KERNESSE

Entertainment by Professor Northcutt and Beverly Little Lillie. A large crowd assembled at the bank's main branch to witness a unique and interesting performance.

Although the event was a family affair, with relatives and friends in attendance, the atmosphere was one of excitement and anticipation.

While the performance was one consisting only given by the Professor to his dancing class, it could have been an appropriate, well-received complimentary to the Professor by his large and enthusiastic class.

The program was a long and varied one and was given to the great pleasure and delight of all, even if it did take almost two hours to complete.

The conclusion of the evening was marked by the Spanish tenor's fine voice, a perfect finish to a splendid evening of music and dance.
