THIS IS HIS TIME TO GLOAT

I am a vegetarian. No heifer-fed barbarian; I live on things agrarian. But never food with meat. I'm one of those that like, you see. The grass that lines the pike, you see. And so this packer's strike, you see. To me is quite a treat.

I laugh to think of those who eat That horrid, germ-fraught stuff called meat— And now a-shake from head to feet For fear of rise in prices. No odds to us if beef should be Two-sixty-five a pound, for we Don't eat the dirty stuff, you see. But live on grains and rice.

I thought this morning, as I lay And hungered for my breakfast hay. How, ere the closing of the day, The price of pork might rise. I pitied all who didn't know How nicely razor-wed pork chops go. When one is tired a bit, and O, The taste of pease pie.

We oft eat roasts of who knows what. Served up to us all piping hot. And "steaks" consisting of a lot Of weeds we cannot name; A consomme of maple limbs— A puree made of Watt's hymns— These soups delight our fates and slims And eke our halt and lame.

While they who long for flesh are gaud Because of meat there is a want, Our sirloin cabbages we flaunt, And liver made of radish; We stuff on sausage made of oats Instead of fragments saved from shoats; On string-bean hash our veggie doses— Some people say we're foolish.

Head-cheese we make from barley-polls, From cowslips we construct veal rolls That you could not, to save your souls, From real meat discern. In brief, to make a long tale short, And if no meat should reach our port, We don't eat naught we hadn't ort; We wouldn't yearn a yearn. —Baltimore American.

MYSTERIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. VIOLENT ATTACK OF DIARRHOEA

Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago, I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea, and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says Mr. John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Alabama. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a 25 cent bottle, and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints."

TWO ACCUSED FOR

One of the Russian cruisers, the Tselina, which escaped from Port Arthur, has arrived at Saigon, French Cochina, and will probably go on to join the Baltic fleet. Another cruiser, the Novik, has arrived at Karskowsk, a port of Sighden, and after coaling and repairing, will probably make a dash for Vladivostok which is a few hundred miles to the southeast.

NEARLY FORFEITS HIS LIFE

A runaway, almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ky. For four years it defied all doctors, and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. Twenty-five cents at the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore, Ocala, Fla.

CANDLER COMMENT

Orange Crop Promises Well—Peach Trees Thrifty

The orange crop is doing well here. But few of the oranges are cracking and the fruit is growing nicely, and will run about the average size. There will be about 4000 boxes shipped from here this season. As a general thing the oranges will be more or less "trusses."

Peach trees planted last spring are doing well, though, like the orange trees, they would have done better if there had been more rain.

G. W. Hyde of Gainesville recently paid Candler a visit to inspect his orange groves and was highly pleased with them, which are under the management of T. E. Pritchard. Mr. Hyde will put out fifty acres in peaches during this winter.

Rev. E. C. McKinley left for Pennsylvania this week to visit his daughters. Rev. Harris will fill his place in the Presbyterian pulpit during his absence.

Mrs. M. Wallace and daughter have gone to Jacksonville, where they will temporarily reside while Miss Ruby is attending the Massey Commercial College.

J. LeFils, salesman for Benedict, Pollak and Co., of Jacksonville, was in town a few days ago.

Savage and Cooper are putting the machinery on the ground to start a sawmill two and one-half miles from this place, on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad. They have a large body of timber upon which to begin operations, and will purchase more as they need it.

DEWITT IS THE NAME

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve, look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name, E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by Wm. Anderson, Ocala.

The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Early Risers.
