A Few Words Describing Some of the Retail Departments of "The House That Treats You Right"

H. B. MASTERS' STORE IS A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Last week the Star man told of the wholesale department of H. B. Masters' big and popular department store, and this week will tell, briefly, of two of the retail departments, and what is to be found there.

Every department of the store is kept end managed within itself, under the supervision of a competent head, with able assistants. We will speak first of

The light, me dium and heavy weights are all in stock, and all of the latest colors, tints leading makes are Eaolins, Crepe Paris, Zebalines, Nunsveiling, Mannish Suitings, Fancy Brilliantines, Mohair, Outing Flannels, etc. This house has the sole agency for the popular goods, Pres de Soie, which has the feel and appearance of silk, is more durable

Notions

The stock of notions is broad and complete and more than covers the usual meaning of the term.

No house in the city is so well supplied with these goods. Blankets, comforts, spreads, sheets, pillow casings and sheeting, bleached and unbleached homespuns, bleached and unbleached linens, ticking, light and heavy weight canvas, curtain materials, tablecloths and napkins, oilcloth, towels and toy eling in linen, crash and cotton.

Shoe Department

This department is in charge of Mr W. F. Gaskill, who has been with the house for eight years, and is a most popular and efficient young man, who has a thorough knowledge of the shoe business. Mr. Gaskill may well feel proud of the stock carried in his department. There is no larger nor better kept stock of shoes in the country.

The store has adopted the plan of cutting out any line that, for any reason, is found to be unsatisfactory with the public. At present they have several of the very choicest lines put out by the shoe factories of the United
