We learn through the Punta Gorda Herald that Claude L'Engle, of the late Tallahassee Sun, has made his peace with Editor Stovall of the Tribune and Peter O. Knight, the corporation attorney and their differences were settled the other night over a very excellent menu.

Mr. E. L. Hutchinson of Jacksonville president of the E. L. Hutchinson Choe Co., has been in this section for several days making the rounds with the company's Central Florida salesman, Mr. C. E. Winston, and calling on their customers.

Mr. J. M. Cordery of Coleman, and one of its substantial citizens, was in town yesterday and reports there will be a big cabbage crop this season and that more commission house agents and produce dealers have visited that section already this year to make contracts for the crop than ever before in the history of the place.

Mr. Jules Cohen has returned from his visit to the north and his rosy cheeks and the sparkle in his eyes tell of the splendid health he is enjoying.

Miss Wanda Z. Combs of Apopka, who won the gold medal at the state W. C. T. U. contest, said she was just in love with Ocala and is sure to come back to see us.

Dr. Porter Pillans returned yesterday from Jacksonville, where with sixty-odd other young doctors, including two ladies, he took the medical examination. He was on his way to Hernando.

William M. Russell, editor of that excellent paper, the Brooksville Argus, has taken possession of the Coffee County (Ga.) News as editor and proprietor. Mr. Russell is a very capable young man and will make a success in his new field of labor.

Allen Bridges and Asher Frank, of the John B. Martin Hardware Co. and Boston Store, respectively, are always up to snuff and to add interest to the west side of the square put up railroad wreck sale signs and proclaimed that they had the same goods for less money.

Miss Claudia Miller a well known teacher throughout the state, arrived Sunday night and has accepted a position in the Manatee county high school as instructor in Latin. Miss Miller is located for the winter in the home of Mrs. White Turner on Prospect avenue—Bradentown Cor. in the Times-Union.

Miss Miller was formerly one of the teachers of the higher grades in the Ocala High School and has many friends in Ocala.

Among the special attractions at the Globe's 10-day sale is a d'Oilo portrait given free with cash purchases of $15 or more. These portraits, unframed, cannot be secured for less than $3 to $5 elsewhere. Here is a grand opportunity to secure goods at rock bottom prices, and a portrait free.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Edwin Spencer, who was brought to Ocala by his mother from Stetson University at DeLand, very sick, is improving.

Alex Moorhead, county surveyor, will go to Fairfield Monday to do some surveying for the Fairfield Naval Stores Co.

Harvis Calhoun, of Bartow, took the teachers' examination in Supt. W. D. Carr's office this morning. He will assume the position vacated by Jas. A. Smith, at Howard Academy.

For some time the Ocala News Co. has been trying to get a good view of the courthouse, and now it has succeeded in getting one. The view is the latest thing in that line.

Herbert W. Jones, secretary and treasurer of the Marion Hardware Co., has returned from Jacksonville, where he met his mother and cousin, Miss Whitney, who returned with him to Ocala.

Masters Robert Anderson and Carlisle Izlar went down to Holder yesterday afternoon to enjoy a day's hunting.

Mrs. W. F. Yocum, who was here to attend the W. C. T. U. convention and a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Will T. Gary, returned home yesterday afternoon.

THE OSCEOLA ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Osceola Athletic Association will accept our thanks for a copy of its constitution and by-laws. It tells of an excellent movement for the betterment, physically, mentally and morally of all the boys over ten and all the men of Ocala, who can see it in the proper light and belong to the association and partake of all the good things in store for them.

Any person contributing $10 upon entering the association shall become a member in good standing for one year. The initiation fee for those who do not wish to pay the $10 entrance fee is $2.50, and the dues for a person over eighteen years of age shall be $1 per month; under that age, 50 cents.

The benefits consist of a well equipped gymnasium, baths, etc., as well as the free use of the public library, which is located in the same building. Under appointed leaders classes will be organized to discuss political, social and economical questions. It will be a clean place for boys and men to spend their spare moments and leisure hours.

