JAMES SHEPPARD BRINSON

The Star takes pleasure in presenting the following data about the life, death and burial of the old and honored veteran and pioneer, Mr. James Sheppard Brinson, whose death occurred on the afternoon of the Fourth of July, at the home of his son, Mr. J. Brinson. The data was furnished by his son, Mr. J. H. Brinson, superintendent of schools for Marion.

Mr. Brinson was born in Jefferson county, Ga., July 1, 1821, lacking three days of rounding out his 89th birthday. He was married to Miss Anna Redding in his native state and came to the Orange Lake section in 1848 and later settled on the Oklawaha river, where he ever afterward made his home.

Nine children blessed the union of Mr. Brinson and Miss Redding, five boys and four girls, all of whom are living but two daughters. The children are J. J. Ben, D. B. W. H. and H. B. Brinson, all of Eureka, but the last named, who lives at Oxford. His daughters are Mrs. Martha McGeehe of Punta Gorda and Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, of Citronelle.

Mr. Brinson had always been a consistent Christian, a member of the Baptist church. He was one of the charter members of the Marston Masonic Lodge, Fort McCoy, was buried by the lodge, W. M. John W. Stevens remarking that a year ago the lodge had four members whose united ages were 336. Mr. Brinson being one of them, but during the year three of the aged veterans had crossed the river.

Mr. Brinson lost his wife some five years ago and his remains were interred by the grave of his wife in the Eureka graveyard. It was the purpose of his children and grandchildren, as had been the custom for some years, to indulge in a family reunion on his 89th birthday. For that purpose his daughter, Mrs. Martha McGeehe of Punta Gorda, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hamp Brinson, of Oxford, had gone to the home of Mr. J. J. Brinson to assist in preparing for the anticipated feast.

Mr. Brinson enjoyed good health until the Wednesday before his death, when he began a falling rapidly and death came from the infirmities of old age. He was a man of sterling worth, a good citizen, a brave soldier during the war between the states in Captain Joshua McGeehe's company and the last of that noble band of civic warriors. He had so lived that he left the world better for having lived in it, an example worthy of emulation.

SOME BIG MELONS YET

Mr. J. M. Meffert yesterday sent to the proprietors of the Star each a 75-pound watermelon. The melons were fresh and fine and not at all sunburned. Mr. Meffert raised these melons on his big Lowell farm and has a force of hands now engaged in sowing seed from these select melons for planting again.

Mr. Ben Rheimauer was down town yesterday afternoon for the first time since his serious illness. He went to the store of C. Rheimauer & Bro., and while there held a regular reception. No sooner did friends spy him than they rushed forward to tender congratulations. Mr. Rheimauer looks thin but has a good color and with a change of air and climate, which he will seek north next week, he will soon regain his normal strength and be himself again.

Mr. Henry Sistrunk, Ocala's popular city clerk, while absent on the east coast went to Key West, part of the way on the East Coast extension. He said there are over a thousand men employed on the work and the extension is being rapidly completed, the idea being to finish it by January 2, 1910, Mr. Flagger's birthday, on which day Mr. Flagger will eat dinner in Key West. Mr. Sistrunk said the islands along the line of road were possessed of many cocconut trees and the people were enjoying the milk from the same. Henry said the only drawback to that country is the mosquito, which at night are very numerous.

Major and Mrs. L. T. Izlar have returned from their visit to friends in South Carolina. We understand Mrs. Izlar's health is not so good as when she left, but hope her return home will be the means of restoring her to health.

Mrs. William A. Shoemaker of Columbus, Ohio, who was at the bedside of her brother, Dr. W. H. Powers, has gone to Jacksonville to visit her mother ere returning home.

General T. D. Lancaster instead of spending the summer on Shell Island, by the advice of his physician, will go to the mountains or North Carolina.

Mrs. Clarence Phillips of Fulford, Ga., is expected tomorrow for an extended visit to her sisters, Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. George Taylor.

Mrs. T. J. Blalock of Madison, Fla., arrived today to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. George Taylor. Dr. Blalock, formerly of Madison, has removed to Macon, Ga., where he will continue his profession.

The city court was busy yesterday and this morning raking in the shekels. This morning $285 were added to the city treasury.

