WHAT BRYAN MUST HAVE TO WIN

It Will Take a Landslide to Elect Him; But the Landslide Will Probably Be Forthcoming

(New York World.)

Nine days before the campaign the managers of all political parties agree that Mr. Bryan cannot be elected President of the United States without the thirty-nine electoral votes of New York State. Mr. Taft can get the requisite 242 votes without New York; but to do so he must land Ohio and Indiana, or either Ohio with West Virginia, Nebraska and Maryland.

Ohio has twenty-three votes, Indiana fifteen and Maryland and Nebraska eight votes and West Virginia seven. Both sides are supremely confident of carrying enough of the aggregate of one hundred votes accredited to these six so-called "doubtful" states to win. At present the concessions of party managers justify this line-up of the various states:

For Bryan—Alabama, 11 votes; Arkansas, 9; Colorado, 5; Idaho, 3; Florida, 5; Georgia, 12; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 9; Mississippi, 10; Missouri, 18; Montana, 3; Nevada, 3; North Carolina, 12; Oklahoma, 7; South Carolina, 8; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 18; Utah, 3; Virginia, 12, and Wyoming, 3. Total, 178.

For Taft—California, 10; Connecticut, 7; Delaware, 3; Illinois, 27; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 9; Massachusetts, 16; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 11; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 12; North Dakota, 4; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 34; Rhode Island, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 5, and Wisconsin, 13. Total, 205.

Doubtful—Indiana, 15; Maryland, 8; Nebraska, 8; New York, 39; Ohio, 23, and West Virginia, 7. Total, 190. Factors Which Will Decide the Fight. The Republican managers claim to hold New York, Ohio and Indiana "safe." If their prediction is correct Mr. Taft will be elected. The Democrats are equally vehement in their declaration that New York, Ohio, Nebraska, Maryland and West Virginia are "safe" for Mr. Bryan. They are less sanguine of Indiana than of the other states, though they say that they have a "fighting chance" in that state.

The reasons for the confidence in Mr. Taft's election, as advanced by the Republican managers, can be set down as follows:

1. The contribution of enough money to carry on a successful campaign in the "doubtful" states, and $400,000 said to be available for Indiana and Ohio alone.
2. The change of front of several big railroad systems and other important industrial enterprises, which had declared their neutrality in the early stages of the campaign.
3. The extensive use of Federal and state patronage in the "doubtful" states, particularly New York and Ohio, where the full pressure of the administrations, both national and state, is being exercised in the interest of the Republican ticket.
4. Disappearance of the "suits" among Republican leaders in New York and Ohio.
5. The revival of business in Western factories and the promise of continued operation in the event of Mr. Taft's election.

Democratic Hopes

The Democrats base their confidence on these grounds:

1. The protest against Rooseveltism.
  2. Dependence on the labor vote, 90 per cent of which is believed by the Democratic managers to be for Mr. Bryan.
  3. The belief of the Democratic managers that the great army of the unemployed, estimated at 1,400,000, will vote for Mr. Bryan.
  4. The united condition of the party in all of the "doubtful" states.
  5. The failure of the Independence and Socialist parties to break the ranks of the Democratic party.
- The full high power batteries of both parties will be trained on New York, beginning tomorrow, and many hundreds of thousands of words will be fired at the voters of the Empire State every day until the wind-up next Saturday night. Mr. Bryan will head the Democratic corps of artillerymen and Mr. Taft will be the chief projectile operator of the Republicans.

Mr. Bryan will have the assistance and co-operation of a dozen Senators, two score of Congressmen and the most persuasive orators of his party. Mr. Taft will be reinforced by most of the members of the Roosevelt Cabinet (and perhaps the President himself), a score of Senators, fifty Congressmen, Gov. Hughes and stars of the second and third and fourth rank without number.

It is estimated that on Wednesday 9,000 spellbinders of all degrees and political complexions will be in full cry after the 1,000,000 voters in various parts of the state. Many bands will churn out patriotic airs, much red fire will be burned and more spectacular effects introduced than during the preceding three months of the campaign.

