THE WILLS COMEDY CO.

Which Will be at the Armory Three Nights Next Week

The Wills Comedy company promised to the public last night a continuous roar of laughter from the raise of the curtain on "Two Old Cronies" until the grand finale, and they did it. The man who didn't laugh at the Lyric last night, was a wooden man, a hopeless cynic, or an insane Englishman. The largest crowd of the season was out and they laughed until the very floor of the theater shook, so universal was the enjoyment of the ver-increasing fun.

John B. Wills was the funniest funmaker. Although he was on the stage time after time and when the audience would think that he had made enjoyment enough for one night he would come again with something just as rich as before. He ept them laughing from start to finish and was a whole show by himself.

The rest of the company were not far behind in bringing out the fun and entertainment. Kate Helston in the song "Where the Sweet Potatoes Grow" was also one of the hits of the evening. A novel and entertaining dance was the "doll dance" given by four of the chorus girls.—New Orleans Picayune.

CROUP

THERE IS NOTHING that strikes terror to the hearts of parents more than to be awakened in the night by the ringing cough which accompanies an attack of croup. The child may retire with nothing but a slight cold and a few hours later the family be aroused by the ominous symptoms. Every home where there are small children should be prepared for these sudden attacks, as prompt treatment is necessary. Do not experiment with remedies of doubtful value, but get that has been in use for nearly forty years and never known to fail.

Mr. Homer Krohn, of Lisbon, Iowa, in a letter to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy praises this medicine for what it has done for his children. He says: "It has not only saved them once but many a time. Only two weeks ago my boy had the croup so bad in the night that had it not been for having a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house he would have choked before a doctor could have gotten to the house. It is a medicine that no one should be without at any time." It is pleasant to take and many children like it.

"We guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says W. M. Parish, Palmerston, Ontario. "Out of the many bottles sold last winter not one was returned. We recommend it especially for children with croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its prompt cures of coughs, colds and croup. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse an attack of croup may be averted. This medicine is entirely free from narcotics or injurious substances of any kind and may be given to the little ones with absolute safety.

Attacks of croup are most likely to occur during the early winter months, and every family with young children should be prepared for it. Keep a bottle of CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY in your home. It only costs a quarter, large size 50 cents. Your druggist sells it.

A DISASTROUS RUNAWAY

Both were badly bruised and will be laid up for a few days. They were assisted into the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore, where medical assistance was rendered them.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package Sold by all druggists.

Wholesome Candy

10c. and 25c. THE JAR.

Huyler's SCREW CAP JAR GOODS

Some folks think that because we are so old-maidish in our carefulness regarding everything we do, and every thing we sell that they can't buy little-priced candy here.

Nonsense!

They are Huyler's 10c. and 25c. bottled goods—always as fresh as morning dew—simply excellent.

Why little-priced candy is a hobby of ours. We sell tons and tons of it—good, pure, wholesome candy—not the highly colored, pretty-to-look-at-sort, mark you, but honest candy.

Huyler's—always fresh. "Uncle Sam" charges but 1c. an ounce to carry it anywhere. A 1 to 5-pound box goes by express anywhere in U. S. for 25c.