Dr. A. R. Toph is giving the front of the Montezuma a coat of white paint.

J. C. Geiger, who runs the delivery wagon for the Ocala Steam Laundry, has moved into the country and occupies his brother's new cottage, just east of the Fort King Baptist church.

George Stein and daughter, Miss Mary Stein, will leave next Wednesday for Baltimore via the Merchants' & Miners Line from Jacksonville.

P. Carboni has purchased the North Magnolia street fruit store of S. A. Moses & Bro.

Mr. Foxworth of Levon, was a caller in town today.

Mr. P. A. Stamps, formerly manager of the grocery department of M. Fiebel & Son's store, has gone to accept a position as Pullman car conductor. Mrs. Stamps has gone to Tennessee to visit friends.

LOCAL LEGISLATION

The city council met last night with all members present except Messrs. Jones and Duval. Mr. Helvenston submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted and a copy ordered sent to the family: "Whereas, by the inscrutable providence of the Divine Ruler of the universe, Dr. William Herbert Powers has been removed from the large sphere of usefulness, which he so ably filled, we, the city council of Ocala, desire to put on record the keen sense of loss which, as guardians of the public health, we feel in his demise.

"Not only has a shadow fallen on a happy home but the city mourns in the loss of an official, vigilant, intelligent and efficient member of the board of health.

"As a physician in his private practice he was kind and sympathetic and as a public spirited citizen his influence and efforts were directed for the public good.

"Resolved, first, that we, the city council, hereby express our sincere sympathy with the mother, wife, son and other relatives in their sore bereavement.

"Resolved, second, that these resolutions be sent to the daily papers for publication and also to the family."

The removal of the hydrant from near Benjamin's old ice factory to near the Peter Ingram property, for which the Ocala Water company wanted $180 was referred to the finance committee.

The city attorney reported the dismissal of several suits against the city for impounding of stock and was instructed to bring suit against the bondsmen if the pound fees were not paid on time.

City Attorney C. L. Sistrunk reported that the state supreme court had decided the suit of the city vs the county in favor of the county, and the city attorney was requested to file a motion for a rehearing of the case.

Mr. Helvenston offered an ordinance to prevent any person dealing in vegetables to offer for sale said products unless the same was screened from flies, dirt, etc., which includes dealers in confectionary, fruit, etc. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Helvenston also introduced an ordinance for the cleaning of closets, which was referred to the judiciary committee.

Quite a number of bills were approved. The report of the finance committee was received and adopted. The city attorney was requested to look into and report on sidewalk ordinance at next meeting.

MEETING OF THE VETERANS

Marion Camp of U. C. V. held its monthly meeting yesterday in the city hall. The following members were present: Alfred Ayer, J. L. Beck, F. W. Blitch, H. W. Douglas, W. D. Emmer, M. P. Frink, L. M. Graham, F. E. Harris, R. A. Kelsey, W. Kilpatrick, J. H. Livingston, H. W. Long, T. D. Lancaster, W. E. McGahagin, Robert Neal, C. C. Priest, F. M. Townsend, E. T. Williams.

General H. W. Long, brigade commander, appointed Alfred Ayer adjutant general chief of staff in place of Capt. W. L. Ditto, now living in Jacksonville. New Orleans headquarters reported formation of 38 camps since the Memphis reunion. Resolutions of thanks passed at the Memphis reunion were read, approving the action of President Roosevelt in restoring the name of Jefferson Davis to the tablet on Cabin John bridge spanning the Potomac river near Washington; also expressing the pleasure and sentiment of the passing away of sectional differences.

An order was read from Gen. C. E. Evans, general commander, thanking the people of Memphis and of Tennessee for the splendid provisions made for entertainment of those attending the late national reunion in the city of Memphis, which will be remembered as one of the greatest reunions ever held.

Instructions from pension department at Tallahassee were read, showing how all applications must be made out. Dr. J. M. T. Christian announced the death of Jerry Walters, a brave Confederate soldier, though not a member of this camp. He said the deceased comrade had left his sisters destitute.

