C. L. Bittinger and R. R. Carroll, Editors and Publishers. C. L. BITTINGER, Editor R. R. CARROLL, Business Manager BELLEVIEW'S CELEBRATION

Notwithstanding the strenuousness of Jupiter Pluvius last week in his efforts to saturate the earth with moisture and drown out all the patriotic fever in and around Belleview and in which he partially succeeded, yet notwithstanding this serious drawback, through the efforts of Mrs. Washburn, president of the Belleview W. C. T. U., who through living in Ocala, took time by the forelock Saturday morning, drove down to the city of Belleview oaks, aroused the people and said let's celebrate if the rains do descend, for this town is founded on a rock.

So the good housewives who thought had drowned out all thought of a celebration, got busy, the town bell rung and that is a summons for every one to get busy, no matter whether time or date is given, so where quiet reigned at 9:30 a. m., the bustle of preparation soon was heard. Messrs. Shedd, Bryant, Stanley and Gale got busy and by 10:30 a goodly crowd had assembled and the work of getting ice water, lemonade and cream, started and in an hour the ladies were prepared to supply all demands and when the noon hour arrived the town hall that had been provided with tables and seats, was ready for the noon meal, and one good enough for kings and queens and a marvel when it is remembered that at 9 o'clock not a morsel of that food had been provided for.

Justice having been done the splendid meal, the program as outlined began in the M. E. church nearby. Judge L. DeGrange Hopkins, who is indeed a pastmaster in the art of presiding, was called on to perform the honors of master of ceremonies. The judge's introductions were indeed complimentary to all those who participated. The following was the program as rendered:

Singing: America and was done with a will, Miss Edna Nichols, a natural musician, leading on the organ. Prayer by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. J. Thompson. Then followed the flag song by 16 children, waving the Stars and Stripes with inspirational effect. Miss Irene Thompson, daughter of the pastor, then recited an original poem by Charles O'Malley Foy, which was full of patriotic sentiment and a gem on Independence day. The choir then sang "Vote Them Out," when C. L. Bittinger, editor of the Star, made a short but patriotic talk, on why Americans, either by nativity or adoption, should ever remember and never be too busy to suitably observe and celebrate the nation's birthday, and repeating eulogistic sentiments on the living, unselfish and consecrated patriotism of George Washington, who was truly the father of his country and well deserved the loving title of first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen. A song, Out for Prohibition, was rendered and the orator of the day, Rev. Addyman Smith, the presiding elder of the district with residence at De Land, made a masterful address. As we are admonished by the foreman to cut things short today, we shall give a few of the extracts of his admirable address tomorrow.

By the way, Rev. Addyman Smith is an Englishman by birth, but an American by adoption. The choir then sang, Sons of Saviors Mission. Mr. Harry E. Packham, of Ocala, was next introduced as the secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of Ocala, who had a carefully prepared address on the economics of the legislation, but said owing to the lateness of the hour and the fact the time had come for Belleview and Levon baseball teams to play the game, he paid a neat compliment to the Belleview W. C. T. U. and the speakers who preceded him, putting in a word of commendation for the master of ceremonies. He excused himself with the remarks if any time during the coming state-wide prohibition, he would gladly give the people of Belleview a talk and gladly accepted his proffer.

Notes The Star will publish Mr. Foy's poem in a day or two. Read it. You will better appreciate your country and the man who versified so gloriously for his country and his country's freedom.

The editor of the Star recalled the fact that on the 4th of July, 1884, that a sojourner in Whitesville, now known as Summerfield, was instrumental in pulling off with the good people of that village the first 4th of July celebration ever indulged in by the people of the southern portion of Marion county. It was in 1884. It was a genuine innovation. A novelty that caught the public ear and in consequence it drew together fully 600 people and was a gathering that was an honor to Marion on that occasion.

Those who assisted in the good work were Messrs. Charley and Will White, Lemuel Dillard, Sam Frink, both dead, Fred Lucius, now a resident of Gary, a suburb of Tampa, Dr. W. V. Newsom and his venerable father, W. V. Newsom, Sr., but since gathered to his fathers, Uncle Frank, the gin man of that section, he too has joined the silent majority, the Caraway boys, Louis and Oscar, now living in other portions of the state. If there were other immediately living in the community we cannot recall them.

