TENTS WERE JUST LARGE ENOUGH FOR TWO

Kansas City Man, After Many Days, Became Tired of the Games Played in His Home

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 15.—E. J. Richards' $100,000 damage suit against Jno. C. Humes, for alleged alienation of Mrs. Richards' affections, will not be sent to trial. Richards' attorney has announced that the case will be left on the docket for awhile and then will be dropped.

Since the suit was filed and depositions were taken Richards failed in business as a hat manufacturer and retired, while Humes became a bankrupt, sold his crockery stock to satisfy his creditors and now is traveling somewhere in South America.

The suit was filed last April, and the testimony given by Richards, when the depositions were taken, covered Kansas City business and social circles. Richards then was president of the Ginger Club, an East Twelfth street business men's organization, and was well known about town.

He testified to a series of remarkable "parties" given at Humes' home and at his own residence. The guests usually were Mr. and Mrs. Richards, Humes and a widow, whom Richards called "Checks," because of the fancy stockings she usually wore, and which he said she took pride in displaying.

Richards said that Mrs. Richards' conduct of these occasions led him to consider her the champion kisser of the world.

He testified that she would sit on a couch for hours with Humes, kissing and caressing him.

"It was enough to make a man sick," he declared.

He told also of some peculiar games that were played at these parties. One was called "Indian Tents" and made of the rug, he said, and the guests turned out the parlor lights and took up a temporary residence under the "tents," which were just large enough for two.

There was another game that Richards didn't fancy much. It consisted of being locked out of his own room by Humes and Mrs. Richards. They called this "Old Man Out."

The last straw came, he said, when Humes sent Mrs. Richards a copy of "Three Weeks." That broke up housekeeping. Mrs. Richards sued for divorce, alleging that her husband had struck her.

WORLD'S PHOSPHATE SUPPLY

All owners of Florida phosphate mines will be interested in the following from the Paint, Oil and Drug Review (Chicago):

"If any idea has prevailed that the phosphate deposits of the world are in danger of becoming exhausted it should be dismissed at once, and probably for all time. In view of the discoveries of inexhaustible beds of fertilizer in the islands of the South Pacific. These phosphate beds are controlled chiefly by English and French companies, Japanese and native laborers. The bulk of the shipments go to Europe and Asia, and amount to 300,000 tons a year. Imports of phosphates into the United States are only about 25,000 tons annually. This, however, is due to the fact that the United States is a great producer of phosphates from her South Carolina and Florida deposits. Our exports of phosphate amounts to 100,000 tons a month, of which a large part goes to Germany to be made into superior phosphate. Algeria is the next rival of the United States in the German market, furnishing less than half as much.

"The South Pacific deposits above referred to are found on various islands of coral formation. Among them is one deposit of superior quality estimated at 50,000,000 tons, and another at 10,000,000 tons. These are mentioned as beds of the highest grade phosphate; numerous other fertile deposits have been discovered, and search is being made continually for new fields.

"The coral islands of the South seas are the most likely places for deposits of phosphates. There are thousands of these islands, some of them only a few square miles in area. The work of prospecting, therefore, is endless, and the possibility of finding new supplies of phosphates is practically unlimited."

A JEWELER'S EXPERIENCE

C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1050 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache, stopped the irregularities, disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies failed. OPENING A NEW RAILROAD

The Georgia and Florida railroad between Madison, Florida and Hazlehurst, Georgia, opened for business this week.

The first passenger train brought 650 excursionists into Valdosta from towns between Hazlehurst and that point.

The opening of the new railroad line, giving at present a continuous highway from Western Florida thro' Valdosta, Nashville, Douglas and other prosperous towns to Hazlehurst, with intermediate connections with important railroads, is considered a most important event. The work of extension of the line beyond Hazlehurst to a connection with its Millen division is rapidly progressing and likewise a union with its Augusta division. The completion of the road has opened up one of the best sections in Southern Georgia, abounding in fine timber and farm lands and putting this city in touch with many of the most prosperous towns in the southern part of the state.

FOR SORE FEET

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the preparation for all sores. "Try it." Sold under guarantee at all drugstores, 25c.

SPARR

Clearing up lettuce ground is the order of the day.

As election day is nearing the people are talking about who will be the next President of the United States. Miss Maude Clemmons, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Henry, has gone to Hollister for a few days' visit. We hope them a pleasant trip. Mr. D. L. Grantham has been ill for the past few days, but is recovering. His daughter, Miss May, has also been ill. We hope her a speedy recovery.