Major Lancaster announced the death of William McAteer, whom he said was in good circumstances.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

J. L. Billingsley, who was private secretary to the governor during the Jennings administration and who was later in the legal department of the state government during the Broward administration, has been in Washington for several months taking special instructions in law studies, including constitutional law from Justice Harlan and common carriers from Chief Justice Peelle of the court of claims. In addition he has been writing text and editing an article on treaties and international law for a New York book publishing company. He has now finished this work and was quite successful. At present Mr. Billingsley is in Canada enjoying a well-earned vacation. He will sail on the Great Lakes for Chicago, then go to Ann Arbor, where he will take a review course in law. In a letter to a friend here Mr. Billingsley says: "We do not realize how much we love the old state and her people until we are separated from them as I have been. But you can bet I won't be away much longer. I am coming back just as soon as I can and live and die there."

SHIP, CREW AND PASSENGERS BURNED Victoria, B. C., July 7.—When the Japanese steamship Nihonkai Maru was burned to the water's edge six miles off Aomori, on the Chinese coast, 149 miles lives, including those of the entire crew of sixteen, were lost. Articles received here show it to have been one of the most pathetic tragedies of recent years of the Asian seas.

JOE LEE'S JOB IN JEOPARDY

Lily Whites are Trying to Oust Him in Favor of J. N. Stripling.

The recent Florida legislature passed resolutions asking representatives in congress to urge the president of the United States to appoint a white man to the position of collector of internal revenue of Florida, which important position has for many years been held by Joe Lee, a prominent negro politician of Jacksonville.

Joe Lee has been in control of the alleged republican machine in this state, and the manner in which political affairs have been conducted has aroused much opposition, hundreds of white republicans declining to affiliate, but standing steadfast by the principles of their party.

The legislature of the "Lily White" republicans in the state in J. N. Stripling, and hundreds of his friends in both the democratic and republican parties have urged him to seek the important position now held by Joe Lee.

Mr. Stripling at first hesitated because of his new law practice, but his friends have prevailed upon him to accept the place should he be chosen by the president. Mr. Stripling enjoys the close personal friendship of the Florida representatives in the National congress, and the members will doubtless do effective work in his behalf.

Mr. Stripling's friends next week will become active in his behalf, and will endeavor to have the action of the legislature ratified.

These friends, however, realize the control that Joe Lee exerts over the republican machine. They appreciate his power, but the declaration made by President Taft that as far as possible Federal positions in white communities has given them a great deal of encouragement. — Jacksonville Metropolis.

ACCOUNTING FOR THE HONEY In one of the city's outlying sections is an old resident whose homestead is still rustic enough for the maintenance of a cow, a few chickens and other accompaniments of real country life. Says the New York Post, "The owner, in summertime, likes to invite city children—the sons and daughters of friends—to visit him. A recent guest was a small girl whose previous experience had been confined largely to the constricted areas of Manhattan, but she evidently was averse to displaying her ignorance of life in the open. When the host was showing her the little farm and its attractions she assumed a know-it-all attitude. The cow, the chickens, everything was glimpsed with apparent unconcern or studied indifference. And later, at the dinner table, when the visitor saw a bowl of honey, she said patently: "Ah, I see you have a bee."

PIRATES TERRIBLY PUNISHED Gang Roasted to Death in a Sumatra Cave Victoria, B. C., July 7.—News comes by the Empress of Japan of a tragic sequel to the daring capture of a Chinese junk and the massacre of eight members of its crew off Singapore six weeks ago.

The pirates of this amazing outrage almost within sight of the leading British city of Mid-Asia made good their escape by hiding in the fastnesses of Sumatra. Their further pursuit and punishment was undertaken by the Dutch authorities, to whose government the island belongs.

A military force sent against them located the miscreants, strongly entrenched in a cave. They refused to surrender when called upon, and the promise that the women and children would be given immunity brought a fusillade of missiles from a party of these supposed to be non-combatants. The Dutch lieutenant who worried himself into the cave to reason with the pirates at bay was cast out so seriously wounded with many spears that he died soon after.

Stern measures were then decided upon, the Dutch commander ordering that a fire be lighted at the mouth of the cavern, a strong wind blowing from seaward. When this fire was allowed to die down and volunteers from the Dutch soldiers entered it was found that the crimes of the wretched Chinese had been atoned for, not one of the pirates remaining alive. Thirty-one bodies were subsequently recovered and given hurried burial, these including nine women and two children of tender years.
