THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson XIII.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 27, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Isa. v, 11-23—Memory Verses, 22, 23—Golden Text, Prov. xx, 1—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.] We cannot too often study and ponder any and every topic which the Holy Spirit has seen fit to set before us, but we must beware of considering the Bible simply as a book to give us daily texts or mottoes. We must keep before us the whole plan of God as set forth in the whole book if we would walk with God in peace and equity and turn people away from iniquity. This chapter in which we have our lesson begins with a record of a vineyard, and we are told that the vineyard is the house of Israel and the men of Judah His pleasant plant, but that, although everything had been done for the vineyard that could be done or thought of by its owner, the Lord of Hosts, the fruit was most unsatisfactory. His people had therefore become a manifestation of woe and not of blessing and the owner of the vineyard dissoned in the eyes of others. Their sin is summarily stated in the last clause of verse 24, "They have cast away the law of the Lord of Hosts and despised the word of the holy one of Israel."

We have seen something of this in our recent studies in Samuel. It is the testimony of all the prophets and of the Lord Jesus when here in humiliation as He taught the people in parables. He said of them, "This people have I formed for Myself; they shall show forth My praise" (Isa. xliii, 21), but after long patience with them He had to say, "Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel" (Ezek. xxxvi, 31, 32). Whether it be Jews or gentiles, saints or sinners, it is manifest in all that "the carnal mind is enmity against God," yet "God is love" and not willing that any should perish and is ever beseeching men to turn to Him that He may forgive them and bless them and make Himself known through them, but His pitiful cry still is, "How often would I, and ye would not," "Ye will not come unto Me" (Matt. xxiii, 37; John v, 40). The quotation from Matthew is in the chapter of many woes, teaching us that while He is compelled to say "woe" he longs rather to say "blessed."

The woes in this lesson chapter refer to those who give themselves up to becoming wealthy, who live only for their own selfish gratification, who sin with all their might, defying God to do anything, who call evil good and good evil, proud, self conceited, envying at wrong for the sake of reward. What a picture of the world lying in the wicked one! But these words describe those who bear His name, who are professing His children, of whom He says in chapter 1, 2, "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me." He does not expect fruit or good works from people who are dead in trespasses and sins—such, being dead, cannot do anything to please Him—but from all who are saved by His great work He does expect both fruit and good works, for to that end He saves us. Note carefully Eph. ii, 8-10; Tit. iii, 5, 8. Is there any hope for such as those upon whom these woes are pronounced? Yes, truly, for His salvation is for the lost, and any who truly turn to Him are never cast out (Luke xix, 10; John vi, 37). See in I Cor. vi, 9-11, the kind of people who by His precious blood became washed and sanctified and justified, and remember that He is Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever (Heb. xiii, 8). Do not waste time telling poor sinners of any kind, moral or immoral, drunken, profane, licentious or as good as Nicodemus, to do anything in the way of signing a pledge or turning over a new leaf or trying again, but by the word of God in the power of the Spirit and in the name of the Lord Jesus show them that they are as impotent as the man at the pool of Bethesda (John v) or worse than the man who fell among thieves (Luke x), for they are not only dead, but wholly dead, guilty before God (Rom. iii, 19), but to all such the grace of God bringeth salvation, and eternal life is a free gift in Christ Jesus, and receiving Him, the sinner at once becomes a child of God, a new creature in Christ, having a new nature which cannot sin (Tit. ii, 11).

The old sinful nature that can sin is still there, but the new, if yielded to, will hinder the old from doing as it would (Gal. v, 16, 17, R. V.). Isa. i, 18 is the first step, and then the next verse follows. All the haughtiness and lofty looks of man must come down and the Lord alone be exalted (chapter ii, 11, 17); then shall there be deliverance. Failure to accept God's plan can only result in the final "without" of Rev. xlii, 15, the "depart" of Matt. vii, 22, 23; xxv, 41. These things are hidden from the "wise in their own eyes who regard not the work of the Lord" (verses 12, 21) and are revealed unto babes who are willing to be taught, precept upon precept, line upon line (chapter xxviii, 9, 10). See these two sayings in connection with lessons on drunkenness summarized in Matt. xi, 25. Oh, how He would cause all the weary to rest if they would only listen to Him and build on the only foundation that will stand in the evil day, for other foundation for any sinner to build upon than that which God has laid can no man lay.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by all dealers.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE IS NOT IN CONTEMPT

A Sensible Decision by Judge Wolfs of the First Circuit

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 26.—Judge Wolfs of the first circuit yesterday rendered a decision in the Mays-Kehoe congressional contest, in which he stated that his court did not have jurisdiction to issue the injunction compelling the congressional committee not to canvass except by original returns, and, therefore, that the six committeemen and four attorneys were not in contempt of his court by disobeying the terms of the injunction.

FOUND A MARE'S NEST

French Police Unearth a Plot to Ambush Teddy White in Africa

Bayonne, France, Sept. 26.—Evidence of an anarchist plot against President Roosevelt on his forthcoming hunting trip to Africa has been made public by the police authorities of half a dozen countries who are examining a Spanish anarchist named Canatrava. In an effort to connect him with the suspected plot against King Alfonso, it has been disclosed that certain papers found on the persons of the two Italian anarchists arrested in Switzerland Wednesday contained the most definite information possible of President Roosevelt's African trip. The authorities are convinced that Roosevelt is being considered as a fit subject for an anarchist attack. The swarming of Canatrava is expected to disclose evidence of a plan for one of the greatest terrorist uprisings Europe has ever seen. As a result of the disclosures made today the guards in nearly every royal household in Europe have been increased.
