BASED ON THE BEDROCK

William J. Bryan's Estimate of the Vote that Will Land Him in the White House

New York, Oct. 20.—A Lincoln (Neb.) dispatch to the Herald says: The prospect of his election to the presidency as viewed from the standpoint of William J. Bryan, is here given for the first time. It represents an ultra-conservative analysis of the actual situation as viewed from the Bryan standpoint today, and embodies the judgment of men who are closest to the candidate. The forecast takes no account of the possibility of a Bryan landslide, which many of his intimates believe is impending.

It will be observed that this "bed-rock" estimate gives to Mr. Bryan confidently the 186 votes of the "Solid South," which includes the eight votes of Maryland and the eighteen votes of Missouri. It also gives to him only twenty-one electors west of the Missouri river, being those of Nebraska, 8; Colorado, 5; Montana, 3; and Nevada, 3. Thus he is given, "from dead," 185 of the 242 electoral votes necessary for his election. This leaves the Democratic candidate fifty-seven shy of the goal. Beyond the shadow of a doubt, it is believed by his friends here, he will get both Wisconsin and Indiana, bringing his assured strength in the Electoral College up to 213, or twenty-nine short of the required number. Reduced to a table these figures show:

| | |
|-------------|-----|
| Solid South | 186 |
| Nebraska | 8 |
| Wisconsin | 13 |
| Indiana | 15 |
| Colorado | 5 |
| Montana | 3 |
| Nevada | 3 |
| Total | 213 |

Where Will They Come From?

Friends who have discussed the subject with Mr. Bryan within the last few days are divided in opinion as to where the needed twenty-nine votes are most sure to come from. All of them express a higher degree of confidence in Ohio than New York. Should he win New York and lose Ohio, holding to what has been given him, the presidency would be his, with ten votes to spare; but should he lose the Empire State he would carry Ohio, he would still lack six votes. According to the matured judgment of some of his best informed intimates who themselves have carefully investigated the matter, he is as sure of carrying Kansas as he is of Nebraska. With Kansas' ten votes added to Ohio's twenty-three there would be a surplus of four Bryan votes in the Electoral College. The weight of opinion here touching this combination is that the chances are more favorable for Kansas joining Ohio in a revolt against the old alliance than there is in New York doing so.

Many of the candidate's closest friends in Nebraska, as elsewhere in the West, talk as if they would be peculiarly gratified if he should win the contest without receiving a single electoral vote east of Maryland. They contend that this would administer a salutary lesson to the East and would result in a rearrangement of what they allege to be alliances in that section between great financial interests and parties and factions that are unreasonably hostile to Mr. Bryan. Under the arrangement believed to be probable the Bryan vote is thus expressed in tabulated form:

| | |
|------------------|-----|
| Solid South | 186 |
| West of Missouri | 19 |
| Wisconsin | 13 |
| Indiana | 15 |
| Ohio | 23 |
| Kansas | 10 |
| Total | 246 |

How Doubtful States Are Classified

Of the doubtful states the Bryan estimates make these tabulations:

| | |
|------------------------------------|----|
| Doubtful (strong leaning to Bryan) | 23 |
| Ohio | 23 |
| Kansas | 10 |
| Total | 33 |

Doubtful (leaning to Taft).

| | |
|-----------|----|
| Illinois | 27 |
| Minnesota | 11 |
| Idaho | 3 |
| Oregon | 4 |
| Total | 45 |

Strictly doubtful:

| | |
|--------------|----|
| New York | 39 |
| South Dakota | 4 |
| North Dakota | 4 |
| Total | 47 |

A MIRACLE OF SURGERY

Olivet, Mich., Oct. 20.—Although both his lower limbs were almost completely severed from his body last July, the 4-year-old son of Peter Horn, a farmer living near here, is already able to take a few steps, and the physicians say that in a few weeks more he will be able to walk. The child was playing in a field where his father was harvesting wheat. He got in the way of the machine and the sharp-edged knives cut fearful gashes in both limbs just below the knees. The bones of both legs were completely severed and the limbs hung by shreds of flesh. It was thought that both limbs would have to be amputated, but it was finally decided to set the bones and encase the limbs in a plaster paris cast. This was done and the bones began to knit and the wounds to heal. Now, although one limb is still kept secured with splints it is only a question of time when only the ugly scars will remain to remind the little fellow of his narrow escape.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's family Pills for constipation.

GAVE HIS LIFE TO SAVE THE CHILD

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 20.—It develops that William Wene, aged 50, a freight conductor on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, lost his life in order to save the life of his grandson, aged 3 years.

When the train reached Mt. Vernon, the little grandson was taken down to the railroad to see Wene. Wene was seated in the caboose with the boy in his lap and saw an approaching train from the rear, and in an instant the engine had crashed into the caboose.

Wene threw the child out of the window, but was unable to escape himself. After lingering several hours, Wene died of his injuries and the body was brought here.

