CHARACTER CULTURE CONDUCT

Next Session begins October 7. For Catalogues Address the President, WM. F. BLACKMAN, Ph. D., WINTER PARK, FLA.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Some Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

We may be glad a man has made progress in religion, but better than progress is sincerity.—Rev. Bradford Leavitt, Unitarian, San Francisco.

World Growing Better.

The world is going from bad to better. Today is the best day in the history of the world, but tomorrow will be a better day.—Rev. C. F. Aked, Baptist, New York.

Gospel of Joy.

The gospel of Jesus was ushered in to give men and women happiness and joy without going to the world, the flesh and the devil for it.—Rev. F. W. Cox, Presbyterian, Providence, R. I.

Conversion.

Nothing but conversion can make the soul of man into a vast cathedral, and no man who understands the human heart will marvel that we must be born again.—Rev. A. H. C. Morse, Baptist, Brooklyn.

Cleaning Up.

A cleaning up should be a cleaning up and not a moving around. It will not mean anything, as a whole, to shovel up a load of filth from one place and simply move it to another.—Rev. Charles E. Guthrie, Methodist Episcopal, Washington.

Things That Make Life Fragrant.

The gentle traits, the modest qualities, the quiet tastes, the unobtrusive deeds, the unselfish attitude, the little attentions—it is just these small things which render our life fragrant, giving genuineness and character to our religion.—Rev. Abram S. Isaacs, Hebrew, Paterson, N. J.

What Christianity Does.

Christianity puts a man in the way of realizing the right kind of ambitions instead of the wrong kind. It warns us against seizing the shadow and letting go the substance. It gives us a scale of values which helps us against mistakes of judgment.—Dr. A. T. Hadley, Presbyterian, New Haven.

God's Purpose.

The purpose of God through this revelation for us is not knowledge alone. Men devote their lives to science and philosophy. His purpose is not physical power. It is not wealth and luxury. God comes through his word to give us eternal life and pardon from the power of sin.—Rev. Clayton E. DeLamater, Methodist Episcopal, Providence, R. I.

Christianity and Labor.

It is my belief that the solvent for all our social ills is found in the words of Jesus and in the spirit he brought to this world. Christianity will help more than any other agency to solve the problem of capital and labor. It is my firm belief that in time the laborer will own the tools with which he labors and will hire from the capitalist what money he needs. The workingman, instead of working for the capitalist, will have the capitalist's money working for him.—Rev. Lyman Abbott, Congregationalist, New York.

Rendering Tribute to Christ.

There are three ways of rendering tribute to Christ—with the mind, the heart and the will. I do not appeal to your minds. No man of sense today denies the Christ. That day is past. I do not appeal to your hearts and work on your sympathies. It's easy enough to make women cry and get into a state of ecstasy so often mistaken for real surrender to Christ. I appeal to your will, for it's with the will alone that you must answer that great question, "What think ye of Christ?"—Rev. John Balcom Shaw, Presbyterian, Chicago.

Mankind's Need of the Church.

Man needs the church as a resting place for both body and soul. Many a man today would be a thousand times better off had he served more faithfully his God in the church when he was young, with a world of opportunities before him. It is not easy to live as we earnestly desire, even in the church, with all its hollowed influences thrown about us, but it is far more difficult to resist temptations independent of the church. It may be argued that some go to church in the morning and into the world the remainder of the day, but, even so, they are far better for the experience of having been in the presence of God and are kept the better from doing the things for which they would be sorry the next day.—Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore.

The Clean Heart.

What is the clean heart? It is the heart which has a spontaneous delight in the triumph of truth wherever it takes place. The clean mind, the clean heart, belongs to the man who persuades himself that he shall do his share and is never envious because another at the end of the day's work has garnered more. He is interested not so much in the reapers as in the harvest, and whenever truth triumphs, whenever beauty is brought out of ugliness, wherever holiness is disclosed out of wickedness, his heart rejoices. The clean mind is the mind which continually puts the emphasis on the best things of its own life, that learns by experience what are its best impulses and even more and more puts the emphasis on the very best side of its nature. That is the clean man, the man who looks for and believes the best in other people. He has no secret joy when some high idol is smashed. He has no morbid delight in recording moral accidents and prejudices. His heart has kept its native appetite, its fondness for clean, wholesome food. It is touched with that love which finds the things that are worth finding.—Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, Unitarian, Washington.

