CONSIDERS THEIR COMFORT

Judge Hart, Who Presides Over the Coopers-Sharpe Trial, Tries to Make the Jurors Happy

Nashville, Jan. 23.—Very few people turned out to attend the Coopers-Sharp trial yesterday, because of the wearisome wait the day before during the delay in securing jurors.

When court was convened there was the usual rush of petitioners with requests that they be excused from jury duty. Judge Hart waived all of them aside, with the terse comment that no others would be excused from jury duty save as they were shown to be ineligible by law. He commented that in this way only did he expect to see a jury completed.

At the request of the lawyers Judge Hart consented to a delay of forty minutes during which the attorneys held a conference. When the jurors were ordered out of the room a deputy asked the judge if he might allow the men to play cards during the interim. "Yes, and roll dice on the floor, too, if they wish," answered the judge, facetiously.

Encouraged by the judge's good nature Juror J. M. Whitmire addressed him. "Your honor," he said, "I have been used to my morning toddy for a good many years, and I missed it powerfully this morning. The deputy wouldn't send for it for me. Can't I get one—just one—every morning during the trial?"

"Mr. Deputy Sheriff," said the judge in his most judicial tones, "the constitution prohibits any unusual or cruel punishment. See to it that those gentlemen who want to have a toddy get it this morning and every morning hereafter."

The task of selecting the remainder of the jury is in progress.

TRAGEDY IN THE TRANSVAL

A Hundred and Sixty Men Drowned by the Flooding of a Gold Mine

Johannesburg, South Africa, Jan. 22.—One hundred and sixty men were drowned in one of the gold mines near this city yesterday, when a dam which held back the water of the river from flooding the mining district gave way and the great body of water swept down upon the excavations.

Ten of the one hundred and sixty were white men and the balance were natives, mostly Kaffirs, who form the bulk of the labor employed in the mines.

The great dam has been strengthened from time to time of late, and it was believed to be strong enough to withstand the pressure of the swollen body of water, which had largely increased of late owing to the excessive rains. There was no preliminary breaks ,and so the miners had gone to work as usual in the morning, having no fear of the dam.

The dam burst at about the center of the huge filling, and in an instant with a roar, the waters swept downward into the valley and overwhelmed the men at work. Those who were nearest to the entrance of the mine were enabled to get out in time and make for higher ground.

A Religious Author's Statement

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. Sold by all druggists.

ACQUITTAL OF MRS. PALMER

The Tampa Woman Who Killed Her Husband to Protect a Little Girl from Assault

(Tampa Times, 22nd.)

After debating but a short while, the jury in the case of Mrs. A. Pauline Palmer, charged with the murder of her husband, Luke Palmer, returned a verdict of not guilty at 2:25 o'clock this afternoon. In spite of Judge Wall's warning to the audience not to make any demonstration, the verdict was received with a storm of applause when it was read in open court. The defendant, flushed a rich crimson, and turned towards her mother, a faint smile played about her mouth and a long sigh of relief at the welcome freedom from the suspense and ordeal of the trial escaped her lips.

NEELY MAY COME NEXT

A Prominent Tallahassee Attorney is Mentioned as the Successor to Gilchrist

Savannah, Jan. 23.—The prohibition question and that of the conviet lease will be leading questions before the next Florida legislature, is the opinion of Mr. John L. Neely, of Tallahassee, who spent yesterday in Savannah.

Mr. Neely is a member of the legislature from Leon county. He was the most prominent candidate for speaker of the next house, which convenes in April, until he withdrew in favor of his friend, Judge Carter of Gainesville. Judge Neely says that Mr. Carter will be elected, although Ion L. Farris, of Duval county, is making a good fight for the distinction.

Judge Neely while being one of the youngest is one of the most forceful men of the state, and his friends predict that he will be the next governor after Gilchrist. He has been engaged until recently in the practice of law at the state capital with Attorney General Ellis. Mr. Neely is everywhere recognized as an able attorney, and his career in the legislature to come will undoubtedly mark him for higher honors.

A QUEEN OF HIS OWN

A Wise Man Who Preferred an American Home to a Savage Kingdom

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 23.—Charles Haffkee, of this city, married Miss Margaret T. Barr, for love of whom he resigned the office of king of a tribe of the Philippine Islands.

Haffke, as King Carlos, ruled for three months over the Ilcanos tribe of Filipinos, which comprises more than 100,000 persons. Haffke was on the battleship Oregon during the Spanish American War. Later he became a court reporter. Then the Ilcanos took a liking to him and made him their king.

His subjects urged him to return to them when he left for America six months ago, but now that he has a wife he cannot again mount the throne, only unmarried men being eligible.

Filed Petition One Hour and Withdrew it the Next

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 23.—Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, filed a suit yesterday for divorce against W. H. Leavitt, the artist, who is in Paris. Shortly after the petition waks withdrawn. The relations between the Leavitts have been strained for several months and a suit for divorce has been anticipated.

THE MEANEST MAN IN TOWN

is the one who always wears a frown, is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's not the poor fellow's fault, it's his liver and digestion that make him feel so miserable, he can't help being disagreeable. THE SONG OF A RUNAWAY COW

Every lover of the beautiful melodies of Ireland will be interested in the song to be given with the New York Sunday World next Sunday. It is "Co-Boss," the plaintive, half-humorous, musical story of a runaway cow, one of the prettiest and most successful of all the songs which Joseph O'Mara is singing in the Irish romantic comedy "Peggy Machree" at the Broadway Theater, New York. Music by arrangement with the John Church Company.

SCIENTIFIC SPANKING

consists in punishment only when a child is actually bad. Some mothers think that all crying is badness, it's not. When a baby cries, look for pins or some external cause, if you can't find them give the baby White's Cream Vermifuge as the chances are it is suffering from worms which keep it hungry and cross all the time. Pleasant to take—sure in its action. Price 25 cents. Sold by Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.