Some Side Shows

The chief interest will, of course, center about the operations of the Republicans and Democrats, but there will be lots of side-show features—Mr. Hearst and his Independence party, with perhaps a few more disturbing confidential letters of the Standard Oil brand; the Socialists concentrating their batteries on the unemployed and discontented dwellers on the east side; the Prohibitionists with their unique cart-tail campaign; the People's party, with Thomas E. Watson at its head, and the Socialist Labor party whose candidate for President, Mr. Martin R. Preston is serving a term in a Nevada jail and who is represented on the electoral ticket by a proxy.

There is no dearth of figures. Both sides have canvassed, polled, straw-voted, card-indexed and estimated, with the result that nobody has really

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. 75c. Take Hall's family Pills for constipation.

BRINGING IN THE BANDITS

Over Three-Score of the Tennessee Night Riders Now in Custody

Camp Nemo, Reel Foot, Tenn., Oct. 27.—Fourteen more prisoners were brought into camp yesterday in connection with recent night rider outrages in this section. This makes a total of sixty-one prisoners now in custody here.

As an illustration of the temper of the people in this section, a Sunday when one of the prisoners now in camp was taken, is of interest. The prisoner's wife came to the gate as the party headed by Capt. Rogan passed and said: "Thank God, the time has come when I can get what I know you've got a man there," she said, pointing to the wagon load of prisoners, "who is one of the ring leaders; he came to my house and held a pistol on me and I'm going to tell what I know." The woman will be summoned before the grand jury.

SWEARING BY SIGNS

A Georgia Deaf Mute Almost Cursed His Hands Off When He Learned He Had Been Jilted

Atlanta, Oct. 28.—While Rev. Thomas E. McCutcheon was preaching in his pulpit in the Jones Avenue Baptist church Sunday morning two deaf mutes, S. B. Dickerson, quarry foreman, from Lithonia, and Miss Lucile N. Jackson, of that place, appeared in the church door and began to talk to him in sign language.

The congregation saw the minister making signs and did not know for some minutes or two what had happened to him. They soon found out when the bride and groom, as they proved to be, went forward while the minister stopped his service to marry them, which he did in the finger language.

No one thought much about the unusual feature of the occurrence until the sequel was learned yesterday. Henry Norris, another deaf mute, was waiting at the young lady's home at that very moment to wed her, and a preacher had gone there for that purpose. Her family had consented and Norris also thought he had the young lady's consent, but he miscalculated. While he was waiting she ran away with Dickerson and the two went to the first preacher they could reach, stopped his sermon and were married. Norris had already bought a lot of furniture and prepared for married life. It is reported he says some things on his fingers at which the deaf and dumb colony were shocked.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

I wish to announce to the public that I am a candidate for the office of justice of the peace for district No. 1, to be voted for at the general election, Tuesday, November 3rd, 1908, in place of the regular Democratic nominee, Mr. Bishop, who has recently died. I respectfully ask the support of the voters.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

By petition my name has been certified by the county commissioners for the office of justice of the peace for the Ocala district. The support of my friends is solicited.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

I hereby announce myself a candidate for justice of the peace for district No. 1, and your support will be highly appreciated.

TAFT'S SILLY TALK

New Haven, Oct. 28.—"The only way Mr. Bryan ever influenced the return of prosperity was by being beaten. That is the way he has brought on prosperity every time and I hope the same method will be continued."

This was William Howard Taft's first message to Connecticut yesterday delivered to a crowd which greeted his special train at Stamford. The crowd showed its approval.

SOLUTION SHOULD BE LEFT TO THE SOUTH

Opinion of Charles Francis Adams of Massachusetts on the Race Problem

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—A Richmond dispatch to the Herald reports a speech by Charles Francis Adams, of Boston, Massachusetts, a Northern soldier, and a descendant of President John Adams, dealing with politics and the negro question, in which Mr. Adams asserted that solution of the race problem must be worked out in the South, and that any intervention by outside influences will tend only to confusion, suffering and harm.

He said, in part: "In the invitation which brought me here it is stated that the race question has in Virginia been solved in a manner which insures the supremacy of intelligence, gives to people of all races a fair opportunity to work out their destiny upon their merits, and offers a just reward to good citizenship."

"These are words of cheer. That they are justified by the facts of the case, I sincerely and devoutly hope. "Since Lincoln issued his epoch-making proclamation, the African has thus passed through his full period of probation. Already the third generation of freedom is coming forward, and from this time on it is but reasonable to demand of those composing it that they work out their own destiny."