BELLEVIE

The Northern people are coming in new thick and fast and we are all glad to welcome them back to the City of Oaks. The following are the names of those who arrived the past week: Hon. W. C. Doolittle and wife, Mr. Blakley and wife, Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Halstead, Mrs. Fesler, Dr. Merchant, Mr. E. S. Gardner.

Mr. J. A. Freeman and family and Mr. Millson and wife met at the home of Judge L. L. Hopkins and passed away the evening pleasantly playing finch. Delicious candy was served and greatly enjoyed by all. They will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Freeman this Saturday night.

Mr. Robert Freeman has accepted a position at Plymouth, Fla., as agent there. It will be remembered that he was there this summer as a relief and made many friends while there who were glad to welcome him back again. He was glad to go back there, too, as he likes the place very much. His many friends wish him the best of luck while away.

The past few days has seemed somewhat like summer, and Thanksgiving is almost here. We hear turkeys on every side that will not be here next week this time. We trust everyone will enjoy it and not forget to give thanks.

Miss Lorraine Freeman spent Friday with her cousin, Mrs. Grainger, at Oxford, and went from there to Shady Grove and spent Saturday and Sunday there with relatives.

The young people of the City of Oaks enjoyed life for awhile Friday at the home of Mrs. V. D. Pratt in a good old time social dance. The hours passed away swiftly and all went home thanking Mrs. Pratt for their good time and hoping they would have the pleasure of attending another one s-o-o.

It has been reported that the Levon boys will give a dance in the hall there on Thanksgiving night, and the young people are all looking forward for the time to come. We wish them all a good sociable time.

The Bellevue Workers held their regular meeting at the new library last Thursday. There will not be any meeting this Thursday on account of Thanksgiving. All members are present the Thursday following and visitors are always welcomed.

J. A. Freeman and wife spent Sunday with Mr. J. T. E. Haskins and family at Shady Grove.

THEY TAKE THE KINKS OUT "have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfaction at all drug stores. 25c.

FOREST FIRES IN KENTUCKY Paducah, Ky., Nov. 26.—Forest fires are raging again all over western Kentucky, in places where corn fields and meadows are ablaze.

At Alma, the town park, including the dancing pavilion and other buildings, has been burned. Between here and Louisville and Memphis it is estimated the Illinois Central is spending a thousand dollars a day protecting its property.

How Can You Expect to Digest Hog Fat?

Take any lard-fried food and examine it when it is cold. You will find it covered with a thick, heavy coat of grease that you would not think of eating under any circumstances. That grease is there just the same when the food is warm, but you do not see it. It is the fore-runner of indigestion, unless you have the stomach of an ostrich.

COTTOLENE contains no hog fat, and food cooked with it is not only wholesome and digestible, but healthful and absolutely free from hog fat. The reason is that COTTOLENE is a vegetable oil product, and not an animal fat.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk COTTOLENE is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

Cane grinding and potato digging is the order of the day.

Our pulpit was filled last Sunday by our pastor, Rev. M. M. Lord. He delivered two very interesting sermons at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. in the well filled house. He will preach for us again next Wednesday night, December 2, which will in all probability end his work at this place for this year. We hope we may be fortunate enough to have him with us another year.

Capt. J. B. Webb went up to Jacksonville last Sunday on a business trip.

Miss Ida M. Wiggins, our successful school teacher, went up to Hawthorn Wednesday to take Thanksgiving dinner with her parents.

Master Cecil McLeod went to Gainesville Wednesday to take dinner with his mother Thursday.

Messrs. Temple Parker and Emory Leavenworth of Ocala spent a few hours here Tuesday.

The social given by the Woodmen last Friday night was quite a success, although the oysters failed to "show up." Our wide awake clerk, A. A. Olin, succeeded in securing some very fine fish, which were substituted instead. The following ladies were present, which added much to the pleasure of the evening: Mrs. B. C. Webb, Mrs. M. G. Davis, Mrs. C. I. Grace, Mrs. J. E. Turnipseed, Mrs. A. A. Olin, Mrs. S. B. Brooks, Miss Ida Wiggin, and Miss Alta Grace.

Mr. Charles Syms went to Tampa Wednesday to spend a few days.
