TWIN CITIES GREET TAFT

Cordial Welcome for the President, Who Made a Prophecy that Democrats Hope May be Fulfilled

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 19.—President Taft came to the twin cities of Minnesota yesterday and with the shadow of death hanging over the governor of the state, received a cordial, but not a demonstrative welcome. The illness of Gov. Johnson, probably the most popular executive Minnesota has ever known, has entered deeply into the spirit of the day, and dreaded eventualities threatened for a time during the morning seriously curtailed the program of entertainment both here and in St. Paul.

President Taft was deeply affected soon after his arrival to receive a message of personal greeting from Gov. Johnson. The compliment was so unexpected under the circumstances and coming by dictation from the lips of a man who was reported at the time as having but the faintest chance for life, it called out an immediate response from President Taft, filled with expressions of sympathetic concern and fervent hope for a speedy recovery.

In his auditorium speech at St. Paul, the president called out prolonged applause and cheering when he declared of Gov. Johnson:

"I unite with you in a fervent prayer to God that he may be spared to you and to the country. With his ability, his courage, his great common sense, he cannot be spared. He is too valuable, not alone to the people of this state, but to the people of the nation, who doubtless will insist in time that he shall serve them."

NEAR DEATH IN BIG POND

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in coughs and colds, sore lungs, hemorrhages, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

AUTO RELAY RUN CALLED OFF

First Car Wrecked, One Man Killed and the Other Passengers Injured

Reading, Pa., Sept. 19.—The transcontinental automobile relay run from Philadelphia to Seattle, Wash., under the auspices of the Philadelphia Press, came to a sudden and sad end yesterday afternoon at Robesonia, twelve miles west of here, causing the death of one of the occupants of the machine and the serious injury of several of the other passengers.

The dead man is Henry Buckley, a reporter for the Press. William Brown of Philadelphia was so seriously injured that he may die, and William H. Bohn, of the Acme Automobile Agency in Philadelphia, sustained a deep laceration of the scalp. Clifford E. Ely, the chauffeur, and A. Carter, colored, a valet, were slightly injured. The machine was going through Robesonia at a twenty-five mile clip when something went wrong with a rear tire. The car upset and Buckley was thrown into the middle of the road, fracturing his skull.

When the news of the accident reached the Press the run was called off. The run promised to be an interesting affair. The Press had obtained from President Taft a letter of greeting to President Chilberg, of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, and had planned to carry it across the country in relays of automobiles. The car wrecked left Philadelphia at 12:30 p. m. yesterday, Mayor Reyburn giving the signal for the start.

TESTIFIES AFTER FOUR YEARS

Carlisle Center, N. Y., G. B. Burhans, writes: "About four years ago I wrote you that I had been entirely cured of kidney trouble by taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and after four years I am again pleased to state that I have never had any return of those symptoms, and I am evidently cured to stay cured." Foley's Kidney Remedy will do the same for you. Sold by all druggists.

INALIENABLE RIGHT DENIED IN ALABAMA

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 18.—The first destruction of liquors under the new Fuller bill was made late this afternoon by the sheriff under orders of Judge W. E. Fort. A total of 250 quarts of whisky and eight casks of beer were poured into the sanitary sewer. Under the provisions of the new bill a claim of owner ship would make the owner guilty of violation of the law until the claimant could come into court and prove he had not been selling it. The law assumes the defendant guilty until he establishes his innocence.

AN INTERESTING OCCASION

Opening of Home of Harvard's Mother in the Native Town of Shakspeare

*London, Sept. 20.—The first public function which will be undertaken by Whitelaw Reid on his return to England, will be the opening of the Harvard House in Stratford-on-Avon. The date of the function has been fixed by the ambassador himself for October 6, so that the ceremony may be coincident with the installation of Dr. Lowell as the new president of Harvard University.