Among the orators of the day were Dr. Maxwell, a noted Ocala physician of that day and Dr. Brown, who became famous in Belleview and later in Ocala as a cancer practitioner, both gone to the other shore.

After the celebration, under the spreading oaks at Summer's Pond, the young people held a dance that night at Dillard's hall and fully 100 couples were present, while the ladies of the village sold ice cream and cake for the benefit of the M. E. church to be erected. They did a land office business and the writer remembers he sold and resold a cake that brought $26. Tom Gary and Tax Collector E. L. Carney remember the dance, having come over from Lake Weir to see the rural beauty and chivalry shake the sand out of their shoes and the sandpapers from their socks. Louie Caraway was floor manager. It was a great occasion and still dwells green in the memory of those who participated. The like of which has never been duplicated.

Judge Hopkins indulged in a few pleasant reminiscences. He said the day represented the 25th anniversary of the birth of the W. C. T. Union in Belleview and that 24 years ago, being then at Welchton, having heard of the fame of the town of Belleview made an inspection of the same and was so pleased with what he saw and heard that a little later he became one of them and has never regretted his choice. He spoke of the tone of the town and its love for peace and order. He said for over two years his authorities have not been called on officially to take note of a breach of the peace or to issue a warrant for any offense of any nature. That he said was a thanksgiving day and 4th of July proclamation rolled into one and glory enough for one declaration.

It is worthy of note that any one buying a lot in Belleview and erecting a house on same cannot be used to sell intoxicants in. Mrs. Charles Brown, a devoted and enthusiastic member of the Belleview W. C. T. U., pinned a white ribbon on every voter that enjoyed the dinner. It was a pleasure to see present at this party celebration Mr. R. C. Ridge, a pioneer of that town, who unfortunately has been suffering from fever for the past six weeks, was just strong enough to be in the pleasure of the meeting. Belleview with its beautifully shaded streets and Lake Lillian with its fresh supply of water presented an attractive appearance. The merchants, Messrs. Gale and Nott and C. A. Tremer, the popular and efficient postmaster of the town, were doing a rushing business. The game of ball was the chief resistance of the day and was a sight to see. Rex Nichols umpired the game. Up to the sixth inning no runs had been made. Then Levon scored one and made two in the next inning and a two-bagger by one of its men added two more, making five runs. Levon were jubilant and Belleview cast down. Belleview changed pitchers. Albert Pelet retired and Sam Barrett swung his good right arm and directed the sphere and luck changed and in two innings Belleview led Levon, but hour growing late we had to track for home, but from the shouts that pierced our ears as we drove off and with Belleview at the bat we knew the batters of the beautiful city of oaks were in the lead. And here we rest with kindly remembrance to all and appreciation of the favor with which Belleview received the Star.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local means, pronounced it an incurable disease. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 30 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MURDERER IN JAIL John Nelson, a negro man, who killed Lemon Graham, another negro, at Fort McCoy on Dec. 13th, last, over a matter of five cents, was arrested last week in Jacksonville by Deputies Jones and Crawford and jailed there. Sheriff J. P. Galloway went up Sunday and brought the man to Ocala this morning. He is now in jail here, where he will await trial.

WILLIE MORRIS KILLED Willie Morris, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morris, met with a tragic death Saturday night about 11 o'clock in the western part of the city. Mr. Morris, who had recently gone into the electric construction business for himself, had a contract to wire a house in that part of the city for lights. The contract called for the completion of the job before midnight or the price would be forfeited, and with his assistant, Mr. Pindoff, Mr. Morris was rushing the work to completion.

He had finished the inside wiring and had the big wire that connects the house with the primary wire of the city's main wire connected and ready to unite with the house. How he got his connection wire attached to the primary wire at the top of the pole where 2,300 volts were passing thru, without being killed, is more than is understood. The pole being new and was probably the principal reason. When the long coil of insulated wire was connected and brought down to the house the current was so strong in it, carrying as it did the full voltage from the primary wire, that some of those present amused themselves by burning the wood work with the end of the wire.

