Mr. William Parker, who is practicing his trade in Jacksonville, has been there for several months, but is in the city now on a visit to his family.

*If you want your dresses made in the latest style and according to the most up to date fashions, carry your sewing to Mrs. Francis Thomas, at her house near the county jail.

Mr. Alverstone Smith leaves Sunday for Asbury Park, N. J. Mr. Smith has been conducting his father's business since the death of the latter, and has succeeded remarkably well in keeping it up. He sticks to his business, an element necessary in anyone who intends to succeed. We wish him a pleasant trip and a successful season.

*For good meals and the best the market affords cooked in the most palatable style, call at the restaurant next to Benus the Baker. Ben Fuent, Proprietor. 5 23 12

Mr. Jake Thomas, who fills the position of night engineer at the East Florida Ice Manufactory, by his industrious habits and strict attention to business, has won the esteem and confidence of his employers. He has received some very flattering offers from other prominent firms, even at an advance in salary, but has not accepted any of them yet.

*For good board and comfortable lodging at reasonable rates, go to the Mack House on Exposition street, Mrs. Malissa Mack, Proprietress. 3 13

Miss Minnie McDowell, of Lakeland, a graduate of the Emerson Industrial Home School, is in the city on a visit to Miss Sarah E. Rogers.

*For clean beds and a first class table at a quiet house, go to the "Yona House," next door south of the old Bazar, Mrs. Belle Williams, Proprietress. 12

Mrs. J. P. Higginbotham and her aunt, of Jacksonville, spent a few days this week in the city on a visit to Mrs. Maria Ruth.

*For hot meals, lunches, ice cream or cold drinks at all hours, day or night, call at the old Ike Tompkins' stand on S. Magnolia street and get the best. Mr. Jeff Davis, proprietor. 5 23 12

Mr. Brooks, the brother of Mr. Geo. Brooks, after spending a while in the city, returned to Monticello, his home on the Seaboard Air Line yesterday. Mr. Brooks is so well pleased with Ocala and the surrounding country that he has decided to return in the fall and purchase a farm and make this his future home. Mr. Brooks is one of the leading farmers of Jefferson county. He runs a twelve mule farm and has always been very successful. His coming here will add another farmer to our already growing list and materially increase the farming interests of our county.

*For board by the day or week, hot lunches, ice cream, cold drinks, etc., go to the old Ike Tompkins stand on St. Magnolia street and get the best. Open day and night. Jeff Davis, Proprietor. 5 27 12

Mrs. Ida Wesley, the wife of Benjamin Wesley, who went with her mother to Tampa some time ago, returned to the city Wednesday and is now living with her husband.

Mrs. Marie Ruth, an experienced cateress, has opened her restaurant, ice cream and cold drinks counter in the Mitchell block. When hungry or needing something cold to keep the temperature down, call on her and she will satisfy your appetite and your purse. 5 28 12

Mr. Claudia Feider leaves the city today for Blue Ridge Springs, Va., where he will spend the summer.

*For first class meals, hot lunches, good board by the day or week, go to the Magnolia Restaurant, corner of Magnolia and South Second street, West, Mr. Wm. Ruth, Proprietor.

Rev. C. N. Hampton, who for nine years was pastor of the Mt. Moriah Baptist church, is in the city and will preach there in the morning at the 11 o'clock service tomorrow.

Mrs. G. W. Frost is running a refreshment stand on North Magnolia street in the store formerly run by Charley Myers. For cold drinks, ice cream and other delicacies served in the best of style, call on her. 5 31 12

The Emerson Industrial Home School closed its session yesterday with an exhibition of fancy work which was executed by the girls. Those who saw the work speak in very commendable terms of the skill displayed in this work. The school has had a very successful term.

To the Advanced Pupils of Howard Academy and Others

This is to inform you that I have secured rooms up stairs in the old Bazaar building for the purpose of teaching night school in all English branches. I will also teach the Ben Pittman system of short hand and type writing. My terms are as follows: Short hand, per month, $2; two lessons each week. Type writing, full course, $5. Literary studies, per month, $1.

Tuesday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock. T. L. McCoy, Instructor.