The Harvard house was the home of Katherine Rogers, the mother of John Harvard and from its threshold she went out to be married to Robert Harvard of Southwark. From this union sprang the founder of Harvard University.

It is chiefly to Marie Corelli, the novelist, that the gift of Harvard house to America is due. She long cherished the idea that the Stratford-on-Avon dwelling where John Harvard's mother lived, and where he himself most often had stayed in his childhood, should belong to Harvard University. Miss Corelli was strongly supported in her scheme by Edward Morris, of Chicago, who bought the house and entrusted Miss Corelli with its repair, and also its furnishings in the style of the Harvard period. The work concluded Mr. Morris presented the house to Harvard University. It was accepted, and it is to be held in trust perpetually, under a body of trustees.

The house is perhaps the most beautiful sixteenth century building existing in Stratford-on-Avon. It is a far more perfect specimen of a sixteenth century abode than Shakespeare's birthplace.

The house will be open to the public and will be available to travelling Americans as a resting place in Stratford.

On the day of the opening Miss Corelli will entertain the ambassador and some hundred friends at luncheon at her residence, Mason Croft.

OKEVAH AND EWALOO

The Happy Termination of an Eskimo Courtship in Which Explorer Peary was Best Man

Battle Harbor, Sept. 19.—One of the passengers on the Roosevelt must have been Dan Cupid and the first north pole romance in the world's history is told by Commander Peary. It concerns one of the four Eskimos who were with Peary at the north pole, Ookevah by name, and Ewaloo, an attractive 19-year-old Eskimo girl. Ewaloo's mother died and her father Ikawah, married again.

Ewaloo was not happy with her stepmother. She fell in love with Ookevah and then wished to go to housekeeping in their snow igloo, but Ikawah objected.

Commander Peary told the natives that four men would be chosen to go to the highest latitude. He could not tell in advance who they would be for it would depend on who gave the best services on the earlier march. It was his intention, he said, to bestow a number of presents on these four on his return, if they reached the pole. He would give to each of the four guns and ammunition, tent cloth, lumber and complete furnishings for a house.

Ookevah, who is only 24, and who had never been on the ice with Peary, heard the Commander's announcement and applied for the privilege of being one of the four to go to the front. He said that if he reached the pole and secured the presents he would get the consent of Ewaloo's father. Peary said he would give him the chance to be one of the heroes of the expedition if he withstood the gruelling marches up to the point where a dash was to be made for the pole.

From the moment of taking leave of Ewaloo the brave Ookevah proved one of the most devoted members of the Polar party, displaying wonderful endurance in contrast with the old and experienced men of the tribe. Peary's system is the survival of the fittest men, dogs, and sledges, and love triumphed. Ookevah won the pole with Peary and won his bride.

On the return to Itilbloo they were married under the Stars and Stripes. Commander Peary gave to them their wedding presents and they had their honeymoon on the Roosevelt during the ten days the steamer remained in port.

CASTIGATED BY THE LASH OF CONSCIENCE

Rosa Elrod Declares that Her Testimony Against Jack Worthington Was Perjury

Rome, Ga., Sept. 19.—Declaring that she was driven by the lash of conscience to tell the truth after having perjured herself on the witness stand, where her testimony secured the conviction of Jack Worthington, a Bartow county farmer, to twenty years in the penitentiary on the charge of criminal assault, Rosa Elrod, the alleged victim, yesterday made a sensational affidavit in which she says her story of the assault was a pure fabrication.

The girl, accompanied by her father, appeared before a notary and the attorneys for Worthington and denied her whole story. She admitted having illicit relations with Worthington, but said they were by consent and that he was engaged to marry her. Her father, J. S. Elrod, swore she made the same confession to him.

Both father and daughter declared that the false testimony at the trial was caused by threats of death to the girl, made by enemies of Worthington who had discovered his relations with the Elrod girl and wanted him lynched or jailed.

Worthington's attorneys will use the affidavits in a motion for a new trial pending in the appellate court.
