

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, and "rising" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

OCALA OF THE LONG AGO

A Letter from the Gentleman Whose Father Gave It Its Name—The Indian Chief Was Buried Under the Famous Old Tree in Front of the Ocala House

During the late re-union of Confederate Veterans at Tampa Commander Graham of the Marion County Camp met an old-time comrade. He recently received from him the following letter, which we know will be of interest to our readers:

Palmetto, Fla., Nov. 26, 1908.
Mr. L. M. Graham:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 6th inst., is at hand and contents duly noted, and in reply will give you the history of our first settlement in Florida.

Father came to Florida in 1841, driving his cattle and hogs, and made camp at where now stands Ocala. He found an old Indian there who was nearly dead, and did die a few days after father found him. The Indian could speak but a few words of English, but from what father could make out the Indian had had a fight with a panther, and that was the cause of his death. Father took care of him while he lived and buried him under the old oak tree at the southeast corner of the court house yard after his death. As well as he could make out his name was "Ocala," and therefore father named the place for him.

In 1842 he went back to Georgia and brought his family, and we lived in one of the government houses at Fort King until he built a house and located land two miles from Ocala. I was then six years old. I lost my mother and one brother and one sister before we left Fort King.

I was hunting with father one day and he showed me the old camp that the Indian lived in, and also where he buried him. During the hunt our dogs jumped a panther and stood it in an oak, the same tree that stood in front of the old court house, and it was still standing when I last passed through Ocala—in 1865. I know I could locate the Indian grave instantly, although I have not seen the place since passing through Marion county when I was coming home from the war. If I was able I would like to visit that place once more before I die, but I am getting very feeble, and I am crippled up so much. I have been very sick since I saw you last. I could tell you a great deal more, but I am so weak and nervous I can hardly write. I hardly think you will be able to read what I have written. If I could I would like to write you about the trip I took to the West Indies to help J. P. Benjamin out of the country. We crossed the Gulf of Mexico in an open boat. You know he was secretary of the Confederate States under President Davis. That was the hardest and roughest trip I ever took. I could and would write you more, but I will have to close. Hoping to hear from you again, I remain,
Yours very truly,
H. A. McLeod.

P. S.—I don't suppose I will ever meet you at another reunion—may God bless you.

ALLEGED SHORTAGE CAUSES ARREST

Coast Line Agent at Valdosta Taken In Charge

Valdosta, Ga., Dec. 9.—John J. Harris, for several years agent here for the Atlantic Coast Line and for several months in charge of the Georgia and Florida Railroad, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice T. M. Cook at the instance of Inspector Bradbury Williams of the American Surety Company, charging him with embezzling $3,000 of the company's funds.

Harris gave bond immediately. Traveling Auditors Farmer and Goodloe have been checking up the books here for several days and it was upon their reports that the warrant against the agent was issued. Harris denies that the accounts are short. The auditors claim that the shortage has occurred within the past five months.

Harris' friends say that he wanted an expert accountant to go over the books with the auditors but this was refused. They claim that the apparent shortage is due to discrepancies, demurrages, claims and other items being charged to the agent's account. He is a man of great popularity and his friends were surprised at the charge that was made against him. The affairs of the office were said to be all right at the last checking.

GRAHAMVILLE

Unsupplied with knowledge, this great winding river, Oklawaha, which rolls near us, through our Marion county, is unable to ask for wisdom, and so it rolls on wearily, but free, to the Atlantic ocean. The Oklawaha's charms, however, are very winning, and some day they will win the hearts of a few real live men—and then, with their "electric torches," the river will make grand old Marion more famous.

The pretty launch Winona, Captain P. I. Randall, sank in mid stream opposite the sand bars a few days ago. Captain Randall was on his way to Silver Springs with a load of cotton and at the above point the launch ran aground and stove a hole in her hull and sank within a short time. Mr. Henry Mason was notified and he immediately put out from Conner under steam of his swift yacht the Oregonian. While passing Grahamville en route Mr. Mason signalled for help to save the cotton and the young men in an instant manned the Sharp Shooter—his steam naval stores barge—and followed the Oregonian to the scene. As far as we can learn the cotton was all saved, but, of course, it became water sodden.

All the Confederate veterans of this side went up to Ocala Tuesday.

Our people want to know where to carry their exhibits to. Some exhibits can and will be carried up to Ocala in advance of the opening day of the county fair.

Alonzo Long and P. L. Durisoe are now grinding cane. Their places are on the world famous Oklawaha river and you may come down any old time via the Oregonian, Merry Widow, et al.

Rev. M. M. Lord preached an excellent sermon Sunday at the Methodist church here. The people are praying and wishing that Bro. Lord will be with them next year.

Miss Emma Mason entertained royally last Friday at her home on the banks of the Oklawaha. It was an apron party and couples were cleverly matched to hemstitch the aprons. They were: Miss Stella Martin and Mr. Bob Peebles, Miss Emma Mason and Mr. John Cameron, Miss Belle Hodge and Mr. Stevens, Miss Ethel Sewell and Mr. Will Sewell, Miss Beedy Sewell and Mr. Fred Wellhorn-er, Mrs. Lucy Walls and Mr. Samuel Long, Miss Rebecca Counts and Mr. Walter Sewell. An enjoyable evening it was indeed with the young people of Grahamville and Connor. Miss Mason is a hostess fine and dandy.

The Methodist church's new organ has arrived and has been installed. Through that grand lady, Mrs. Alonzo Long, this organ was purchased. Mrs. Long collected all the organ money around home, so you see times are not hard here.

Mr. W. D. Carn was in our midst looking after schools last week. Things in general in the school world over here were transpiring grandly, the genial gentleman found, and he was very happy over it.

Mrs. R. M. Long of Pat's Island, spent last week in Grahamville with her mother, Mrs. Fred Wellhorn-er.

Mr. W. H. Carlton is now in Wilmington, N. C., on a dredge boat. He is doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith were among the shoppers who went up to Ocala to do shopping recently. Alberta.

WHERE BULLETS FLEW

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all drug stores.

For some time the Ocala News Co. has been trying to get a good view of the courthouse, and now it has succeeded in getting one. The view is the latest thing in that line.
