The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

OCALA IN NORTH CAROLINA

The Ocala people who left some weeks ago for the Land of the Sky, are now enjoying the mountain scenery, red apples, fried chicken and cool weather of Bryson City. Like most people in this great round world, we do not like to be forgotten, so we wish to say through the Star that we are very much alive.

The handsome men of our party are now somewhat disfigured by sunburn, as they have just returned from a camping tour. They brought on their return some mountain trout, which were indeed a curiosity to a Floridian. It is a beautiful litle fish six inches long, without scales, and having a silver gray coat trimmed with red dots, the size of a pinhead. They are beautiful to see but do not compare with a lake trout. They remind one of a sample package of some new breakfast food—neat and nice, but most too dainty.

This is a lovely and quiet little city, never bothered by the noise of a steam laundry, and the song of the negress over the scrubbing board is never heard. We miss all of these from the bottom of our hearts to the topmost article of wearing apparel.

Young and handsome Jim Brooks became so alarmed over the laundry situation that he packed his grip and left at once for Ocala.

Master Clyatt, not quite one year old, has grown to such bigness that he now dons a pair of blue overalls and throws rocks for a livelihood.

One of the Ocala summer brides, who feasted on Huyler's, Lowney's, etc., is now ready and glad to smile over a clear lemon or peppermint stick of candy and drinks coca-cola out of a bottle.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Clyatt of Gainesville, Fla., joined the Ocala colony on Saturday last, adding much pleasure to our happy band.

Young William Tyler, better known as "Brer Rabbit," we are sorry to say is quite sick with fever. Barring this, our party is enjoying excellent health.

Our colony is composed of W. W. Clyatt and wife, Vernon Clyatt and wife, W. D. Graham and wife, Ben Reysor and wife and Miss Brooks. We have been reinforced by L. J. Clyatt and wife of Gainesville, Mrs. Ansley of St. Petersburg and handsome Charley Tyler and wife of Clearwater. We are all pleasantly domiciled at the Cooper House, a stately mansion overlooking the Cherokee river. We are situated midway between Asheville and Murphy, on the Southern Railway, and to any other Ocalan, in search of pleasure and recreation in the most beautiful mountain section of North Carolina, we advise them to come to Bryson City.

The Cherokee Indians, some 2200 in number, are some ten miles up the river, where the government has their reservations, schools, etc. Last Saturday our entire party spent the day at the reservation and witnessed a game of ball among the Indians.

There has been nothing to disturb the peace of our party until a few days ago when a dashing and handsome young widow of Savannah arrived at the hotel. All of the men of our party forgot they were married. It only required a few hours for us to bring them to their senses, and we now have the most submissive hubbies in the world.

We are all improving wonderfully, and Vernon Clyatt, who thought himself sick, can now climb a 5-mile mountain in search of corn moonshine. Will Graham also spends much time in a still hun tfor a corn still. W. W. Clyatt has assumed such a clerical look that he has several times been mistaken for a mountain parson.

We have all eaten so much chicken that we are now better Methodists than when in Ocala.

Ben Raysor has improved so much that he is now almost as large as Mr. E. C. McLeod of Kendrick. He has, however, been somewhat indisposed since the Savannah widow's arrival.
