HOBOS FIND HAPPINESS

And May Retain It if the Bride Doesn't Insist on Continuing to Wear the Breaches

Trenton, N. J., July 12.—Miss Minnie Edwards, of Youngstown, O., and William Bedford Kelsey, who hails from Chicago, were married yesterday in the coal yards of the Pennsylvania railroad here by Justice of the Peace Henry Constadine.

On the marriage papers the word "tramp" was written after the printed word "occupation" in each case. If the story told by bride and bridegroom is true the wedding is the culmination of a romance which began a week ago when they became acquainted while train riders.

Miss Edwards told the justice she got tired working in a shirt factory in Youngstown a month ago and decided to see some of the country. Donning male attire she cast her lot with the followers of hobos, believing her disguise would hide her sex.

All went well in the early days of her experience. She says she rode in box cars, coal cars and "below" on passengers without detection either on the part of police authorities or railroad men. A week ago she met Kelsey, who confidentially related the story of his life. He told her how an untrue friend had made him an outcast from his family and how he had become a tramp.

She gave him her sympathy and soon revealed her identity. It was a case of mutual love at first sight. Still in male attire, the girl was arrested here by Constable Hendrickson, as was also her companion. She informed the constable of her sex, pleading for her liberty and declared her intention of wedding Kelsey.

Hendrickson, after consulting several railroad men, decided that the best test of sincerity on the part of the two principals would be a marriage ceremony. He called up the county clerk to grant a marriage license and sent it out by a messenger boy to the yards where the prisoners were being detained.

Justice Constadine was sent for and the bride and bridegroom, still stationed in the soft coal, were united in wedlock. The constable gave the bridal pair a free bill of health to "freight" it to Philadelphia, where Kelsey said, he had relatives who would give him financial aid.

Three engine drivers and a fireman signed the wedding certificate. All were bound to secrecy, but the strange wedding leaked out and today it is the gossip of the city. Nothing can be learned of the whereabouts of the couple.

A HORRIBLE HOLD-UP

"About ten years ago my brother was held-up in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless consumption," writes W. R. Liscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles. He is a well man today." It's quick to relieve and the surest cure for weak or sore lungs, hemorrhages, coughs and colds, bronchitis, grippe, asthma, and all bronchial affections.

Three engine drivers and a fireman signed the wedding certificate. All were bound to secrecy, but the strange wedding leaked out and today it is the gossip of the city. Nothing can be learned of the whereabouts of the couple.

Eau Gallie, July 12.—W. H. H. Gleason, a well known citizen of this city, has sold 2,500 acres of farming lands to the Japanese colony and says that since then there will be 200 of them to settle thereon. Oh! is the leader and speaks very favorably of the opportunity offered for establishing paying farms.

HORRIBLE TALE FROM HUNGARY

Peasant Woman Murdered Her Husband who had Just Returned from America

London, July 12.—It is reported from a village near Steinamanger, in Hungary, that a farmer named Veres, who had just returned from America, was murdered by his wife without her knowing that he was her husband. Veres emigrated twelve years ago, and after making a small fortune decided to return to the village where he had left his wife. He arrived there on Friday night and the first persons he met were his two cousins, who, however, only recognized him after being told who he was, so greatly had he altered in appearance. Before saying them Veres remarked that if his wife and mother-in-law, who lived together in a lonely house outside the village, should fail to recognize him, he would not at once reveal his identity, but would hear what they thought of the absent man.

Suggestion of Murder
When the house neither the wife nor the mother-in-law guessed who the stranger was who begged for food and shelter for the night, whereupon, he promised payment, opening his handbag containing money and valuables to prove his ability. The two women admitted him, but the contents of the handbag suggested to them the murder of the stranger, whom they believed nobody in the village had seen, and whose disappearance therefore would not attract attention.

They brought him wine, containing cyanide of potassium, used as rat poison by the peasants here, which the unfortunate man drank and soon died. The women buried his body in the garden that same night. When, on the following morning, the cousins came to hear of the returned husband was received, the horrified women made a clean breast of the crime and surrendered to the police.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

THINK THEY HAVE A CLUE

New York Police Have Picked Up Another of Leon Ling's Trails

New York, July 12.—A mysterious woman, said to be Mrs. May Ellen Stewart, has told the police of this city that Leon Ling, murderer of Sigel, had a white wife in Philadelphia who would tell where the Chinaman is hiding. This woman claims that she knows both the Chinaman and this alleged wife very well and that the Chinese societies in New York are sending information and money to Mrs. Ling, who in turn transmits it to Ling. The police think so well of her story that they have put men to work on the clue.

Many a lame, weak and aching back is had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. People from every state in the Union are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. E. M. Edwards, living on Call St., Starke, Fla., says: "I never used a remedy that proved of such great benefit to me as Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered constantly from backache and dull pains through my loins. Some days my back troubled me so severely that I could scarcely get around. I was unable to rest, get up at night and in the morning my back was so lame and stiff that it was difficult for me to put on my clothing. My kidneys were also weak and greatly added to my misery. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured them. I had only used three boxes when I was cured and I am now feeling a great deal better than before in years." Give Doan's Kidney Pills entire credit for "a change in my condition."