The farmers have harvested their pinders and report a good crop. Messrs. Hooker and Boyl, successful farmers of this place, have purchased the market of Bill Hozans in Ocala and will sell vegetables, chickens, beef, etc.

The young people of Sparr enjoyed a pleasant evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Clemmons last Friday evening, where a party was given in honor of Mrs. L. J. Grantham of Tampa, who has been visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grantham. She was unexpectedly called home, and we were very sorry she could not be with us. Every one present seemed to have a grand time as Taddy Bears were in evidence of a most delicious supper.

I wonder what has become of the farmers' union which was so flourishing a month or so ago.

We have a new merchant, Mr. Lambert, who is doing business in the building formerly occupied by Mr. E. R. Simmons. We hope him much success in his new enterprise.

Mr. John Carlton and Miss Mathews of Pine were in our burg Sunday evening.

Wonder how the young man is feeling who lost his heart as he was leaving the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday night. Mr. Stanley and B. Y. P. U. are progressing nicely under the leadership of Mr. G. F. Young, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. A. J. Stephens, president of the B. Y. P. U.

Mrs. Charles Thomas and son, Mr. P. Thomas, left Tuesday for Laurel Hill, where they will make their future home with Mrs. Thomas' daughter, Mrs. W. L. Martin. They are greatly missed in our burg, but we wish them much success in their new home.

Mrs. Emily Webb and little son of Anthony, are visiting relatives at this place for a few days.

School is progressing nicely under the leadership of Miss Emil Hallford of Electra. She has an enrollment of forty pupils from five years to eighteen.

The Sparr baseball team went to play the mill team near Anthony last Saturday afternoon, but was disappointed, not finding them there.

Dengue fever has been raging around here. Miss Jessie Owens has just gotten up from it.

Following is the program for the B. Y. P. U. Oct. 19, 1908. Subject, "The Holy and Living God Has a Right to be Sovereign." Leader, Miss Jennie Boyles. Song by society. Prayer—Mr. W. Luffman. Scripture reading—Noah Clemmons, Ray Luffman, Harmon Clemmons, Miss Maudie, Maude Clemmons. Song—Society. Reading—Miss Emil Hallford. Recitation—Ruth Young. Song—Society. Essay—Mr. Frank Luffman. Address—Mrs. A. J. Stephens. Song. Dismissal by repeating Lord's Prayer in concert. Cracker.

Music, games, etc., were enjoyed till a late hour when light refreshments were served. All departed for their homes expressing themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening.

Mr. J. J. Guthery is moving into his new residence today (Thursday). C. I. Grace has a touch of dengue this week, as also Mr. Elles.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richey will regret to know that they have moved from here, Mr. Richey having accepted a position at an electric phosphate plant near Plant City. Mr. Clifford Livingston will

Eat What

You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

MURRAH FOR CORN

A new disease, pellagra, is declared to be due to unsound corn in the diet of its victims. This is evidently a dodge to lessen the consumption of corn by human beings in the South, in many families of which it is the mainstay of life, in order that the producers of hogs in the northwest may get their feed cheaper. They convert that feed into bacon, which reaches the Florida consumer at a price of 25 cents a pound. We think the bacon makers should be satisfied with that, and not undertake to scare us away from the consumption of corn which costs from 2 to 3 cents per pound.

This is a case in which the Times will wait for further figures on pellagra and its fatality before it assumes to speak for the public, but so far as it is directly concerned it will go calmly on, consuming corn cakes for breakfast and corn pone, with its boiled dinner and corn egg bread lined with butter and paired with milk for its frugal evening repast. We do not know what others may do, nor will we wait to see, but as for us, forever give us corn in all its various excellent shapes of ministration to the human demand for sustenance, as against the brand of semi-starvation which has turned the ignorant and unhappy North into a desert of cereals and bran dust—that habitation of wheat-stonette and wheat briquette and letherette and pelline and pickally and a thousand other well advertised abominations and deceptions masquerading as foods at fancy prices, bringing dyspepsia and financial stringency in their pathway.

The Times stands up for good old honest cornmeal—water ground preferred—as man's best and most faithful, though humblest, friend in keeping his frame vigorous and healthy, his blood red, his digestion active, his muscle firm, his brain clear, his temper smooth, his nerve reliable, and the whole man altogether manly and manful. Beware of imitations and substitutes.—Tampa Times.
