The above named officers will be installed at the first meeting in January, at which time a mild blow-out will be given.

Wings were fitted on the following candidates: Sydney Haile, Asher Frank and W. M. King. They all flew high, particularly Mr. King.

A GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

One of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given in the auditorium was that of last night given by Mr. Elias Day and Mrs. Oranne Truitt-Day, of the Alkabeth Lyceum course. Both are finished artists and held the attention of their audience for the entire evening. Mr. Day is simply splendid in his character sketches. He depends upon facial make-up and expressions and achieves his end perfectly. Impersonating characters of all ages, classes and nationalities, he employs a most studied, though perfectly natural style and plays upon the audience at will as either "Grandfather," "Uncle Billy," the hoosier, "Hans" the Dutchman, or as the polished Kentucky colonel and statesman. Mrs. Day is an artist possessing charm, animation and great dramatic temperament.—St. Petersburg Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Day will be at the Armory this evening.

A REQUEST TO THE LADIES

Messrs. Sylvester and Bridges request their annual and reasonable make that ladies attending the lyceum course will not wear their hats during the performance, as each hat will go a long way toward obscuring the stage from every one who sits behind the hat.

LADY'S COAT LOST

Lost, a lady's short coat, grey checked, Wednesday between the residence and office of F. W. Ditto. Please return to Mr. Ditto's office and receive reward.

KATE WAS HARD TO CATCH

Kate, the firemen's monkey, got loose this morning from her chain and refused to be caught. Coax and threaten as they might, Chief Hamp Chambers or his assistants could not catch her. Kate would make excursions about the little park, out into the street, up and over the trees, over the roof of the city hall and fire station and just dare the helpless mortals to catch her. Her antics created a great deal of amusement for the crowds that watched her most of the morning. Incidentally, Kate got revenge on a number of boys who had been teasing her, slipping up and biting small chunks out of their legs. Kate never forgets an indignity.

A family of four or five people have been in town for several days trying to secure a furnished house for the winter and were compelled to go on south as there was not an available house in the city. Indeed, there is scarcely a vacant house of any kind to be had, despite the fact that so many have been built during the past summer and fall.

Until the stock is reduced a little more, the remainder of the stock of shoes of the Marion Hardware Company will occupy one side of the store into which Miss Aflack has moved her millinery business. A little later what remains of the stock will be removed to Zuber.

Mr. A. P. Blake and his niece, Miss Annie Blake Lee of Revere, Mass., arrived in the city recently and tarried for a day or two at the Ocala House on their way to South Lake Weir, where they have spent the past six winters, guests of the Pleasant Hills House.

The Mabel Paige company left this afternoon for Gainesville to play a three-nights' engagement in the new opera house. Their stay here was thoroughly enjoyed and every one who attended the performances, hope the company will play a return visit.

We carry the best line of toilet articles, soaps, perfumes, etc., in the city. Come in and be convinced. Tindings & Co.

Don't forget the show here next Saturday. It will signalize the appearance of the Sun Brothers' Greater Progressive Shows. This is one of the institutions of this country that has a clean and honest record. It is free from grafters, gamblers and all off-color issues, and is invariably attractive for ladies and children. The performing elephants carried are said to be one of the salient features of the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Durst, after seeing the auto races at Savannah, are now pleasantly located at Sandersville, Ga. They will return to Ocala before long.

Mrs. L. J. Lummus left today for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Douglas, at Miami.

J. B. Cutler, the Crystal River ice man, passed through Ocala today on his way to Gainesville.