SERVIANS CAUGHT A SPY

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 20.—A new and startling war menace arose yesterday in the arrest of an Austrian army officer by the Servian authorities who claim the officer is a spy. The Austrian minister demanded the officer's immediate release and threatened to call on the Austrian gunboats in the Danube to enforce the demands with the ship's guns. The situation is so serious that many foreign residents are sending their families out of the country.

RAISING A REGIMENT

Many Servians in New York Enlisting to Fight for Their Fatherland

New York, Oct. 20.—To raise a regiment of stout Servians from the colony of Slavonians who for years has thickly populated their own quarter in this cosmopolitan city, is being seriously begun. Finest among these swarthy compatriots have come to believe that the hour is near when their country will need their blows and blood on its side of the difficulty with Austria and no time is being lost in actively enlisting volunteers for real fighting service. Already a hundred of the Servian colony are said to be drafted and drilling for war, and hundreds more of these fiery patriots are today holding a rally for recruits. No spot on the globe can be affected, it would seem, without strong reflex action upon this city of all nations.

WILL EXCEL THE WORLD

In Hospitality—Japan's Reception to the American Fleet the Most Elaborate and Beautiful Ever Known

Tokio, Oct. 20.—The first item in the reception to the Americans of the Pacific battleship fleet, was the departure of Admiral Sperry and admirals and captains of the fleet from anchorage in Yokohama harbor to Tokio, as the Associated Press is assured that the return of Admiral Togo to Tokio after his great victory of the Sea of Japan did not arouse as great enthusiasm as was manifested when the American officers entered the city yesterday.

The American naval officers say their reception exceeds anything experienced on the long cruise, but the Japanese say the reception has hardly begun. The ovation was continuing along the entire eighteen miles, American and Japanese flags flying everywhere. The feature of the day was the singing of the national hymn in English by 10,000 school children. One thousand sailors will be brought on a special train daily to Tokio, where every form of entertainment will be provided for them.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many an Ocala Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of readers.

Edward Gravel, living on Lemon St., Palatka, Fla., says: "For several months my back had been causing me considerable misery. I also had a lameness across my loins, and there was a dull aching through my kidney regions, almost constantly. It was hard for me to walk and when I sat down for a little while I would become so stiff that it was only with great difficulty that I was able to rise. If I stooped to pick up anything, sharp twinges would pass through my loins, and cause me the greatest misery. I had often heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, and finally procured a box. Their use banished the lameness and soreness and made me feel ten years younger. If my recommendation will be the means of bringing relief to any persons suffering from kidney trouble, you are welcome to use it."

Evans, of the battleship Louisiana, who recently was court-martialed on a charge of absenting himself from his post while officer of the deck, disrespect to his superior officer and intoxication, was found guilty of the two former charges. Rear Admiral Sperry received the papers while the battleships were at Manila and has just announced his verdict. The sentence pronounced provides that Lieutenant Evans shall lose 150 numbers and be publicly reprimanded.

FRIEND OF THE UNFORTUNATE

Was Lewis Chanler, Now Candidate for Governor of New York

New York, Oct. 20.—Right in the heart of the grim old criminal court building, where hundreds of souls are daily turned to prison terms or liberty, there has penetrated the most vital interest that a campaign of the outside state has ever roused among the officials and subjects of the law. To thousands of the court officials and the poor who must seek justice here, the memory of young Chanler and his years of championing the friendless plaintiffs at the bar has kept fresh. The veteran newspaper man who still seeks stories from the daily grind of the courts are talking of the palmy days when the voluntary representation of ragged unfortunates by this youthful counsel was always good for the best of human interest yards. To see the vigorous Mr. Chanler strip off his fur coat and clap it on the back of some shivering subject for whom he had won justice in court was worth all the other sights and sounds of the gloomy old building, they declare. Life and death and liberty are usually the prime interests in this castle for sentence and acquittal, and it is seldom that the support of other causes enters in so warmly.

TAXICAB STRIKE IS A TERROR

Acts of Violence an Hourly Occurrence in New York City

New York, Oct. 20.—Since the days of the draft riots this city has been never nearer to mob rule and violence than it stands today, while feeble efforts are being made to crush the deadly outbreak of the taxicab strike. Bombs, pistol shots and the incendiary's torch have terrorized the public each day of the last week in every part of this island and now it has become a constant danger to walk the streets anywhere within hail of the many motor stations besieged by the ruffians who lately manied their wheels. Squads of detectives, armed and active, are lining the curbs and entrances of every hotel and restaurant in town, the hope of averting the hourly attacks of the strikers who have already left their mark on life, limb and property everywhere. That even these emergency measures on the part of the police have failed to check this widespread violence is regarded as a serious menace to law and order in the metropolis. It is many a year since Gotham has been made to look like a raw mining camp, and everyone is heartily ashamed of this public exhibition of the sad lack of evidence of civilization.

STUART WAS ANGRY

Richmond, Va., Oct. 20.—Called a "grafter" by a man to whom he refused admission to the Fair Grounds here while in a carriage, Henry C. Stuart, president of the State Fair Association and candidate for Governor, soundly thrashed his defamer.

Mr. Stuart knocked the man down, but he got up to a running start and at last accounts was still covering ground in record-breaking style.
