Taft's 13,000-Mile Tour

During the Next Two Months, the President Will Visit Thirty-five States of the Union

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 13.—But three days remain of the president's vacation. Tuesday morning Mr. Taft will bid adieu to Beverly. He will probably motor into Boston from his summer home here. Tuesday night he will be the guest of honor at the banquet of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The following morning at 10 o'clock he will start on his long journey back to Washington, a journey that will carry him through thirty-five states and territories of the Union. The first stop will be Chicago, where he will speak at a banquet Tuesday night. From Chicago he will journey through the northwest, making stops at nearly all the principal cities.

During his tour the president will traverse the Royal gorge of the Rocky mountains, will visit the Seattle exposition, will spend three days in the Yosemite valley, will stop off at the Grand Canon of the Colorado, will spend two days with his sister in Los Angeles, will greet the president of Mexico at El Paso, will take a four days' sail down the Mississippi, from St. Louis to New Orleans, with varied stops en route, and will spend four days on the ranch of his brother, Chas. P. Taft, near Corpus Christi, Texas. Leaving New Orleans on November 1, the return to Washington will be made by way of Jackson, Miss.; Columbus, Miss.; Birmingham, Ala.; Macon, Ga.; Savannah, Ga.; Augusta, Columbia, Wilmington and Richmond, arriving at home on the evening of November 10.

The president will be accompanied throughout the trip by Captain Archibald W. Butt, military aide; Wendell W. Mitchell, assistant secretary; Dr. J. J. Richardson, of Washington, D. C.; James Sloan, Jr., and L. C. Wheeler, of the secret service, and Major Arthur Brooks, the president's confidential messenger. Six newspaper men will make the trip, and for short distances the president will have for company numerous governors, United States senators and other men in public life.

His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said the poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "two bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, sores and all blood disorders and rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

EXPERTS WERE APPOINTED

By President Taft to Assist in the Administration of the New Tariff Law

Beverly, Sept. 13.—President Taft announces the appointment of the national tariff commission as follows: Prof. H. C. Emory, of Yale, chairman; James B. Reynolds, of Boston; Alvin H. Sanders, of Chicago. The board is authorized to employ experts to investigate the foreign and domestic tariff. The tariff commission will assist President Taft in the execution of the new tariff law, especially applying to the maximum and minimum clauses to the nations unfriendly to the United States. No announcement of the amount of salaries the commission is made. Congress appropriated $75,000 to cover the salaries and expenses of the investigations of the commission.

ASKED FOR MORGAN'S AID

Greatest of American Financiers Will Care for Harriman's Stocks
Arden, N. Y., Sept. 13.—One of the last men to talk with Edward H. Harriman before his relapse of last Sunday that ended in his death, was J. P. Morgan. The financier came to the Arden house Thursday last week, when the encouraging improvement noted in Mr. Harriman's condition was at its height, and in spite of his bodily weakness, the head of the Union Pacific was as well fitted to discuss business as at any time in his life. For nearly two hours the two leaders of American finance sat on the porch in the sun. It is believed that at this conference plans were laid to support the financial market in the event of Harriman's death.

PEARY ANNEXED THE POLE

And the State Department at Washington Doesn't Know What to Do With It

Washington, Sept. 13.—The following message was received at the state department yesterday from Commander Peary:
"Battle Harbor, Sept. 10.—Hon. Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: Respectfully report hoisted Stars and Stripes on north pole April 6, and formally took possession that entire region and adjacent for and in name of president United States America. Record and United States flag left in position."
"Peary."
Acting Secretary Adee, of the state department, in an answer to inquiries said that the state department had no comment whatever to make as there was no question before it.

PEARY AT BATTLE HARBOR

Arctic Explorer Interviewed by the Captain of a Fishing Steamer
St. Johns, Sept. 13.—According to Captain Neilsen, of the fishing steamer Peary, which arrived here last night from Battle Harbor, Labrador, Commander Peary's steamer, Roosevelt, was badly damaged by ice in the north and may not get to North Jersey before September 25.

The Roosevelt struck a rock while entering Battle Harbor and was fast for six hours, but was not seriously damaged by this accident.
While the Roosevelt was stranded, Capt. Neilsen went aboard to offer his assistance. Capt. Neilsen says that Commander Peary and Capt. Bartlett showed him over the ship and told him that the pole had been reached. When Capt. Neilsen asked Peary if he was confident that he had found the pole, the commander replied: "Oh, I got there; you may rest assured of that."
The crew of the Roosevelt are all well, but look thin and tired, and according to Capt. Neilsen, the most worn-out looking member of the expedition is Commander Peary himself. Neilsen was informed that the Peary party underwent severe hardships in their night and day marches during the final stages of the dash to the pole. The expedition encountered blizzards, and, according to Capt. Neilsen, was obliged to kill dogs for food. Prof. Ross Marvin was drowned and an Eskimo was lost.
The party journeyed over 400 miles on sledges over fair ice conditions, although at one time Peary and several of his men had a narrow escape from being carried away by a break-up of an ice flow. The Roosevelt was moored in latitude 82.30 during the winter.
Capt. Neilsen said that the rigging of the Roosevelt presented a curious sight. About forty musk ox heads and heads of reindeer were suspended to dry. On the deck are twelve dogs, the last of nearly 200 taken poleward. Above the deckhouse are kennels containing foxes and other animals which Commander Peary is taking to the United States. In the hold of the vessel is a large supply of skins and furs, a number of Eskimo skeletons and bones of strange animals.

BOTH MAY BE BLUFFING

French Suspicious of Cook and Peary, and the Feeling May Become World-Wide

Paris, Sept. 13.—Interest in the polar controversy continues unabated, but Commander Peary's reiterated charges have somewhat disconcerted the newspapers, which are now much more inclined to suspend final judgment until proof is submitted.
Some of the papers treat the affair in a humorous vein and ask whether it is not possible that both are bluffing. They point out especially that there is nothing in Peary's recital inconsistent with the statement made by Cook and that neither had a white man with him when he claims he reached the pole.

A NARROW ESCAPE

Edgar N. Bayliss, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time and if I did not have consumption, it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar, and it stopped my cough, and now I am entirely well, and have gained twenty-eight pounds, all due to good results from taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Sold by all druggists.

The current at this point is very strong, but Graff got across all right, landing at the foot of Halsey street. As soon as he got ashore he started up the street, yelling at he went.
