THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson I.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 4, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Sam. vi, 1-12. Memory Verse, 12—Golden Text, Ps. c, 4—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.]

Throughout the whole of the Scriptures there is no way of reconciliation to God revealed but by the great sacrifice on Golgotha, prefigured in every true sacrifice from Eden onward. This redemption is to the end that the redeemed may serve Him, the only living and true God, in truth with all the heart, proving in the daily life the good and acceptable and perfect will of God (I Sam. xii, 24; I Thess, i, 9, 10; Rom. xii, 1, 2). It is for God and for Him alone to appoint to each one his place and his service, "to every man his work," and it is the privilege of each one to "dwell with the King for His work" (Eph. ii, 10; Mark xiii, 34; I Chron. iv, 23). The redemption is wholly His own; so are also the works for us to walk in and the way in which the work is to be done. The work of the Lord can be done only by the redeemed of the Lord and in His own appointed way. There never lived on this earth but one who allowed himself to be used by God, and did God's work in God's way without fail, and He who was truly Son of God and Son of man is wondrously typified in the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth, which is mentioned fourteen times in this lesson chapter.

When God redeemed Israel from the bondage of Egypt that they might serve Him, He gave them His holy law from Sinai, which they promised to keep, but while Moses was up in the mount with God receiving the law written on tables of stone, absent scarcely six weeks, they broke the first commandment. Then Moses, returning from God, seeing their sin, as a striking object lesson threw down the tables and broke them. God recalled Moses, and, having written the same words on tables which Moses had made, He commanded him to make an ark according to the exact pattern which He showed him and in it put the law and keep it there. So the ark of the covenant, made of incorruptible wood and pure gold, typifying the pure humanity and the real divinity of Christ, kept the holy law which sinful Israel could not keep. Christ alone could say, "I delight to do Thy will, O my God—yea, Thy law is within my heart" (Ps. xl, 8; Heb. x, 7-10). As the ark was made to keep the holy law, the tabernacle was made with the holy of holies specially for the ark, and there in the holiest of all God dwelt in the midst of His people over the mercy seat or lid of the ark, between the cherubim (Ex. xxv, 8, 22).

The tabernacle, after all its wilderness journeyings, found a resting place when Israel entered the promised land and in the days of Samuel was located at Shiloh (I Sam. i, 3; iv, 3). But when Israel, relying upon the ark rather than the Lord, took it to battle with them it was taken captive by them and never seems to have been returned to the tabernacle. The Philistines, being plagued by the Lord because of the ark, for a sinful people cannot tolerate the Lord's presence apart from sacrifice, returned the ark to Israel on a new cart drawn by two milk cows, the Lord guiding the cows to Bethshemesh, where over 50,000 died because they looked into the ark, for the law apart from the mercy seat can bring only death. The ark then passed on to Kirjath-jearim, where for long years it continued in the house of Abinadab on the hill (I Sam. vi, 1, 2). Now that David was established in his kingdom (II Sam. v, 12) one of his first thoughts was a place for the ark of the covenant at Jerusalem, and this was well and as it ought to be, but now we have a sample of a thing that is very common in the church today, the Lord's work, or what professes to be the Lord's work, carried on in worldly ways. David knew that the ark should be carried only on the shoulders of the Levites, holy men set apart for that purpose; yet, instead of inquiring of the Lord, as was his usual custom, he consulted with his captains and leaders and, adopting the Philistine method, had a new cart made, on which they started to bring up the ark (I Chron. xv, 2: xiii, 1).

Then came trouble. The oxen stumbled; Uzzah, attempting to steady the ark, died; David was displeased with God, and the ark was placed in the house of Obed-edom, where it continued three months, bringing blessing to his household (verses 11, 12). Then David, realizing that the fault was his and that on the previous occasion they had not sought the Lord after the due order, had the priests and Levites sanctified to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel, and they bore it on their shoulders, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Lord (I Chron. xv, 13-15). The same Lord who dwelt in the midst of Israel lives now in every true believer (John xiv, 23; II Cor. vi, 16; I Cor. vi, 19, 20), that the world may know Him and believe on Him, and to this end He desires a willing and obedient people set apart wholly for Himself. All worldly conformity in the life of a believer or in the work of the church is like David's new cart, which can only make trouble and grieve the Spirit of God and dishonor God in the eyes of those who know Him not.

SOMEWHAT TOO SENSITIVE

A North Carolina Official Shot Himself Because of Adverse Political Criticism

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 1.—After telling some of his friends that he would rather die than live to hear the reports which some of his political opponents were circulating about him, W. Reagan Rice, registrar of deeds of Madison county, shot himself to death in a barn in the rear of his home near Marshall yesterday. Death was instantaneous. The deceased was elected to office on the Republican ticket two years ago. He was 38 years old and leaves a wife and one child.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Most Ocala People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Cure backache and all urinary ills. Mrs. W. R. Pell, of Third St., Sanford, Fla., says: "I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills taking in view what they have done for me. I have suffered from backache a great deal and at times was so lame that I could scarcely turn in bed. Some mornings my condition was such that I found it difficult to dress myself. Whenever I stooped, sharp pains would dart through my body, especially in the region of my kidneys. I also had some trouble from the too frequent action of the kidney secretions. After I had used several remedies with only slight benefit, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. I used them and they brought me the desired relief. I am now able to rest well at night, am free from pain and lameness, and feel stronger and better in every way." Plenty more proof like this from Ocala people. Call at Tydings & Co.'s drug store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PREACHER VERSUS PUGILIST

Rev. S. A. Dennis Thinks that if He Can Convert Battling Nelson He Can Capture the Town.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 3.—Rev. S. A. Dennis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Hegewish, yesterday started the temperance committee of the Rock River conference by saying that the salvation of Hegewish must be achieved through the conversion of "Battling" Nelson, champion lightweight pugilist of the world, who owns the place, body, soul and boots.

Pastor Dennis says "The Battler" is in the habit of tossing hundred-dollar bills into the saloons as he passes, so that his friends may celebrate. "If 'Battling Nelson' were to become a Methodist," he declared, "every man, woman and child in the place would forthwith join the church. I have prayed unremittingly for the conversion of 'the Battler.' I believe he is the most decent fellow that ever was in the prize-fighting business."

Mr. Dennis pointed out that if Nelson joined the church, with his remarkable tenacity of opinion and effort, he would be one of the most tremendous fighters in its ranks.

ST. JAMES MISSION

Services tomorrow: Holy communion, 7:30 o'clock. Morning prayer, litany and sermon, 11 o'clock. Sunday school, 3 o'clock. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. The text for the morning will be "Courage" and for the evening service, "Kindness." It is hoped that all of these services will be well attended.

The day school at St. James Mission is moving along very well. We have on the roll thirty-six pupils, and the promise of as many more. The charges are very small, compared to what your child receives. We charge 15 cents per week for the advanced scholars and 10 cents per week for the lower grades. Send your children to school and if you do not send them to me, send them to school some where. We have three colored schools here in Ocala, and yet the streets are full of youths, and what does that mean? For the future it means a great yield for the jail and hard road. Let each mother and father see to it if their children go to the bad, let it not be his or her fault. If you would not have this approach, then send your boys and girls to school.

Quite a number of papers and magazines have been sent to the Giles Memorial Reading Room from the Ocala Library. Come and look them over. We take this medium of thanking our friends for their kindness to us. You will find the room open at all hours of the day. J. B. Brown, Minister and Teacher.
