NOTICE

Of Application for Leave to Sell Minor's Land

Notice is hereby given that on the 30th day of May, A. D. 1902, I will apply to Honorable R. Bullock, county judge in and for Marion county, state of Florida, at his office in Ocala, in said county, for an order authorizing me, as guardian of the minor heirs of the estate of Ira L. and F. D. Keeler, deceased, to sell at private sale the following property belonging to said estates, towit: Lots 4, 5, 6 and 7 of block No. 79, situated, lying and being in the town of Belleview, Marion county, Florida. Said lots of land belonging to the estates of the said Ira L. and F. D. Keeler, deceased, to be sold for the best interest of said minor heirs. This 26th day of April, 1902.

J. A. Watrouse, Guardian.

THE MANATEE LEMON CO.

F. D. Waite, a former citizen of Belleview, but now manager of the Manatee Lemon Co., was in town today and to an inquiry from the Star reporter said the season in Manatee county was a good one. Their company had netted $140,000 on their fruit crop, with bright prospects for another season. Among their fruit crop they had 1100 boxes of grapefruit, some of which they sold in the grove for $6.50 a box. They experimented with nine acres of celery, which netted them $6000. They hope to do better next year.

At present they are shipping cucumbers, for which they are realizing $4.50 a crate. Their next crop will be tomatoes, which will come in about the 20th of May. The Palmetto Railroad is within eleven miles of that city and it is expected to have the cars running into that town inside of a month, which will be a red letter day when it arrives. Mr. Waite is here looking after his lands around Belleview and Eastlake. He will return home Monday.
