Has the sole agency for

The "Pittsburgh Perfect" Steel Fence

It is a solid steel fence in which the stays are electrically welded. The stay and stand are one piece, which is an advantage that no other fence has.

Governor Jennings has appointed Buford Leithner a delegate to the Cotton Growers' Convention, which meets at the World's Fair, St. Louis, September 26.

J. M. Liddell, the Santos merchant and postmaster, was in the city this morning getting repairs for his motor, as he is deep in making hay. Mr. Liddell has recently returned from a visit to his old home near Memphis, and says many changes have taken place among the people of that section. The fence law prevails in that section; farmers are much more prosperous now than then; have better farms and stock. This is equally true of the negroes, who now own good farms, while twenty-five years ago they were tenants, and have gangs of plows and sickle hammers. They now live at home and board at the same place.

Mr. S. M. Niblack, a prosperous citizen living four miles west of Dunnellon, had the misfortune Saturday evening to lose his new residence and its contents by fire. Not a thing was saved. The family was absent some distance from their home when the fire was discovered. Before any aid could be rendered the building and contents were enveloped in flames. The fire caught from the old house that has only been vacated a few weeks. There was no insurance. No sooner did the news reach Dunnellon than Bob Sanders, with his heart overflowing with the milk of human kindness, went to work and raised a nice collection of money and household goods for the unfortunate family.

Mr. Charles Peysor of the El Tropic cigar factory, received three orders this morning for his celebrated brands of cigars; one for Brown from Massachusetts, another big order from Georgia, while Col. O. T. Green, who with his family is residing at Upper Dame, Fla., sent for some of his favorites, the Grand Royal.

The farmers in session in Jacksonville are mostly truckers from the East Coast. It is a pity every portion of the state was not represented, for combination is the order of the day, and what the farmers and truckers combine is the word, and the right thing to do.

Miss Tillie Pyles, Rheumer's popular young saleslady, has purchased the Liddon place, about three miles south of town, containing a neat cottage and forty acres of land. Miss Pyles, with her mother and family, will occupy the place as soon as a few necessary repairs can be made. The deal was made yesterday with Mr. Malloy Liddon, the former owner of the place.

The excursionists to Lake Weir last evening had a delightful time. Captain Foster towed them across the lake to the old Chautauque grounds, where they ate their lunches and enjoyed a swim. They amused themselves on the barge by including in a dance, which was as unconventional as the breezes that fanned the cheeks of the fair maidens who composed the jolly crowd.

Leon Fishel, who has been so sick come down town today for the first time in weeks. He is arranging to go to Hot Springs, Ark., to have the malaria boiled out of him.

GIVEN UP TO DIE

R. Spiegal, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affection which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Sold by the Postoffice Drugstore.

WHY SHE DIDN'T GET A KITTEN

She is such a sweet little thing, a bride of only four months, that the Harlem butcher, with whom she was taking her first lessons in marketing, was delighted to see her come into the shop, says the New York Press. He waited on her himself and never, so he says, took advantage of her inexperience. If he was busy she stroked the fine Maltese cat stretched lazily in the window and waited for him. "When that cat has kittens," she said to him one morning, "will you be kind enough to let me have one of them. I am so fond of cats." "When that cat has kittens," said the butcher, "you certainly shall have your pick of them."

She waited a few weeks and then mentioned the subject to him again. "Nothing doing yet, lady," he replied. A week or two afterwards she expressed some impatience to the cashier. "I shall be gone from the neighborhood," she said, "before I get that kitten he promised me." "If you wait until that cat has kittens," said the cashier, "you'll wait long."

The Star notes with pleasure the position of honor and trust Mr. E. P. Thazard occupied in the late Turnpike Operators' Association at their Jacksonville meeting. He was made chairman of the committee on freight claims. Treasurer McEachern paid the Marion sub-association a high compliment when he urged other sub-associations to follow in the footsteps of his association in the transaction of their business and the close adhesion to the decrees of the association.

Mr. Ernest Rieker, superintendent of the mails arriving and departing in the Union depot at Jacksonville, has gone to New England to join his mother, Mrs. B. B. Rieker, and spend his vacation with her, when together they will return home. Mr. Rieker is well known here, having been a former resident of Marion county, but for the past five years in Uncle Sam's employ.

A. S. Jenness, 9201 Butler St., Chicago, writes: "I am a switchman and am out in all kinds of weather. I took a cold which settled in my kidneys and I was in bad shape.
