OCALA OCCURRENCES

Woodmen meet tonight. Masons meet Thursday night. Odd Fellows meet Tuesday evening. T. M. Moore, one of the faithful and efficient employees of the postoffice, who has taken a two weeks' vacation, will return to his duties tomorrow. He greatly enjoyed his rest. Mrs. E. J. Redding returned today from a ten days' outing at Charleston. Her husband Benjamin has returned from a visit to his wife in Atlanta. Mrs. J. P. Edwards leaves Sunday for her old home near Anniston, Ala. She will be accompanied as far as Jacksonville by her husband. W. O. Luffman, one of the prominent factors in the Sparr section, was in the city today. C. V. Miller, the progressive young turpentine operator, is in Tampa on business. Messrs. C. D. Nagle and W. J. Leonard of Columbus, Ohio, brush artists for the Patton Sun Proof Paint Company, Milwaukee, are in the city demonstrating the value of their paint by decorating several buildings with that material. Prof. P. Wilson Green, wife and little adopted daughter of Belleview, were in the city this morning. He reports his stock doing well, and since he has adopted a change of pasture they are less troubled with ticks. He is confident that with a sufficient change of grazing the tick question can be satisfactorily settled. The Star regrets to hear that Miss Dorothy Lancaster is on the sick list. Will Chambers received a 5 o'clock summons this morning for his horse and carriage to be taken down to the lake, so that Mrs. Chambers and the children can have the use of the same. Miss Mattie Hough, a pleasing young lady from Union Springs, Ala., is in the city visiting her brother, Will Hough. Miss Jessie Owens, one of the successful business women of Marion county, was on our streets this morning. Carl Priest of Anthony was smiling good naturedly this morning because the long green was coming his way on a fine deal in timber land. M. J. Timmons, a leading orange grower of Citra, was in the city today. Mr. Jno. L. Edwards, after an absence of several weeks, rounding up stock and noting the progress of the same, has returned home. He reported cattle on the range in fine condition. Mr. Z. Spink of Whitney, the shingle and brick manufacturer, was in the city today, a guest of the Montezuma. Mr. C. Beville, of Bushnell, one of the Sumner counties best known citizens, was in town today and stopped at the Montezuma. Mrs. Nathan Mayo of Belleview, after a pleasant visit to her father, Dr. W. V. Newsom, has returned home. Mr. Blesch, who for a number of years has been with Mr. Paul C. Davis in his barber shop, will be manager of the shop under Mr. Geo. F. Williams' proprietorship. Mr. E. is a splendid barber and has a host of friends in the city and county, and under his management the shop will retain its high reputation for good service. LOST—Thursday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, between the Montezuma Hotel and Peysers', a pair of spectacles, plain silver frame. Finder return to the Star office. Miss Bessie Whitestone and her mother will leave Monday for Sylacauga, Ala., to visit friends at their old home. The Star wishes them a safe and pleasant journey. Now, if you are looking for something nice just after breakfast, try one of the X-Senators; mild, mellow and sweet; 5 cents everywhere. Mr. A. K. Wilson, Mrs. Schlemmer's brother, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Schlemmer, has returned to his home in Lake City. There were twenty-six arrivals at the Montezuma yesterday. Mr. R. D. Henderson, a well known naval stores operator of Umatilla, was a guest of the Montezuma yesterday. L. J. Livingston, of Tampa, is at the Montezuma. Despite the fact that the dining room is closed, the Ocala House is having a run of arrivals, and for the past three days has booked sixty-five guests. Attorney W. F. Himes of Tampa is at the Ocala House. A telegram received from Miami this morning announces the serious illness of Mrs. L. J. Lummus, who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Douglass, in that city. Will J. Chambers has joined the happy band of summer widowers whom Col. Shipman is caring for at the Montezuma.

