GOOD TIME AT GAITER

Meeting of Candidates and People by the Winding Waters of the Withlacoochee

The Gaiter picnic on the banks of the Withlacoochee Thursday, though hastily gotten up, proved a big success. Fully a hundred people were present and all the candidates except Allen Rogers and D. R Zetrouer, and they all spoke. Mr. H. W. Long made a telling speech on the dark and terrible days of reconstruction, when scrip was worth less than half its face value and the Camp Izzard precinct was abolished because its population was white and democrats.

All candidates for the legislature made excellent addresses, especially "Honest" John Floyd, who was put on his mettle, not having appeared two years ago in this precinct and not securing a vote. He plainly showed he was more sinned against than sinning and that while two years ago, he and his platform were ridiculed, today he has the identical platform and all the candidates are jumping on it.

Ed Wartmann won his oratorical spurs by his spirited address. Sistrunk impressed and Mathews sustained his reputation as a ready speaker

It is needless to refer to the other candidates, as they simply bowed their respects; Ettinger appearing for Zetrouer, because the latter gentleman was called home by the illness of his baby.

The ladies were there with their sweet smiles and captivating manners, and such a dinner as they spread gives the reporter the consolation of retrospection when he has to come down to every-day fare. The way Misses Cora and Inez Ross feasted the legislative candidates and served them made such an impression on their hearts that no telling what effect it will have on the single member of the quartet, and the heart whole and fancy free county treasurer, who is yearning for a third term.

Among the ladies present were the Misses Ross, Mrs. Hugh T. Ross, who served the fish-hungry, among them the Star reporter, Miss Sara McCreery, a school marm, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner of Bradley Pond, near Ocala, Mrs. W. L. Thomas, Mrs. Val Bock, Mrs. Redding, Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. Jennie Brooks, Mrs. Rod Morrison, Mrs. E. W. W. Jordan, Mrs. Tom Winston and her daughters, Misses Susie and May, Mrs. Frank Hall of Ocala, Mrs. C. M. Whitton and Mrs. F. D. Sparkman. Of course where the ladies were there were the gentlemen also.

Notes

C. M. Whitton was the moving picnic spirit. Without his determination Gaiter would not have heard the candidates.

Rod Morrison told the Jonah fish story. He said the fish was so big it snapped an old time derrick rod and when it struck the water its weight parted the same, and he walked dryshod across to Citrus county. It may be that the ribs of that stranded fish are the cause of the obstruction that delays the Camp dredge, that is also stranded in the Withlacoochee river, on its way to the "Rapids."

Refreshments were served by Bryan of Citrus county, but the cool air did not aggravate the usual thirst.

Henry Gordon held the reins over the best team in Boswell's Dunnellon livery.

"Honest John" Floyd was a caution, and the tales he told of the hunting expeditions in his section would make fair Diana weep.

Henry Gordon seems to be an expert at everything he tackles, and that is why his Dunnellon friends persist in saying he will land the winner in the sheriff's race.

Messrs. Ayer, Pasteur and Carn almost met with a calamity. The Dunnellon train left at 4 p. m., they had not showed up, and had it not been for side-tracking at Chatham, waiting for Nos. 42 and 39 to pass south, the party named would have tarried another night in the Phosphate City, and Carn reduced to a quarter. The team struggled through the sand and the belated travelers just touched the car steps, pale and haggard, as the train moved off.

Mr. Petteway and his handsome brother of near Leroy, took in the picnic and enjoyed it, as did Mr. Carter, a rising young man and candidate for sheriff of Citrus county, and the predicted winner.

Mr. George Thomas, the young committeeman of the Camp Izzard district, and the brilliant correspondent of the Banner, was master of ceremonies and acquitted himself most creditably.

Miss Cora Ross, the fair educator at Reddick, was at home on a visit, preparatory to leaving next Friday, when school closes, for Tallahassee, to take a normal course.

"Uncle" Abe Ross, the pioneer settler, farmer and cattle man of that section, was too busy plowing corn, but sent word that although refraining from voting for the past twelve years, would cast a vote for sheriff, and his handsome son, Reginald, did the honors for his father.

Mr. Hugh A Ross, son of Mr. Frank Ross, deceased, a leading citizen of the section, was compelled to go to Holder for the day.

All in all, Gaiter and her clever people need not blush by comparison with the other precinct assemblies, and the hearts of the candidates beat warmly for Gaiter.

Messrs. Smoak and Wartmann struck out for Summerfield, overland, yesterday.
