

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are correct. You know just what you are getting for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz., pure refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stage it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, long-continued coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

WHERE BULLETS FLEW

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all drug stores.

A MYSTERY OF PARIS

Was Madame Steinheil, the Beautiful French Adventuress, Responsible for the Death of President Faure.

Paris, Dec. 1.—The Steinheil case continues to be the sensation of the hour in all France. The political side looms larger and larger every day and in interest harks back always to the tragic death in Paris in 1899 of Felix Faure, President of France.

M. Faure died in the midst of the Dreyfus excitement. The royalist and anti-Dreyfus organs are demanding an official investigation into the death of M. Faure and intimate openly that, as the insuperable obstacle to the leaders of the Dreyfus agitation, he was the victim of a plot. They have put forward the old allegation that M. Faure intended to yield to the petitions of the Dreyfusards and sign an order for the revision of the case and that consequently he was poisoned.

She Saw Faure Die

The only reason to believe that M. Faure did not die a natural death is found in the fact that his body decomposed with unusual rapidity and to offset this there are the statements of five of the best known physicians of Paris who certified that he died of cerebral hemorrhage.

The story that Madame Steinheil was present when he passed away seems unfortunately to be true and great regret is expressed that circumstances have now compelled the disclosure.

"The Charmer of Men"

With regard to the crimes themselves, Madame Steinheil's husband and her stepmother, Madame Japy, were found murdered in the Steinheil home in Paris on May 31 of this year and at the same time Madame Steinheil was discovered bound and gagged, the net is drawing closer and closer around.

Stories of her numerous romantic affairs with persons of note in the political and artistic circles are coming to light daily and they prove what a remarkable woman she was. She is now called "The Charmer of Men." Her salon was dazzlingly brilliant. Her last lover, in whose eyes she has never been discovered and his identity furnished a clue to a motive for the crime.

He is a rich widower and resides in a famous chateau near Mezieres, in the department of the Ardennes. He is not implicated in the crime. When seen by a journalist this man, who is the father of three children, protested frantically at the disgrace an exposure would bring. He said he was ready to commit suicide, but nevertheless he made a clean breast of his relations with Madame Steinheil.

She Hated Her Husband

He described how he had met her at a reception at the Steinheil home. He fell easily under the spell of Madame Steinheil's charms. He soon got into the habit of meeting her at the "Green Lodge," a villa at Bellevue, which Madame Steinheil rented under the name of Madame Provost. Mariette Wolf, the cook whose son was accused by Madame Steinheil of being guilty of the murders, lived at the lodge and was her mistress' confidante. This was early last year.

"For a month it was an exquisite idyl," said this man in describing the episode. "Madame Steinheil said she adored me and at each meeting she made new avowals and swore she loved me alone." "She insisted particularly that the Faure story was a legend," said the widower, "and said she could prove that she was home ill at the time of M. Faure's death. She admitted, however, that she hated her husband and said he led an 'infamous existence.' She detested her mother also for having forced her to marry Steinheil. She assured me that she would get a divorce and marry me."

HOSPITAL NOTES

We have had fifteen patients in the hospital this month. Three deaths as follows: A negro from the S. A. L. wreck, who died within five minutes after reaching here; Mr. Fitzgerald, another patient, was brought in by Marshal Bull, and was nearly dead when brought here. The third was Mr. Burgess, who died Sunday morning.

There are five patients in the hospital at present. There were eleven patients discharged during the month.

The donations to the hospital during the month were fine and all highly appreciated. The donations were as follows:

Two boxes of grapefruit and oranges from Mrs. E. H. Mote, city. Oranges and grapefruit from Mr. T. S. Russell, Hernando, Fla. Fringed tea cloth, Miss Mamie Waite (nurse in training here.) Gown, night shirt, etc., from Mrs. Hoeker.

Art square for office, old shoes, gowns, etc., from Mrs. T. T. Munroe. Vegetables from a friend, city. Chicken from Lydia Daniels of Sparr, Fla. (mother of a colored patient.)

Buttermilk, (standing donation when we want it, and she has it) from Mrs. Smoak.

Vegetables from Mrs. Brooks, city. Oranges from Mr. Tom Proctor.

Fruits, vegetables, cut flowers and pot plants from St. James Episcopal (colored) church. Thanksgiving donation.

Sheets, shirts, etc., for rags, from Mr. John D. Robertson.

Two wood heaters from Mrs. E. H. Mote.

Two wood heaters from Mr. Phillips of the telephone exchange.

Vegetables from unknown party. Fish roes from Mr. C. H. Gardner, of the light house at Cedar Keys.

Buttermilk from Mrs. Irvine of the Carlton House.

Mrs. Liddon of the Metropole sent a tray of delicious Sunday dinner, which was enjoyed very much.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Harrison sent cut flowers several times to patients.

We need some straight chairs and people to think of the hospital constantly and donate any little things they want to give to charity.

We would like to have a dining table, as the one we are using now is simply a kitchen table and barely large enough to accommodate four persons—narrow and short. We do not mind if it is old.