It is a good thing and we trust it will be well sustained. Its usefulness is recognized at a glance and its prosperity will redound to the credit of Ocala. Its board of directors constitute seventeen of the leading citizens of our town. Its executive committee consists of L. W. Duval, president; E. C. Bennett, vice president; Royal E. Cole secretary; A. E. Gerig, treasurer, and C. W. Hunter, superintendent.

Keep this commendable institution in mind and give it a helping hand whenever you can. If you have a boy enter him in its ranks and go yourself.

MR. TROXLER MAKES SOME IMPROVEMENTS

Now that Mr. T. W. Troxler has completed the improvements in his place it looks very inviting. The glass floor show cases add greatly to the appearance of the store, while the removal of the ice cream parlor from the rear to the front of the store will be more convenient for his customers. The shelving in the store has been rebuilt, new paper placed on the walls and the entire interior of the store has been re-painted, presenting a very neat and clean appearance.

BULWER LYTTON.

He Was a Grottesque Figure According to This Picture.

The late Dr. Edward Vaughan Keane, who appeared as counsel for the Tichborne claimant, was well acquainted with many of the celebrities of his time. In the memoirs which his daughter has published there are some piquant passages. Here is what he had to say in his diary about Bulwer Lytton:

"Dined tonight with the lord chief justice, Lord Houghton, Bulwer Lytton and other senators and ladies. Bulwer Lytton is a clown. He was shabbily dressed and sidled into the room with slouching air and gait. He held his hat in his hand as though about to drop it and looked as though he did not know what to do with his legs. He gaped, his eye was lacklustered, and he said nothing. It is almost impossible to believe he wrote the works which pass under his name. His wife says he did not write them. He has a great nose like Fitzball or Bardolph, but not so red as the latter's. He has cut off his beard, and the hairs are scanty and scrubby down his lank Don Quixote jaws. I expected a fine gentleman, perhaps a fop like his own Devereux or like Bolingbroke, and I saw a crapulous fossil. He took Mrs. Round down to dinner, but never spoke a word to her, remaining silent or mumbling to himself. I think Cockburn was ashamed of him, and, although he asked him especially to meet me, he did not venture to solicit my opinion of him. But I told it to him. And he was ashamed of his guest."

A MURDEROUS ATTACK ON FRANCIS J. HENEY

San Francisco's Brave District Attorney Badly Wounded by an Ex-Convict He had Exposed

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—"Heny ruined me; that's why I shot him," said Morris Haas to the police captain as he was being led from the court room yesterday after having sent a bullet crashing into the head of Francis J. Heney, prosecuting attorney and one of the principal figures in the prosecution of municipal corruption in that city.

The attempt to assassinate Attorney Heney was made during recess in the court room of Superior Judge Lawlor where Abraham Ruef was on trial for the third time on the charge of bribery. The bullet entered the right cheek, ranged around the skull and lodged in the left side of the head near and under the left ear. Mr. Heney was given medical attention at once and it is thought that he will live.

Outcome of the Ruef Trial

Haas was taken in charge by the police and is confined in jail to await the outcome of the wounds inflicted upon the attorney. The tragedy was the outcome of the Ruef trial, Haas having been chosen as a juror, accepted and afterwards removed by the prosecution, Attorney Heney bringing out the fact that Haas, a Jewish saloon keeper, was an ex-convict.

PRESCRIPTION FILLED OFTEN

That the readers of this paper appreciate advice when given in good faith is plainly demonstrated by the fact that one well known local pharmacy supplied the ingredients for the "vegetable prescription" many times within the past two weeks. The announcement of this simple, harmless mixture has certainly accomplished much in reducing the great many cases of kidney complaint and rheumatism here, relieving pain and misery, especially among the older population, who are always suffering more or less with bladder or urinary troubles, backache and particularly rheumatism.

Another well known druggist asks us to continue the announcement of the prescription. It is doing so much real good here, he continues, that it would be a crime not to do so. It can not be repeated too often, and further states many cases of remarkable cures wrought.

The following is the prescription, of simple ingredients, making a harmless, inexpensive compound, which any person can prepare by shaking well in a bottle: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Any first-class drugstore will sell this small amount of each ingredient, and the dose for adults is one teaspoonful to be taken after each meal and again at bedtime. There is enough here to last one week, if taken according to directions. Good results will be apparent from the first few doses.