FT. KING CAMP NO. 14

Regular monthly meeting of the Woodmen of the World will be held at Yonge's Hall Friday evening, June 13. All members requested to attend. N. I. Gottlieb, C. C. Chas. K. Sage, Clerk. What care I for Stella's eyes, Or Cynthia's brow, or Lucille's tread, When what I want is Ethel's pies, Lantha's porous home-made bread. Oh, Cleopatra's dusky tresses, They cannot charm, nor can the land. The scene of all her warm caresses, Help now with outstretched dusky hand. For, gone from her accustomed place, The kitchen goddess is no more; We can no longer murmur grace O'er well cooked food as heretofore. Instead of cooks or colored aid, A Mrs. So and So is seen. Her lady friend's laundry maid— At last night's ball she was the queen. The dishes now at our home, Unwashed they stand in many a place. Oh! for a cook that will not roam, To fill our cookless cooking place. BIRTHDAY PARTY Last Wednesday evening Miss Gertrude Kaiser celebrated her sixteenth birthday by giving a very enjoyable party to a number of her young friends at the family residence on North Magnolia street. In spite of the heavy downpour of rain on the evening of the party, which rendered it practically impossible for some of the invited guests to be present, the occasion proved thoroughly enjoyable. Delicous refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests of the evening departed, wishing the fair young hostess many happy returns of the day.

BOUGHT THE BOWLING ALLEY The Messrs. Camp have bought the bowling alley, which Mr. Strauss has had stored for the past year, and have moved it to their premises and will place it in a gymnasium, which they will build and equip at some date in the near future for their private use. MAIMED HIMSELF A negro was brought in yesterday from the camp of one of the lessees and placed in the Marion Farms hospital for treatment. The man will probably lose one of his arms from self-inflicted injuries. He chopped off two or three of his fingers, as he admits himself, to Dr. Blitch, the prison physician, so that he would not have to work, and as he did not do a great piece of surgery septic troubles set in and the arm is in a bad condition. HALF A MAN ESCAPES The convict lessees are offering a reward of $100 for the capture of a negro who escaped from the Marion Farms hospital on the night of the 10th. The man has only one arm and one leg, but he made his escape, and so far has not been recaptured. WEATHER FORECAST Washington, July 13.—Showers tonight and Saturday. A WRECK Owing to a wreck on the West Coast Line at Gulf Junction the north bound passenger train on that line had to come via Ocala this noon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk left this afternoon over the Atlantic Coast Line for Jacksonville and the Elks' Convention at Denver. It was only at the last moment that Mrs. Sistrunk could make up her mind to take the trip. McIver & MacKay have received in Ocala during the past two weeks eighteen carloads of brick, almost 200,000. There is evidently some building going on in the Brick City. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller will leave Monday for Virginia, where they will spend several weeks. Mr. John Leitner of Dannelton was in the city yesterday. Capt. John L. Inglis is in the city, a guest of the Ocala House. The workmen are tearing the insides out of the two upper floors of the Marion block, getting ready for the big improvements to be made in that property. When the new court house is completed, there will be a splendid cement sidewalk around the square. Let's follow it up by paving the streets, at least around the square, and later on, as fast as we can, the approaches to the square, for the distance of another block in all directions, and this will be the nucleus for the paving with vitrified brick of all the principal streets. The county should be willing to help with the work around the square, and the city and citizens can do the rest. Mrs. Peter Ingram has been quite sick, but is somewhat better. Master Lawrence Price of Crystal River came up to Ocala yesterday, and has been placed in the hospital for treatment. He has very bad feet, which the physicians fear will have to be operated on. Deputy Bryan installed Mrs. Will Moore as the grand of the Rebekahs last night and Mrs. R. E. Yonge vice grand. Miss Jennie Smith was elected secretary of the lodge. Mr. Sam Hoffman of Charleston, a well known traveling salesman, is at the Ocala House. Mr. George T. Leitner of Bartow is at the Ocala House. Mr. R. J. Knight of Crystal River is at the Ocala House. James and W. B. Holder of Citronelle were at the Ocala House last night. Mr. T. J. Leitner of Anthony was in the city today and made the Star an appreciated call. Mr. Leitner barbecued the meat for the Anthony picnic and barbecue on Tuesday, and it was as fine as one ever tasted. Congressman Frank Clark will erect a $6000 home in Gainesville. If the Star had its way he would have a $80,000 home.

Mr. M. Neil, one of the most successful farmers and truckers of the Geiger section, was in town today. Mr. N. makes few visits to Ocala, as he never neglects his crops and spends all his spare time with them, and never fails to win out. Mr. Connor, the nurseryman man of Tausen, was in the city last night and this morning. He took a run down to Dannelton and reports a good demand there for nursery stock.
