tinety heard stealthy footsteps coming along the passage. The footsteps paused at the sitting room door. They heard this open, and scarcely dared to breathe. Some one entered the room and waited for a moment or so, evidently listening. Then the door was opened and closed again and the footsteps died away. Even then Brendon stopped Leonard from lighting the candles.

"Go to bed in the dark," he said softly. "Was it Mrs. Jersey?" asked Leonard.

"Of course it was. She came to see if you were in bed."

"But why should she?"

"I can't say. There's something queer about that old woman. Get to bed, Leonard. You can light your candle in your own room. I shall not light mine."

Train was bursting with indignation. "But it's absurd to be treated like a couple of schoolboys," he said, taking his candlestick.

"There's more in it than that," said Brendon, pushing him to the door. "Get to bed and make no noise. We can talk in the morning."

Train darted across the sitting room and retired. Brendon closed his door softly and listened again. There was no return of the footsteps, so he slipped into bed without relighting the candle. The clock in the sitting room chimed a quarter past 11.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Ashburnham, Ont., April 15, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. Respectfully yours,

E. A. Langfeldt, M. A.,
Rector of St. Luke's Church,
To Chamberlain's Medicine Co.
This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A BLUFF AT THE BEEF TRUST

Washington, Dec. 17.—Representative Baker of New York, whose resolutions to investigate the steel trust were recently tabled, has introduced a resolution aimed at the beef trust. It requests the attorney general of the United States to report to the House whether he has ascertained that the so-called beef trust is in restraint of trade, and if so, what steps he has taken to cause the forfeiture of property in course of the transportation from one state to another of those constituting the so-called beef trust.

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP HER

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Connor of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose helped me and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this good health is impossible. Sold by Postoffice Drugstore.

ANOTHER RAID FROM RAIS ULI

Tangier, Dec. 17.—Rais Uli, the noted brigand chief, boldly raided a caravan within the town of Tangier today. The chief had attacked another caravan five miles out of Tangier and took eleven prisoners and a number of mules. Then he came to Tangier and repeated his exploit. In the latter case he released his prisoners, as men he was seeking were not among them.

Miss Corena Williams is in High Springs visiting her mother.

Covenant church is doing some fine inside work, which will add greatly to this fine structure.

*Four furnished rooms to rent. Apply to Mrs. Matilda Williams, in the Louis D'Ormito house.

E. Tibbs, who was seriously injured some time ago, is much improved and able to attend to his duties.

Wanted, at once, a smart and industrious boy to deliver the Evening Star. See the editor of this department.

A change of heart in some people has not affected a change in their moral lives. They lie, steal, get drunk, and that isn't half their failings. What kind of religion is that?

*Remember the Bee Hive Grocery. Fine choice family groceries, candies, fruits, vegetables, cigars and tobacco. Cheap for cash. F. Mention, South Main St., two doors below city market.

The cantata of "Coronation of King Kris Kringle" will take place at Mt. Moriah Baptist church on Monday night, December 26. Admission, 10c. to all.

*Just arrived at Kasminski's New Exchange a large supply of oranges, apples, bananas, grapes, pineapples, coconuts, fancy candies, fireworks and choice groceries. Orders promptly filled on short notice. West Broadway.

We are pleased to call your attention to Robert Richardson's rustic establishment, opposite the Yonge building, where can be seen some very fine rustic work.

Mrs. William Tate passed to the better land yesterday at 2 o'clock. She was a faithful Christian, and while passing away gave earnest hopes of a glorious and blissful immortality. Her remains will be carried to Lake City for interment.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c. bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a deal of light labor on the farm." 25c., 50c. and $1. Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

We had the pleasure of visiting the Odd Fellows lodge room in the new building on West Broadway, and to take a look at the completion of the same. We compliment them on the work.

We must urge our delinquents to come up with their dues Monday and Tuesday. We are sure to call and we hope that you will not give us an excuse.

HOLIDAY DRESS

You should see the Broadway Millinery Store in holiday dress. Have just received creation's latest in dress and ready-to-wear hats for ladies, misses and children. Have just received a large assortment of baby caps and cloaks. We have also a lovely line of jackets and fur goods for ladies and misses. Remember the place—the Broadway Millinery Store, next door to the New Racket, Ocala's greatest and cheapest Santa Claus house.

WORMS

*I write to let you know how I appreciate your Cascarets. I commenced taking them last November and took ten or twelve boxes and passed a tape worm 14 ft. long. Then I commenced taking them again and Wednesday, April 4th, I passed another tape worm 24 ft. long and over a thousand small worms. Previous to my taking Cascarets, I didn't know I had a tape worm. I always had a small appetite.

*L. Green, the tonsorial artist and lightning shaver. My razor shaves soft and sweet and my hair-cut is the best. I have two of the finest chairs that turn every way. Razors fixed in all styles. Call and be convinced. West Broadway, next to A. Smith.

*The Original Bee Hive on West Broadway is the place to secure bargains in Christmas toys, assorted chinaware, toilet articles, wire jewelry, clocks, watches. General repairing a specialty.

We had to hang our heads in shame and disgust as we listened to the case of rape now before the courts. To repeat the testimony would disgrace our editorial sanctum, but we must say that if the race is rising we fail to see very much of it. No wonder we are always branded as inferiors.

WHY NOT SAVE MONEY?

By visiting the New Racket's great shoe sale for men, women and children which is now going on. During the great shoe sale we will offer great values in dry and dress goods, hosiery, handkerchiefs, jewelry, towels, men's, women's and children's ready-made clothing, shirts, skirts, underwear, jackets and fur goods. We lead in Christmas and holiday goods. Old Santa Claus is here with everything you need, for old and young.
