

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies under seal. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficacious remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

LAKE WEIR UNION W. C. T. U.

At the suggestion of the Union the South Lake Weir Union Sunday school united with the Weirsday school last Sunday in the observance of Temperance Sunday. After a short session of the schools during which the regular lesson of the International Series on Temperance was considered, an interesting program was carried out instead of the regular service. It was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. G. McKinley, who gave an address full of good suggestions and facts. Mrs. J. F. Sigmon, superintendent of the Sunday school department of the W. C. T. U., gave an address, and was followed by Miss Margaret Snook, Miss Simpson and Errol Reed, with recitations. Rev. Lawrence Jones also gave a stirring address characterized by his usual vim and vigor. Pledge cards were passed around and numerous signatures secured. A large amount of temperance literature was distributed. A very gratifying sum was collected to be used in the furtherance of the temperance cause. Beautiful flowers and the banner won by the Lake Weir Union at the recent state convention in Ocala, helped to adorn the church and give pleasure to the large audience present. Appropriate songs, mostly from the W. C. T. U. collection were sung, the music being under the charge of the organist, Mrs. Buckley. Mrs. E. S. Upham, Press Cor., W. C. T. U.

WHERE BULLETS FLEW

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all drug stores.

FAIRFIELD'S THANKSGIVING

The young people of Thanksgiving had a most magnificent Thanksgiving in the way of baked turkey and other edibles. The night after Thanksgiving they were all invited to a banquet at Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott's. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. M. Tate, Misses Bessie Carter, Edna Gattrell, Della Smith, Alice Yongue, and Messrs. N. Simpson, Whorton Yongue, A. J. McLaughlin and Professor B. E. Johnson. The supper was very elaborate and everybody enjoyed the evening immensely.

Misses Bessie Carter, Edna Gattrell, Alice Yongue, Della Smith; Messrs. Whorton Yongue, A. J. McLaughlin, W. Simpson and Prof. B. E. Johnson all crowded into a big wagon and drove out to the Stuart place, which is now being prepared for a big watermelon crop by Messrs. Carter, McLaughlin & Yongue. The younger people reached their destination about 12 o'clock, and the young men of the ranch, Messrs. Whorton, Yongue and A. J. McLaughlin invited them to partake of a most bounteous feast, prepared in advance for them. After their appetites were well satisfied they started for their hunt, and great was the fun wading through sand-spurs and climbing rail fences. Messrs. McLaughlin and Yongue killed quite a number of birds, Professor Johnson killed one quail, while Mr. W. Simpson distinguished himself by killing a woodpecker by mistake for a robin. When the day ended, they started on their return to Fairfield by moonlight. During their trip home Professor Johnson amused the crowd with a box shell turtle which he had in a bag. All of the girls declared it wouldn't bite, while the professor declared it would and invited them to put their hands in the bag to prove the statement. The girls, one after another put their hands in, then suddenly turned red in the face and tried to withdraw their hands. Ask the professor what was the matter. After they reached home they all congregated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. birds killed on the hunt. While the stew was crooking some amused themselves with a game of whist, while the others danced. Thus they whiled away the evening until a late hour. When leaving they all expressed themselves as having a very thankful Thanksgiving of several days instead of one.
