of the unattached woman, the girl who must earn her own living, and other lively topics. The next article in this series, it is announced, will be on "The Psychology of Woman's Dress."

Dr. Frederick Van Eden, a physician of international reputation, contributes a really notable article on "How Mind Can Heal the Body." Dr. Van Eden has for many years successfully applied hypnotic suggestion in the treatment of disease—not as a cure-all, but as a valuable aid. The article is sensible and presents a mass of new facts which surely will interest any reader.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson describes "The Curiosities of Sleep." "Mr. Doe" writes on the Olympic Games. Congressman Victor Murdock, of Kansas, tells of the difficulties which a new congressman encounters—how, if he would amount to anything, he must first bend his back to Speaker Cannon. Charles Roman writes of "The Wonderland of Delirium." A. J. McKelway reports "Kate," the "Good Angel" of Oklahoma.

The best of fiction is contributed by such writers as O. Henry, W. J. Locke, Jeanne Webster, Jessamine Jones, Lincoln Colcord and Venita Seibert.

"Grover Cleveland—As Seen by a Telegraph Operator Who Handled His Political Secrets," is the title of a somewhat remarkable story in "The Pilgrim's Scrip." "The Interpreter's House" contains a number of fresh personal facts of great interest about Taft, Bryan and Roosevelt.

ROOSEVELT'S REPLY

To Bryan's Demand for Proof Against Haskell Deals Mostly in Generalities Washington, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt yesterday, following on a prolonged conference with members of the cabinet at the White House, prepared and gave out his reply to W. J. Bryan, the democratic nominee, relative to W. R. Hearst's charges that Gov. Haskell, treasurer of the democratic campaign committee, had represented Standard Oil interests both in Ohio and Oklahoma. Mr. Bryan had demanded proof of the charges, promising that in the event of their substantiation, Gov. Haskell would be eliminated from the campaign.

Dismissing the Ohio case, which involved an allegation of attempted bribery, with the explanation that he had made no direct charge against Gov. Haskell as regards that particular instance, President Roosevelt takes up the matter of the Prairie State Oil & Gas Company, and argues that Gov. Haskell's action in stopping legal proceedings begun by the attorney general of Oklahoma, demonstrates conclusively that he was controlled by the great corporation to which the Oklahoma company was subsidiary.

After contrasting Mr. Bryan's defense of Gov. Haskell as against Judge Taft's repudiation of Foraker in connection with the Hearst charges against the Ohio senator, the president proceeds to declare that Gov. Haskell's "utter unfitness for association with any man anxious to appeal to the American people on a moral issue" has been abundantly shown by other acts of his as governor of Oklahoma. The president condemns Gov. Haskell's conduct in connection with various matters as disgraceful and scandalous and calls especial attention to what he describes as "prostituting to base purposes the state university." This fresh charge against the governor rests on an article in the Outlook, from which the president quotes and which he says forces the conclusion that Gov. Haskell is unworthy of any position in public life.

The latter portion of Mr. Roosevelt's utterance is devoted to criticism of Mr. Bryan's plea for regulating the trusts, which he characterizes as a measure that sounds more radical than any advocated by the republicans but which in practice would not work. Concluding, Mr. Roosevelt says that no law defying corporations has anything to fear from Mr. Bryan "save what it would suffer from the general paralysis of business" which would follow democratic success.

REAL ESTATE AND INVESTMENTS

Rooms 27 and 28, Holder Block Ocala, Florida

The man who waits for a proven, producing proposition before investing will always pay every cent the stock is worth. It's the man who takes a chance on the ground floor that really gets the cream. Always investigate and act with due caution but you will lose out entirely and every time if you wait for a "cinch." Equal parts of nerve and common sense will be found a very palatable dose and a combination hard to beat.

If you want to buy a home in Ocala, I can offer you one of the very few places on the market on Oklawaha avenue.

Frontage is 96 feet and the lot runs back 480 feet. House is one story containing five rooms, kitchen and bathroom; city water, gas, electric light and modern plumbing; stable and servant's house in yard. Price, $2,300, half cash and balance spread over three years.

If you want to build a store building to rent I have a lot on Fort King avenue between the Pittman building and the new building just erected by Guerrant & Carmichael. Frontage is 43 feet by 110 feet deep. The building now on it is old but rents for enough to pay interest on the investment. Price is $850.

OAKRIDGE lots on the Shady Grove hard road and within the city limits can be bought for $75 to $90; 100 feet front by 125 feet deep; 10% cash and $1 per week. Free deed in case of death. No taxes to pay until 1909. Map and prices on application.

WOODMAR. This property is on the most beautiful lake in Florida, on a bluff which rises from 25 feet to 75 feet above the level of the lake. The A. C. L. railroad runs between the edge of the lake and the bluff. Four years ago when I platted this property and offered to sell lots I was laughed at by many and the word "fool" more than once dropped in connection with this property. Try and buy back for me the lots I have already sold and come and see me. I have raised the prices once and will raise again until another Mr. Flieger sees the beauties of the place and then he can have it if he will pay the price. The streets are all planned to shade trees and water works installed—good water too. Buy a lot now. You can buy on terms but you can't buy them at discount. Map and prices on application.

A YOUNG WIFE'S RASH ACT

Jealousy, Probably Unfounded, Caused a Tampa Woman to Take Her Own Life

Tampa, Sept. 24.—Carrying out a threat which she had made on a number of occasions that she would kill herself unless he discontinued his attentions to other women, Mrs. Kate Bassett, the 19-year-old bride of John Bassett, committed suicide last night, shortly after 9 o'clock by drinking almost the entire contents of an ounce bottle of carbolic acid. Bassett was in the room with her as she raised the bottle to her lips. He attempted to get to her side, but was too late. "This is all right," Bassett heard her say, and he turned to see what she was doing. Uplifted in her hand was a bottle of black liquid, and as he turned his head toward her she threw it to her lips and gulped down the burning fluid. Then she lay back gasping and within a few minutes was unconscious.

Bassett smelled the acid and immediately divined what she had done. He rushed out and got Dr. Vinson, who went with him immediately to the apartments, arriving a few minutes after the deed was done. The doctor was later reinforced by Dr. Ivse, and both worked hard to save the young woman's life. But the deadly acid had burned out her life, and she died within the hour.

The pair had gone out to Ybor City early in the evening and had dinner at a restaurant. They went out in the big Red car which Bassett, who is a chauffeur, drives for the City Transfer Company. When they came back Bassett left his wife at the door. He had to work until 1 a. m. She told him that he ought not to leave her, but he said he must finish his night's work. Worried, because of her manner, he returned home an hour earlier than usual and found her lying on the bed. He was in the room but a few minutes when she committed the fatal act.

Bassett's Statement "She had accused me of intimacy with other women," Bassett said. "She had been needlessly jealous. Her threats to commit suicide had been made often. I did not pay much attention to them."

"Some one had been telling her stories concerning me, which were not true. She was in delicate health and lonely and wanted me to stay with her all the time. I had her mother, Mrs. Blount, come up from Punta Gorda and remain with her for a month. She left a week ago Friday. This seems to have done her good. I wish to God I was dead with her."

Bassett said that when he brought her home he had to go on to the transfer company's office and take Mr. and William Rice for a ride in the machine. He went there, but found they had not waited for him, but had gone in a carriage. He then went back to his wife, finding her just ready to take her life.

Married a Few Months

Bassett and the unfortunate woman were married early last spring. He is well known about town. She was a Miss Kate Blount, of Punta Gorda. There was a runaway match. She was his second wife, the first having been a divorcee from him. It is alleged, because of his attentions to other women, his first wife is married again and living in the city.