Willie measured off the required length from the coil to connect the house and applied his steel pliers to cut it, failing for some unaccountable reason to take the necessary precautions to protect himself. As soon as his pliers cut through the insulation of the wire he received the full current, drew up in a knot and fell dead.

News of the tragedy soon spread and the body was brought to town. Smith & Roberts prepared it for burial and the funeral took place today at 10 o'clock. Rev. H. E. Gabby, of the Baptist church, conducted the funeral services and the body was laid to rest in the annex to Greenwood cemetery. Willie Morris was a great favorite in Ocala. He had a most lovable disposition and was bright and promising. Everyone liked him and bespoke for him a successful future. His terrible death at the very threshold of manhood is a fearful blow to his parents and brothers and sisters. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to them in their bereavement.

JOHN T. LEWIS, JR., SERIOUSLY HURT

Sunday morning while bathing in the lake at Oklawaha with his little sister, John T. Lewis, Jr., the 14-year-old son of Convict Inspector John T. Lewis, of Moss Bluff, received an injury which may cost him his life.

From the best information we can secure, Arthur W. Hall, a young man 25 years of age, came out on the end of the little dock where the children were and sat down. In jumping off the dock young Lewis splashed some water on him, but instead of moving back out of the way, Hall resented the matter and cursed Lewis most vilely. Picking up a scantling, Hall threw it at the child, and saying, "I guess that will stop you." The timber struck Lewis in the head and he sank like lead.

Hall made no attempt to rescue the stricken boy, though he now says he just threw the timber to splash water on young Lewis. A young son of Mr. A. W. Young of Oklawaha, who was present, jumped into the water and pulled Lewis out, but when he saw that the boy was apparently dead, fainting himself and both fell back into the lake.

A traveling man who was attracted to the scene by this time, jumped in and rescued both boys. Young Lewis was brought to Ocala on the 1 o'clock train. His father, who was at home, was notified, and accompanied his son to Ocala. The lad was unconscious all the time.

The boy was operated on at the hospital, his skull trepanned and a piece half as large as one's hand was removed. John rallied after the operation and is doing as well as could be expected and the many friends of the family hope for him a speedy recovery.

Hall was arrested this morning on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Lewis and will be held by the sheriff awaiting the condition of young Lewis. The entire affair is much regretted. It is very unlikely that Mr. Hall had any intention of seriously injuring the lad, but his action, to say the least, was most unthoughtful.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless and safe system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts, will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This wonderful specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of the world. Send for a free postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

AFTER TWENTY YEARS Husband and Wife Will Try to Make Amends for a Trivial Dispute Tifton, Ga., July 3.—True love will sometimes find its object after a while, although it adopts various and many channels to reach it. Twenty-five years ago, near Helena, W. R. Thomas and Miss Edith Rugg were united in marriage. They lived together more or less happily for five years, when one night they quarreled because the husband brought whisky home and separated.

Neither heard anything of the other's whereabouts for twenty years. Thomas married again. Mrs. Thomas married S. A. Perry, a cigarmaker by trade, who died several years ago. For some time she has been running a cigar factory at Sylvester, Ga. A few days since she went on an excursion to Tampa, Fla., and while there visited one of the largest cigar factories for the purpose of buying a supply of tobacco. She asked to see the superintendent. Despite the twenty years that had intervened since she saw him last, Mrs. Perry recognized her first husband. They soon renewed old acquaintances, and were married at Sylvester Wednesday.

THE HOT WEATHER DEMORALIZES HUSBANDS

Seven Men in an Indiana Jail for Beating their Wives Whiting, Ind., July 3.—Seven men in jail for beating their wives will plead in court that the hot wave drove them to assault. The most serious of the attacks was made by James Brown who threw a shoe at his wife and tore off one of her ears. He was fined $25.

Returning home last night he beat his wife so fiercely that she probably will die. He said his anger against her had been heated to frenzy by the weather. Thomas Bosnock knocked his wife down and kicked her in the face. John Brezina interfered. While the two men were fighting the woman hurried to the police station and swore out a warrant for Brezina, charging him with assaulting her husband.

In her absence her husband whipped her would-be protector into unconsciousness. Bosnock said he also was crazed by the heat. The other five wifebeaters also charge their rage to the weather.
