DEALERS IN

By an order issued by the local board of trade, the combination of all the necessary establishments, including gas and electric supply, with the local board of trade, has been declared legal by law, and the board of trade is constituted the official body of the town. The board of trade is empowered to regulate the conduct of the town, and to make and enforce all such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the protection of the town.

The board of trade is composed of seven members, five of whom are appointed by the mayor and two of whom are elected by the town, and the board of trade is to hold its meetings at least once a month.

The board of trade has the power to make contracts for the purchase of property for the town, and to sell or lease the same, and to make such improvements as may be necessary for the betterment of the town.

The board of trade is also empowered to make all other necessary regulations for the good order and government of the town.
