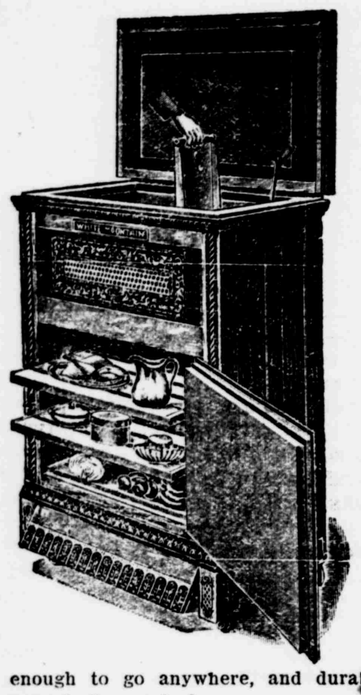
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Coldest! Dryest! Purest! Best!



White Mountain Refrigerators are the coldest, dryest, cleanest, purest, most sanitary and best refrigerators ever made, and so they will ever be.

They were the best last year, and the year before, and every year for many years before that. This year's refrigerator is not quite the same as the one we made last year; it is better. We have made a few improvements where improvement seemed impossible.

But that's the way with the White Mountain. It is the best refrigerator on the market every year, and better from year to year.

We first find how good we can make it to make it the best; then how cheap without sacrificing any of the goodness. This means not only the best, but also the best for the money.

In making White Mountain Refrigerators we put expense where it counts in Coldness, Dryness, Refrigeration, Cleanliness, Sanitation, Economy. Then we make them handsome enough to go anywhere, and durable enough to last a lifetime, and cheap enough for anybody.

They embrace every feature that can possibly be desired in any refrigerator, and many advantages over all other refrigerators combined.

All sizes and styles in stock. Call on us and ask to see the Refrigerators. We will be glad to show you their many good points.

THE LEGISLATURE

punishing same: also, a bill relating to the criminal jurisdiction of county judges.

By Sparkman of Volusia—Regulating the impounding of cattle by municipal corporations.

By Parrish of Manatee—Making unlawful the playing of games of football.

By Gornto of Bradford—Relating to the collection of agricultural statistics by tax assessors; also, regulating the delivery of telegraph messages in towns of 500 or more population.

By Jackson of Citrus—Regulating the redemption and sale of tax sale certificates and issuance of tax deeds.

The house passed the senate bill authorizing Monroe county to issue bonds for $10,000 for road construction.

A PERTINENT POEM

Suggested by the Metropolis to the Legislative Laureate

Mr. Wall, of Putnam, having been officially declared by resolution offered by Mr. Bullock, of Marion, poet-laureate of the house, has, between the brief intervals of his objections, points of order and general loquaciousness, been trying hard to deliver the goods. We suggest the following:

Same old country,
Same old ills,
Same old statesmen,
Same old bills.
Bills for adding on the clerks,
Bills to fine the man who works,
Bills to redistrict the state,
Bills to increase the large tax rate,
Bills to build the governor's mansion,
Bills to give each man a pension,
Bills to work a private graft,
Bills which make the third house laugh,
Bills to build new public schools,
Bills which only fool the fools,
Bills to spend the war claim fund,
Bills to get 'em on the run,
Bills to make our pockets fat,
Bills to show 'em where we're at,
Bills to stop the sale of liquor,
Bills to make 'em get drunk quicker,
Bills to do away with screens,
Bills to reach down in their jeans,
Bills for cutting down expense,
Bills to make the bills immense,
Bills to make new city charters,
Bills to help political martyrs,
Bills to mend political fences,
Bills and bills in which no sense is,
Bills to make the session longer,
Bills to make the salary stronger,
Bills, we hope, the "fellers" will fight,
Bills to make the wallets light,
Bills to hit 'em right and left,
Bills to give the boys a "heft,"
Bills to tax each son of a gun,
Bills to help us get the mon,
Bills we hope will hurt like fury,
Bills that prove us from Missouri.
Same old country,
Same old ills,
Same old statesmen,
Same old bills.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS CURED

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold by the Postoffice Drugstore, Ocala.
