SHIPS RODE OUT THE STORM

Typhoon Lashed Manila Bay into Foam, But All the Battleships Are Safe

Manila, Oct. 6.—The Atlantic battleship fleet has safely outridden a hurricane which swept Manila bay for twelve hours and did much damage ashore.

Typhoon signals were displayed early Sunday morning, but the storm broke over the bay suddenly and unexpectedly at noon.

It was impossible to hoist the cutters and launches belonging to the fleet because of the danger of smashing them against the sides of the battleships, and the little craft were sent scurrying inside the breakwater in the Pasig river, where they remained all night.

The storm quickly increased in intensity until the torrential rains fell in the ships. At 8 o'clock Sunday night the storm had reached its height and it then gradually tapered down until midnight it was comparatively calm, although heavy seas swung across the harbor.

During the storm all the battleships had steam up ready for an emergency. Rear Admiral Sperry finally ordered the flagship Connecticut and the Kansas, Minnesota, Vermont, Virginia and Ohio under way. They were close to the breakwater and Admiral Sperry feared they might drag anchor. The six vessels steamed down close to Cavite, where they anchored.

At times the wind blew at the rate of 100 miles an hour. All communication with shore was cut off. It was impossible during the height of the storm to see the warships through the haze of rain and spray.

On shore it was dangerous to go about. Several carriages were overturned by the winds; trees were blown down, electric wires were prostrated and several buildings were unroofed.

SOLOMON THE SECOND

Who Reigns in Brooklyn, Delivers a Wise Decision Which Sets Him Back Five Dollars

E. Gaston Higginbotham is an alumnus of Harvard, who is rapidly acquiring fame as "The Solomon of Brooklyn." By reason of his personal attainments, augmented by a political pull, he is the police magistrate in the Gates avenue court. He first achieved notoriety through a decision from the bench to the effect that a fellow who kisses his sweetheart good-night at the front gate is not guilty of disorderly conduct. That decision made Magistrate Higginbotham the idol of all the lovers of Brooklyn borough. And now he has still further added to his fame. He has isolated the marital "grouch" germ and found a specific for it.

The other day there appeared in Magistrate Higginbotham's court a young husband and a young wife, aged 20 and 17 respectively. They had quarreled to the point where existence together appeared to be no longer possible. The husband had sworn that he would leave forever, and the wife had said she didn't care if he did. But the rent was coming due, and the wife wanted to know who was going to pay it. In the absence of a satisfactory answer, she had procured the arrest of her husband. "How long have you been married?" asked the "Solomon of Brooklyn." "One year, today," said the wife. "And you have quarreled, and are about to separate?" continued Solomon. "This will never do. Now, just you two sit over there on that bench for thirty minutes, right beside each other. Neither of you say a word, but try to think pleasant things of each other."

At the end of the half hour Magistrate Higginbotham addressed them. "Well, what do you think now?" said he. "We were only grouched," said the young wife. "I love him." "Yes," said the young husband, "it was only a case of grouch; I love her." "Then," said the magistrate to the husband, "take her out to the chair for a good time, and then be good and go home." "But, judge," broke in the young wife, "his dead broke. He hasn't got a cent." The magistrate dug down into his pocket, fished up a bill of money and placed it into the hand of the husband. "Later he told a court reporter: 'I have tried the silent treatment for marital grouch, and I find that it works excellently.' Then he paused, and his face was drawn. 'But,' he added, 'it has cost me $5.'"

Marital "grouch" is an ailment that is all too prevalent. A little silent treatment, a little reflection, a little consideration, will often cure a very bad case of it. But the Brooklyn "Solomon" hasn't yet quite settled in his mind why the case that he cured should have cost him $5.—Exchange.

COLORED DOLLS FOR COLORED CHILDREN

At its recent meeting in Lexington, Ky., the Colored National Baptist Association adopted a resolution favoring negro dolls for negro children. The action was wise. Its influence was in the direction of lightening the pressure of the race problem. Impressions made upon the minds of young children are the most lasting. A child and its playthings are very close companions. Their associations are of the most intimate and confidential character. If negro babies are familiarized with white dolls, very naturally they come to regard themselves as being on terms of perfect equality with the race represented by the white dolls. Infantile minds are incapable of making class and race distinctions. Practically every race and nationality has its distinctive dolls and manikins, except the negro. It is true that there are negro dolls, but invariably they are caricatures of the race and type, so that no negro child loves them. The Japanese, the English, the French, the Germans, the Dutch, the Esquimaux, the Indians, the Filipinos, the Hawaiians and others have dolls representing racial and national characteristics in features

It's a Good Solid Common Sense Policy

To use medicines only of KNOWN COMPOSITION, and which contain neither alcohol nor habit-forming drugs. It is foolish—often dangerous to do otherwise. The most intelligent people, and many of the most successful, conscientious physicians, follow this judicious course of action. The leading medical authorities, of all schools of medicine, endorse the ingredients composing Dr. Pierce's medicines. These are plainly printed on wrappers and attested under oath. There's no secrecy; an open publicity, square-deal policy is followed by the makers.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath.

We have a profound desire to avoid all offense to the most delicate sensitiveness of modest women, for whom we entertain the most sincere respect and admiration. We shall not, therefore, particularize here concerning the symptoms and peculiar ailments incident to the sex for which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has for more than 40 years proven such a boon. We cannot, however, do a better service to the afflicted of the gentler sex than to refer them to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a great family doctor book of 1000 pages, bound in cloth and given away gratis, or sent, post-paid, on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps—to cover cost of mailing only. All the delicate ailments and matters about which every woman, whether young or old, single or married, should know, but which their sense of delicacy makes them hesitate to ask even the family physician about, are made plain in this great book. Write for it.

HOW TO CURE A COLD

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. R. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

TEDDY WON'T TAKE THE STUMP FOR TAFT

Washington, Oct. 6.—"President Roosevelt has no intention at present of taking the stump in behalf of Taft," is the way in which the persistent reports to the effect that the president would make a speaking tour in behalf of Judge Taft are now denied at the White House.

The latest story on the subject is that received by William J. Bryan stating that the president intended taking the stump and was planning to make at least six speeches during a tour across the country which was to terminate at San Francisco.