"It is for the Afro-American, as for the American descendant of the Celt, the Slav, or others to shape his own future, accepting the common lot of mankind. He must not ask to be held up, or protected from outside, in so doing."

"Again, while, as I have already said, the essence of the race problem is the peaceful common occupancy of the same territory by people of two widely differing races, a certain responsibility rests on us of the North, and especially us of New England. While with a clear conscience as to goodness of our intentions, we do not, in view of actual results, stand there with clean hands. The reconstruction policy of the Confederacy was worse than a crime; it was a political blunder, as ungenerous as it was gross.

"Looking, therefore, into the future, illumined by the strong searchlight of the past, of one thing only do I feel assured. The solution of this problem must be worked out in the South, and while its solution will be attended with infinite difficulty, and loud and reiterated calls for sympathy and aid from without, I am satisfied that in the future as in the past any external intervention of a political character will tend only to confusion, suffering and harm.

"And upon this conclusion I am satisfied the mind of the North is rapidly crystallizing. The recent terrible experience in Springfield, Ill., should satisfy us that there is Christianizing work for us at home. So I fully concur in the conclusions of one of the most hopeful as well as thoughtful of your Southern students of this problem, expressed in a recently published volume, which I devoutly wish all my Northern friends would prayerfully study.

"Writing in Mississippi, and from the heart of the black belt, Mr. Alfred Holt Stuart, quoting Speaker T. Washington, says: 'My own belief is, although I have never before said so in so many words, that the time will come when the negro in the South will be accorded all the political rights which his ability, character, and material possessions entitle him to. I think, though, that the opportunity to freely exercise such political rights will not come in any large degree through outside or artificial forcing, but will be accorded to the negro by the Southern white people themselves, and that they will protect him in the exercise of those rights.'

"Referring to politics, Mr. Adams asked what would happen if Virginia would vote for Taft, and, answering the question himself, he said the Republicans would give it anything it asked for, and in future the Democrats would let the state dictate policies, as it did in days of yore.

The speaker took a shot at Senator Tillman, who, he said, he never admired. He also declared that Taft was preferable to Bryan to fill the presidential chair.

Mr. Adams, who claims to be an Independent Democrat, is here at the invitation of the "Taft Democrats" and Republicans. His speech was made in the interest of Judge Taft's candidacy and in delivering his long political address, advocating the O'Hagan's election, he touched upon the negro question—a problem he claims to have given much study.

HONEST JOHN IS DEAD

He Once Refused a Bribe of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 28.—The death of ex-Gov. John Miller of North Dakota here yesterday recalls the famous fight against the Louisiana lottery in North Dakota.

Mr. Miller led the fight against the lottery and the story is told that a representative of the lottery came into Mr. Miller's office and laid down a suit case containing $250,000.

"That is yours if you will permit the lottery to enter North Dakota," said Mr. Miller, and threw him out of the office.

They called him "Honest" John Miller in North Dakota. His fight against the lottery was redoubled after that.

BURCH MAY SELL BEER

A Decision that May Cause Considerable Trouble in Georgia

Atlanta, Oct. 28.—One of the most interesting decisions in connection with the prohibition law came from the court of appeals yesterday in the case of J. M. Burch vs. the City of Ocala, Irwin county.

Burch, who is a Confederate veteran, opened a near beer emporium in Ocala, despite the fact that the town council had passed an ordinance putting a $2,000 license on near beer places, which was thought to be prohibitive.

Burch, who was convicted of violating the ordinance, claimed exemption under the law on the ground that he was a Confederate veteran. The court of appeals overrules the conviction and upholds the ordinance made by Burch, declaring that a Confederate veteran is privileged under the law to engage, free of license, in any business not prohibited by law.

The effect of this decision will be to render nugatory, and of no effect all similar ordinances seeking to impose prohibitory taxes on the near beer business, and also considerably to diminish the state's prospective revenue from near beer, should the tax act in question be upheld by the courts.

MRS. BRYAN'S FIRST SPEECH

New York, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Bryan made her first speech of the campaign here yesterday at a reception tendered her by the Woman's Democratic Club. She said it was a family relic of the Bryans that Mr. Bryan should do the talking during the campaign. Mrs. Bryan also stated that she concluded twenty-five years ago to merge her ambitions with Mr. Bryan's, which has caused close associations.