ANOTHER ENOCH ARDEN

Whether he is More or Less Lucky Than the Original, Only Himself Can Tell

Lee, Mass., July 12.—George Hecox, who went away from here in 1861 a sprightly young man of 21 years, leaving a young wife, has just returned to East Lee, to the home of his wife, after an absence of 48 years. In the meantime Mrs. Hecox, believing her husband dead, had married and lived to become a widow.

George Hecox in 1860 married Mary Canfield, of Lenox, they went to East Lee to live. When the war broke out Hecox was working as a blacksmith in a shop with his father and three brothers in Housatonic. They were patriotic men and one day they all went to Great Barrington and enlisted "father and the boys." George was assigned to Company K, Thirty-fourth Massachusetts Infantry. After one of his battles George Hecox was reported missing. He had served three years and was wounded and sent to the hospital. Before he recovered the war was over. Why he did not return to Lee no one but the Hecoxs knows, and they won't discuss it. However, eight years passed following the war and one day Hecox met in New York a friend. The soldier said he was going to Lee and was informed that his wife, believing him dead, had married Timothy Tucker. Hecox disappeared again. Two years ago Tucker died and their Mrs. Tucker began to receive aid from an unknown source. Money came regularly to her. This week, just at sunset, a white-haired man rapped on the door at the Tucker home and the gray with years opened the door.

"Does Mrs. Tucker live here?" asked the stranger.
"Yes," replied the woman, "I am Mrs. Tucker."
The man looked at her for a moment and then said: "Well, Mary, I've come home."
Mrs. Tucker gave a scream and nearly fainted. Hecox assisted her to a seat on the porch and there they talked for an hour. As twilight darkened the woman led the way into the house and the door was closed behind them. All Hecox will say about his long absence is that he has been successful in business in the South and that he and his wife are well provided for. He plans to purchase a house in East Lee and live there his remaining days.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NEWS

Too late for this news article in the Ocala Star has come a good letter containing much information about the Junior Endeavor Society of the Christian church in Ocala. We appreciate the favor by the superintendent, Mrs. Rev. W. H. Coleman, and will use every item sent us.
Mrs. H. W. Bruce, state Junior superintendent, while spending a few weeks at 1908 Laura street, Jacksonville, is also getting into closer touch with the Endeavor leaders of that part of Northeastern district. One pleasant meeting attended was the First Christian church where Miss Eddie J. McManaman is the beloved leader of 75 Juniors, having the largest organization of children Endeavorers we know of in Florida. Mrs. Bruce told them something about the Junior rally at the Tampa convention and the little folks listened eagerly.
Rev. Edwin Waldo, the Congregational pastor at West Palm Beach, writes: "We are having an average attendance of forty, probably more. Our Junior is larger this summer than in the winter, but that is due to the fact that we now have some of the Episcopalian children, as their church is open only six months in the year. We have several Hebrew children in Sunday School and Junior Endeavor who seem to like that portion of our name, 'Congregation'."
In Gilmore, on June 12th, there was a union meeting with the Juniors, who had an interesting part of the program and did most of the singing. Willard," and the meetings in other places besides Gilmore must have been well worth reporting to us.

The following message was sent to the Twenty-fourth International Convention now in session at St. Paul, Minnesota:
"Greetings in behalf of Florida Endeavorers: Romans, 8:31. 'What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?' This is the source of our great organization. Christian Endeavor—the Lord is on its side! Therefore, wherever we look, the work goes on because God is with us, and it is His power, not ours, that is winning this age in 'World-wide Endeavor.'"
We have been permitted to share a letter sent South by Miss Cora L. Peet, our ever remembered ex-staff officer and faithful district worker. Here are some thoughts that may interest her friends: "I am enjoying my training but it takes all of my time. The course is very full and we do not have any opportunity for idleness and even Sundays have been given up to at least one period of field work. How I do long for the spring time touches in air and sky reminds me how beautiful the South is. I shall certainly come back when I am ready for work. I hope a place will be ready somewhere. Wish our Congregational church had the strong deaconess organization these Methodist people have. It is a fine work and is putting so many splendid young women into the field." Miss Peet's address is 4949 Indiana avenue, Chicago. The Congregational Juniors in Avon Park, Polk and DeSoto district, have had an election of officers. Mrs. S. V. Dilley, wife of State Citizenship leader, is still superintendent; Fannie Bennett is president; Lillian Dilley, her assistant; Paul Dilley, secretary, and Francis Burlight, treasurer. This was once the state secretary's own society, and it has not taken a vacation we think since its organization about ten years ago, when the present officers were very small indeed, and their older brothers and sisters, now all grown, were the "active" members. Junior Endeavor lays a foundation we believe for Christian work of the future as scarcely any other kind of training will.

For our lesson on July 11th, Prof. Amos R. Wells makes the following helpful comment: "Abide—and then peace, light and life—these are the key words of John's gospel. Live close to Christ as the frequent reading of this gospel will help you to do, and you will have all you want, through time and eternity."
GRACE A. TOWNSEND, Interlachen, Fla., July 7, 1909.

PRESIDENT HELPS ORPHANS

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the president of the Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It invigorates the vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up thin, pale, weak children or run-down people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c at all druggists.
